BOOKS IN CANADA

INGLUVIN pretends to be a magazine. In truth it is an open-ended book — a continuing anthology of current Canadian writing. INGLUVIN 2, for example, contains a short story by Leonard Cohen, an article by Robin Mathews, poems by Irving Layton and Bryan McCarthy, satire by John Glassco, a review by Chuck Carlson and much more. No. 2 also contains wash and line drawings by three artists. For $3.00 we will enter your subscription (4 issues). INGLUVIN, 5355 Walkley Avenue, Montreal 265.

Are Salesmen People?

Not necessarily. Well-designed and carefully printed reports and business stationery can also "sell" the character of your firm.

We offer a complete and thoughtful printing service, capable of producing effective "salesmen" for you.
