

ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS

Heather Campbell is an MLIS candidate (2015) at Dalhousie University, with BA (Hons.) in Political Science and minor in History from Saint Mary's University. She is passionate about information literacy and has aspirations of working in this area in an academic or public library following graduation.

Jennie Thompson has her BA (with Honours) in English Literature with a minor in Women's Studies. She is currently an MLIS Candidate (2015) at Dalhousie University. She is committed to promoting literacy and supporting equality and diversity in public libraries. Her passions are literature (from the Gothic, to Domestic fiction, to contemporary Sci-Fi), social justice, and children's & youth librarianship (or any combination therein!).

Heather Reid received her BA in English Literature from Saint Mary's University, and is currently an MLIS Candidate (2015) at Dalhousie University. She hopes to one day work in youth librarianship and help to foster and maintain the Ben Worth, current MLIS candidate (2015) at Dalhousie University, received a Bachelor of Arts in Animation from Emily Carr University in Vancouver, BC. He is passionate about engaging youth through storytelling, games, and music to inspire a lifelong love of literature, storytelling, and learning.

