Hedgecote Road,
4th March 1806.

My Dear Sir

I am sorry I had not the pleasure of seeing you before I left Calcutta, to thank you in person, for the benefit my learning, has derived from the Gul--vanet's Books: - I beg, then, to do it in this way, and, to assure you, I am very thankful for your kind attentions. Your letter and Books shall be delivered in safety.

With best wishes -

I am Dear Sir

Yours Sincerely
John L. S.
