Doctor Dinwiddie
My Dear Friend
Chennai the July 1796

I have been anxiously waiting the receipt of a Letter from you - Respecting my young Ward - but none since you first have come to hand - Our Friend Harris is here and very much cast down on Account of the accident of the Warrington - it will be a good many Pounds out of his Pocket - the Warrington is expected to sail for Bengal in all this month - when I will do myself the pleasure of writing again - I trust the hurry of your business has not made you forget your friendly promise toward me - I had a very friendly and encouraging Letter from Mrs. Duncan yesterday Respecting Miss Jenny - and she gives me great hopes the Child will turn out well - which God grant she may - you will oblige me to keep an eye these now and then - the from Mrs. Duncan made of writing - I place every confidence in in her good instructions and management - I intended to have sent down Miss Jarvis's sister but really my circumstances will not admit, so I must defer it until a future day - when the Georgian Packet arrives I may favor me with a line - for I expect Letters of great consequence from home by her - Compliments to all friends and believe me to be -

Thy Dear Friend

Yours Most Sincerely
William Spence

Received of
