

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

---

BRUNO FRICKE.

Vice-President of the Free-German Movement. Leader of the anti-Nazi Germans in Argentina, whose efforts supplied the Argentine Government with most of the information on which it acted against Fifth-Column Nazi activities in Buenos Aires.

DONALD COWIE.

Of Malvern, Wores., England.

RENÉ KRAUS.

Of Austrian birth. Author of the celebrated biography of Mr. Churchill.

ROSS COLLINS.

Professor of History, University of Alberta.

P. M. SHERLOCK.

Of Kingston, Jamaica.

AUDREY ALEXANDRA BROWN.

Now resident in Victoria, B. C.

COUNT CARLO SFORZA.

Foreign Minister of Italy during the years immediately preceding Mussolini's rise to power.

J. W. LOGAN.

Lecturer in Classics, Dalhousie. Formerly Classical Master, Halifax Academy.

FREDERICK NIVEN.

The well-known Canadian novelist, now resident at Willow Point, Nelson, B. C.

DOROTHY DEVENISH.

Of Hamilton, Ontario.

---

J. R. RANDOLPH.

Major James R. Randolph, Ordnance Reserve, U. S. Army, Washington, D. C. Major Randolph's article was received before the entrance of the United States into the war.

E. G. BERRY.

Professor in Department of Classics, University of Manitoba.

A. K. GRIFFIN.

Professor of Classics, King's College.