

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

- FERDINAND CANNING SCOTT SCHILLER.—Fellow and Senior Tutor, Corpus Christi College, Oxford. Author of many books and articles on philosophical and social questions. The argument of his paper in this issue will be found in further development in his recent book, Tantalus.
- SIR HENRY NEWBOLT.—Practised at the English Bar from 1887 until 1899. Author of many volumes of high distinction both in prose and in verse.
- RICHARD AUSTEN BUTLER.—Ex-President of the Cambridge Union Society. A member of the Cambridge debating team which toured Canada last Fall.
- EDWIN JOHN PRATT.—Lecturer in English, Victoria College, Toronto. Author of Newfoundland Verse.
- CHARLES RYLE FAY.—Professor of Economic History, University of Toronto. Fellow and Lecturer of Christ's College, Cambridge, 1908-1921.
- ARCHIBALD OSWALD MACRAE.—For many years Principal of Western Canada College, Calgary. Now Professor of Philosophy in the University of British Columbia.
- JOHN SKIRVING EWART.—K. C. Chief Canadian Counsel, North Atlantic Fisheries Arbitration at The Hague, 1910. A prolific writer on legal subjects and on questions of Canadian constitutional development.
- PELHAM EDGAR.—Professor of English Literature, University of Toronto. Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada.
- ALFRED BURPEE BALCOM.—Professor of Economic Science, Acadia University.
- JOHN ROSS SHAW.—President, Canadian Manufacturers Association, 1922-23. Only Canadian representative at the 1922 meeting of the International Chambers of Commerce held in Rome.
- E. P. HURLEY.—Of Irish birth. Graduate in Law of the State University, Tennessee. A frequent contributor to magazine literature.
- HARDOLPH WASTENEYS.—Professor of Biochemistry, University of Toronto.
- LEWIS HUNT.—Son of the late Rev. A. S. Hunt, formerly Superintendent of Education for Nova Scotia. Dr. Hunt has practised as a physician for many years in England, and has been Mayor of the town of Richmond.