

The Proceedings and Transactions of the Nova Scotian Institute of Science

Volume 11 Part 2

Proceedings .....	xvii-xxx
Distribution of bedded leads in relation to mining policy – Prof. J.E. Woodman .....	163-178
Notes on hydraulic lime and cement – Francis H. Mason .....	179-189
Local variations and other notes on blue-eyed grass (Sisyrinchium augustifolium) .....	–
Capt. J.H. Barbour .....	190-192
The sunken land of Bus (lat. 35 west, long. 53 north) – Henry S. Poole .....	193-198
The swim bladder of fishes a degenerate gland – Prof. E.E. Prince .....	199-226
The earthquake of March 21, 1904 in Nova Scotia – Prof. J.E. Woodman .....	227-235
On the age of conglomerate capping the Cambrian rocks of Nova Scotia .....
– Henry S. Poole .....	236-244
On a determination of the elements of terrestrial magnetism at Halifax, N.S., August, 1904 .....
– Prof. Stephen M. Dixon .....	245-259
The faults of Battery Point, Sydney, N.S. – T.T. Fulton .....	260-261
Subsidence of Atlantic coast of Nova Scotia (Introductory to paper by Mr. McIntosh) .....
– Henry S. Poole .....	262-263
The question of subsidence at Louisbourg, Cape Breton – Kenneth McIntosh .....	264-270
Phenological observations in Canada, 1903 – A.H. MacKay .....	271-285
Botanical notes in Nova Scotia – A.H. MacKay .....	286-288
The structure and succession at North Sydney and Sydney Mines, C.B. .....
– Loran A. DeWolfe .....	289-323
Contribution to the study of hydroxylamine – G.M. Johnstone MacKay .....	324-337
(Appendix II) List of members, 1903-04 .....	v-viii