

Mel Bradshaw lives in Toronto.

Gabriele Glang is a poet living in Washington, D.C.

Colin Grant is Professor of Religious Studies at Mount Allison University, in Sackville, New Brunswick.

Steve Heighton currently lives in Kingston, Ontario. He has published poetry and short fiction in various Canadian and Australian magazines. His first collection will soon be published by Quarry Press.

Richard Hoffpauir is the author of Romantic Fallacies and an Associate Professor of English at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver.

C. Kanaganayakam is with the Department of English at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver.

Everard H. King is an Associate Professor of English at the Memorial University of Newfoundland in St. John's.

Richard Lemm is a Canadian poet, critic and publisher. He lives in Charlottetown, P.E.I.

David P. Reiter now lives in Latham, Australia, and lectures in Professional Writing at the Canberra College of Advanced Education. His work has appeared in various magazines in Canada and Australia. A sequence of his Inuit poems will soon be published by Five Islands Press.

Mark Sanders has published poetry in various journals in Canada and the U.S. He now lives in Lincoln, Nebraska.

M.E. Turner is with the Department of English at the University of Guelph in Ontario.

Paul Tyndall is a doctoral candidate at Dalhousie, writing a thesis on the poetry of J.V. Cunningham.

John Van Rys is also a doctoral candidate at Dalhousie working on the poetry of Al Purdy.

Tracy Ware is now with the Department of English at Bishop's University in Lennoxville, Quebec.

Derk Wynand is with the Department of Creative Writing at the University of Victoria, British Columbia. His books of Poetry include Second Person (1983), Fetishistic (1984) and a translation from the German of H.C. Artman, Under the Cover of a Hat and Green-Sealed Message (1985).