

Final Call For Papers Special Northern Canada Architecture Issue

The Society for The Study of Architecture in Canada is issuing a final call for papers for a special issue of the Bulletin which will concern itself entirely with architecture in northern Canada.

The range of subject matter which will be considered for publication covers the entire spectrum of the built environment, from archaeological studies of Inuit housing to contemporary design. The following are some examples of topics suitable for this issue: heritage conservation and restoration, development of permanent far northern communities, architectural triumphs and failures, technology and construction practices and Canada's leading role in the development of northern architecture.

Articles, complete with photographs, should be sent to the Editor by 29 May 1988. Should a time extension be required please contact the Editor.

The Society wishes to thank The Department of Public Works and Highways, Government of the Northwest Territories for their assistance in funding this Bulletin publication.
