

CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS NUMBER

HUGH ROSS MACKINTOSH, M. A., D.Phil. (Edin.) D. D. (Edin.)

Professor since 1904 in the Edinburgh theological college of the United Free Church of Scotland. Formerly Examiner in the University of London and the University of Wales. Author of theological books, and of many articles in leading magazines both British and Continental.

ROBERT MAGILL, M. A., Ph.D. (Jena)

Secretary of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Professor of Philosophy 1910-1912 in Dalhousie University. Has acted as Chairman of Government Commissions for the provinces of Nova Scotia and Saskatchewan. Chairman from 1912 to 1917 of the Canada Grain Commission.

ARTHUR NORMAN HOLCOMBE, Ph.D. (Harvard)

Professor of Government, Harvard University. A member of various Government Commissions dealing with minimum wage and other economic questions for the State of Massachusetts. Author of books on economic controversies.

FRANCIS W. HIRST, M. A. (Oxon.)

English lawyer and journalist. Editor of Common Sense; formerly editor of The Economist (London). Special lecturer, 1921, at Leland Stanford University and at the University of California, where he is delivering courses on the European financial situation that has arisen out of the war. Author of The Stock Exchange, The Manchester School, The Six Panics, The Political Economy of War, etc.

MARY KINLEY INGRAHAM, M. A. (Acadia)

Librarian since 1917 at Acadia University, and Instructor in Library Science.

FRANK BELL, B. A. (Dalhousie), K. C.

City Solicitor and Chairman of Court of Tax Appeals, Halifax, N. S.

NORMA E. SMITH

A Halifax writer. Contributor of articles and verses to The Canadian Bookman, The Westminster Gazette, The Globe, etc.

JOHN EDWARD ANNAND MACLEOD, B. A. (Dalhousie), K. C.

A lawyer, head of the firm of Macleod, Robertson, Smith and Co., Calgary, Alberta.

PELHAM EDGAR, Ph.D. (Johns Hopkins)

Professor of English Literature, Victoria College, University of Toronto.

JOHN CAMERON, M. D., D. Sc. (St. Andrews)

Professor of Anatomy, Dalhousie University.

REV. J. W. A. NICHOLSON, M. A. (Dalhousie), B. D.

Minister of St. James's Presbyterian Church, Dartmouth, N. S.