“You’ll Be Hearing from Us Again . . . SOON!”

This couple make a regular practice of calling distant friends by Long Distance Telephone. It’s not a case of “Out of sight—out of mind” with these two, when parted from good friends. These cosy Long Distance chats keep valued friendships warm and vibrant, and make an ever-widening circle of intimates.

Find out how little it will cost you to follow their good example. The Long Distance rate tables in your Telephone Directory will give you a good idea . . . and our local office will gladly provide rates not listed. The Long Distance habit is a good one to cultivate.

The Need for the News!

HISTORY is in the making in Europe to-day . . . It is history in the form of news which you read in your newspaper day after day, presented as accurately as human reporting can be.

In the interpretation and presentation of to-day's European news, The Halifax Herald and The Halifax Mail rank high among Canadian daily newspapers. Its coverage of world news is also complete and timely. Every day there flows into the Herald editorial office many thousand words of wire and cable news from Press Associations, writers in world capitals and expert foreign correspondents on European war fronts. These papers assemble this news and present it without delay, supplementing it with the latest war photos available and descriptive news pictures. In its editorial columns, the Herald and Mail edits and interprets the news with unbiased comments to make a clear picture of world events for its readers.

SIMPSON'S West End Shirts

Simpson's West End shirt is amply typified by its name... a quality shirt moulded to suit the discriminating tastes of the well dressed man. It fits to perfection because close attention to cut and tailoring are among the many features stressed in its manufacture. It blends harmoniously with the well-turned-out ensemble because material, workmanship and design are equally distinctive. Made from extra fine cotton yarns. Unpleated French front. English lounge or trubezied collar attached, two separate.

Does Your Will Provide ... Or Merely Divide?

Naturally the purpose of Your Will is to provide for your dependents. But possible changes in their requirements, and in your property, may have made Your Will obsolete. Instead of providing, it may merely divide.

You owe it to your loved ones to keep Your Will up to date with respect to their requirements. Fully as important is the appointment of an able, experienced executor. We offer freely our wide knowledge of estate management, and would welcome your call at any of our branch offices.

Over a Century of Banking Service

113 YEARS

The Halifax Chronicle has been closely linked with the history of Nova Scotia for 113 years. It is one of the most quoted newspapers in Canada, and is the only paper of the Maritimes of which that impartial authority, the Encyclopedia Britannica, says it is "of national reputation and wide political influence."

Adhering always to a sound, sane editorial policy it has won and enjoys the confidence of all sections of the people to a marked degree.

The Halifax Daily Star, established in 1873, is associated with the Chronicle as an afternoon paper. These two, in combination, provide an excellent coverage of the entire province.
