1982 BULLETIN THEME ISSUE on REPRODUCTION OF DECORATIVE ELEMENTS WITH SUBSTITUTE AND ORIGINAL MATERIALS

This call for papers for the 1982 BULLETIN theme issue is directed to all conservators and craftsmen who have tackled the problem of reproducing decorative elements with substitute or original materials. The main emphasis of the papers should illustrate hands-on techniques and case studies which will assist others facing similar problems.

Topics could include:

- material types including brickwork, terra cotta, concrete, gustavino tile, ceramics, glass, ironwork and other materials, fiberglass, acrylics, etc.,
- specification and performance criteria,
- maintenance requirements for reproductions,
- methods of reproduction,
- illustrative case studies.

Manuscripts should be submitted no later than August 15, 1982 to:
