THE DALHOUSIE REVIEW

Invites contributions in prose or in verse from both new and established writers. Manuscripts should not exceed 5,000 words in prose, 300 in verse. They should be typewritten on standard-size paper and double-spaced except for quoted matter, and footnotes should be numbered consecutively and typed together at the end of the article. All manuscripts should be accompanied by an addressed envelope and return postage in Canadian stamps or International Reply Coupons. Editorial correspondence should be addressed to The Editors, The Dalhousie Review, Dalhousie University, Halifax, Canada. Correspondence regarding advertising and subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager, The Dalhousie Review, at the same address.

The contents of The Dalhousie Review are listed in the Canadian Index, Canadian Library Association, Ottawa. The Dalhousie Review is authorized as second class mail by the Post Office Department, Ottawa, and for payment of postage in cash.

*Perhaps they won't have to forget university
after all*

IS THE HIGH COST OF HIGHER EDUCATION CLOSING THE DOOR
ON YOUR HOPES FOR YOUR CHILDREN?

You have added up what they can earn themselves and what you can do to help. You may even be counting on a scholarship or bursary as well. Yet it's still not enough . . .

Often the extra amount you need is heartbreakingly small. Yet it is big enough to make the difference between university and—no university. And this at a time when our youth and our country both have greater need than ever for trained minds, specialized knowledge.

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA HAS TAKEN STEPS TO HELP
MEET THIS MAJOR PROBLEM
THROUGH SPECIAL
UNIVERSITY TUITION LOANS.

Usually, these loans will be made to parents, guardians or sponsors of students attending or planning to attend Canadian universities and colleges. They are available in amounts up to $1,000 a year through four years.

Repayment may be arranged over a longer period than usual. In special cases, it may even be extended beyond the four-year university period. In other words, these University Tuition Loans are set up on a flexible basis, on relatively liberal terms, to permit as many people as possible to take advantage of them.

A ROYAL BANK OF CANADA
UNIVERSITY TUITION LOAN
MAY BE THE ANSWER TO YOUR PROBLEM.

We believe this supplementary financial help will keep the door to the university open for many parents who are wondering if higher education for their children is beyond their reach. The Royal Bank, and your Royal Bank manager, share your concern in this personal and national problem. We invite you to come in and see whether a Royal Bank University Tuition Loan may not be the solution.

DEVELOPMENT

IN A TRADITION

OF EXPANDING SERVICE

DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY has embarked on the largest, most demanding and urgent expansion programme in its history.

$16,100,000—the goal of The Dalhousie University Fund—is required to finance this five year development programme.

Across Canada and outside the country, graduates, parents of students and other friends are joining with business and industrial leaders to secure the success of Dalhousie's appeal.

The need for funds is inescapable. As an independent, endowed institution responsible only to the people it serves, Dalhousie University addresses its appeal for funds to all those who believe that for the higher good of our society a university must be given the power to expand, and enabled to flourish.
