

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

DR. HERBERT L. STEWART, graduate of Lincoln College, Oxford and of the Royal University of Ireland, and for many years Professor of Philosophy at Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia. * * * SIR ROBERT E. HOLLAND, formerly Agent to the Governor-General in Rajputana, member of the Secretary of State's Council of India in London, and later Judicial Adviser to the Government and Judge of Appeal in Siam; presently residing in Victoria, B. C. * * * PROFESSOR A. E. JOHNSON, of the Chair of English, Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York. * * * BERTON E. ROBINSON, well known author and school teacher; presently Supervisor of Schools Trenton, Nova Scotia. * * * REV. DR. DANIEL DUFFY, graduate of Monaghan and Maynooth Colleges, Ireland and Vice-rector of the Agricultural College in Monaghan; presently assisting in the Classics Department, St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, Nova Scotia. * * * CLAIRE HARRIS MacINTOSH, C.D.A. (Mrs. G. A. MacIntosh) author of "Attune with Spring in Acadie", "Phantom Pirates," "Sandy the Bell Ringer," and numerous other stories and poems; Past President of the Nova Scotia Branch of the Canadian Authors' Association and Vice-President of the Poetry Society with headquarters in London, England; presently residing at Bedford, Nova Scotia. * * * DR. JOHN BURNS MARTIN, Professor of English, University of King's College, Halifax, Nova Scotia, well known author and literary critic. * * * W. E. GREENING, M.A. contributor to numerous journals and literary periodicals; presently associated with the Department of Labour, Ottawa. * * * MISS FLORENCE WESTACOTT, of Toronto, Ontario. * * * W. H. G. ARMYTAGE, Lecturer in Education, University of Sheffield, England, and contributor to numerous historical and literary reviews; author of "The Biography of A. J. Murdilla, 19th Century Liberal Statesmen," to be published this year. * * * DR. LILLIAN M. MAXWELL (Mrs. J. Brown Maxwell), of Fredericton, New Brunswick, author of "The River St. John and its Poets" and numerous other monographs and articles; historian of the York-Sunbury Historical Society. * * * DR. NORMAN WARD, of the Department of Economics and Political Science, University of Saskatchewan, author of "Canadian House of Commons: Representation," and contributor of articles to learned journals and contemporary periodicals.