

J. J. Bray have you finished your Treatise on Fortification & Gunnery?

When you have time please let me know how you proceed; and if you have met with your Match in a female Companion - Miss Melling and Miss Mr. Richard are in statu quo yet. Mr. John Edgar is succeeding very well so far - please present my Compl^t to your Cousin Mr. Rudick I like to quit the Subject of speaking
- I once more say - Adieu -
- adieu you my Learning - Je vous dis,
- Je suis votre Serviteur -

Mr. J. Dinwiddie N. B.
Old Post Office
Dublin.

Mr. Dinwiddie,

Newry, 22nd Oct. 1792.

Sir,

Mr. Livingston, the Bearer hereof, a Country-man of your own, is now going to your City to teach the Art of Penmanship - He lived in Newry for these three years past, with great Success and Encouragement in his Branch, and Credit in his Behaviour.

I therefore beg to recommend him to your Notice, and help to promote his Encouragement - Perhaps at Crom-
-lin he may meet with Success - Please make my best Compliments to Mr. Newry and am Sir, truly your and sincere Believer
