

The Proceedings of the Nova Scotian Institute of Science
Volume 19 Part 1

|   |         |
|---|---------|
| Some unreported and rare fishes for the coast of Nova Scotia         |         |
| - V. D. Vladykov .....   | 1-8     |
| The halo complex of March 4th, 1935, at St. Andrews, N. B.           |         |
| - H. B. Hachey .....   | 9-10    |
| Fresh-water cladocera and copepod from New Brunswick and Nova Scotia |         |
| - M. W. Smith .....  | 11-16   |
| The marine fishes of Nova Scotia                                     |         |
| - V. D. Vladykov and R. A. McKenzie .....  | 16-113  |
| The Goldenville-Halifax boundary at Fairview, N. S.                  |         |
| - Elizabeth King .....   | 114-118 |
| A note on the use of hot wire anemometers                            |         |
| - D. LeB. Cooper and E. P. Linton .....  | 119-120 |
| The early development of the chondocranium of Salmo Salar     |         |
| - Elizabeth Campbell Saunderson .....  | 121-147 |
| Proceedings .....  | 148-155 |