

Developing Understanding from Young Women's Experiences in Obtaining Sexual Health Services and Education in a Nova Scotia Community

A policy-based research initiative from the Maritime Centre of Excellence for Women's Health.

Join researchers from the Department of Community Health and Epidemiology at Dalhousie University and the Amherst Association for Healthy Adolescent Sexuality for a presentation of findings on the barriers preventing young women from receiving maximally effective sexual health education in their schools, and related services from physicians and in pharmacies.

TIME: Wednesday, June 16, 1999. 12 noon to 2 p.m.
Parker Reception Room, IWK Grace

RSVP: Mary Ann Martell, 420-6725, if you plan to attend.

A light lunch will be provided.
