In Memoriam - Zhuhui (Kevin) Ye

During the past few days much effort has been devoted to helping the students, faculty and staff of Dalhousie's Faculty of Agriculture cope with the tragic loss of student Zhuhui (Kevin) Ye in a drowning accident Saturday, September 8th, 2012.

Zhuhui, age 22, completed his BSc.(Agr.) through the Fujian Agriculture and Forestry University's 2+2 program with Dalhousie University (formerly NSAC) and graduated last year. He was currently enrolled as a graduate student on Dalhousie's Agricultural Campus.

Zhuhui, an avid basketball fan, was a polite, hard-working young man with a big smile. He will be deeply missed.

A Farewell Ceremony will be held on campus as soon as there is a better understanding of the arrival of Zhuhui's family. The Chinese Embassy in Ottawa is facilitating this process.

A Memorial Fund has been established by the students to help aid Zhuhui's family and donations may be made to Ye Zhuhui's family in trust. Students will also be collecting donations at various locations across campus next week.

Our deepest sympathies are extended to the family and friends of Zhuhui. It is a tragedy to lose someone so young and our thoughts are with his loved ones.

Dr. Harold Cook

Dean of Agriculture and Campus Principal, Dalhousie Agricultural Campus
