IN MEMORIAM

Susan Elizabeth Kingston, 53, of Dartmouth, passed away peacefully at home. Born in Pembroke, Ontario, she was a devoted daughter of the late Peter Frederick and Josephine Kathleen (Martin) Kingston. Susan was a graduate of Dartmouth High School (1973) and Mount Saint Vincent University (1977). She will be missed by co-workers at Dalhousie University bookstore where she worked for 30 years. Susan was an active member of Christ Church in Dartmouth where she sang with the choir and participated in several committees. Her love of children was reflected in her work at the church's children's nursery. Her cats Puss, Freedom and Greyheart were in her words, "her children". Dear friend of Lu-Anne and Jim Covill. She is survived by brother Murray Peter (Kari Ann) of Cambridge, Ont and an adored aunt to Paige, MacKenzie, and Olivia Kingston as well as Thomas and Jake Cooper. A memorial service was held on Monday, May 4, 2009 in Christ Anglican Church. Rev Cathy Lee Cunningham officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery. A thank you to the staff at the VG Site, QEII. A special thanks to Cathy Gillis and Dr. Elizabeth Pantic. Donations to Christ Anglican Church, Kidney Foundation or the Humane Society would be appreciated. Susan is soaring with the Angels.
