

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

SIR ROBERT HADFIELD, Bart.

The well-known British metallurgist.

MARIUS BARBEAU.

Of Ottawa. Ethnologist in the National Museum.

DAVID MUNROE.

Master at Lower Canada College, Montreal.

D. C. HARVEY.

Provincial Archivist for Nova Scotia. Formerly Head of Department of History, University of British Columbia.

G. H. CLARKE.

Head of Department of English, Queen's University, Kingston.

W. H. HATTIE.

The late Assistant-Dean, Faculty of Medicine, Dalhousie University. Dr. Hattie's lamented death occurred while the sheets of his article were in the press.

E. J. PRATT.

Professor of English Literature, Toronto University.

R. A. MACKAY.

Head of Department of Government, Dalhousie University.

GRACE TOMKINSON.

Mrs. H. Tomkinson, of Yarmouth, N. S.

SIR THOMAS WHITE, K.C.M.G.

Of Toronto. Finance Minister in the Government of Canada, 1911-1919.

A. M. STEPHEN.

Of Victoria, B. C.

E. W. NICHOLS.

Head of Department of Classics, Dalhousie University.

LEO KENNEDY.

Of Outremont, Quebec.

HILDA M. RIDLEY.

Of Toronto. Miss Ridley's contributions on literary and social subjects have appeared in earlier numbers of the REVIEW.