

Alumni News

DR. C. M. BETHUNE—Editor

Among the Alumni reading papers at the forthcoming meeting of the Canadian Medical Association at Montreal in June are Hugh W. Schwartz, '11, who will present a paper entitled "How to be Wrong; The X-Ray, A Quick and Easy Method"; J. W. McKay, '18, of Montreal, who will speak on "Roentgenological and Pathological Studies of Bullous Emphysema"; and K. A. MacKenzie, '03, who will deliver the Valedictory Address.

A. F. Miller, '04, Superintendent of the Nova Scotia Sanitorium at Kentville, sailed last week for an extended cruise to the West Indies.

In order to care for the practice of Doctor R. M. Benvie, who has been ill for some weeks, William H. Embree, '38, has moved to Stellarton. For the past year Doctor Embree has been in Scotsburn, Pictou County.

Malcolm J. MacAulay, '31, of Sydney, Cape Breton, recently spent a short holiday in Halifax.

The sudden death occurred recently of Frank T. McLeod, '19, of New Waterford, Nova Scotia.

Walter Templeman, '34, and Mrs. Templeman were in Halifax early in March enroute to Saint Johns from New York. Doctor Templeman, who is established in general practice in Saint Johns, has been convalescing following a perforated duodenal ulcer.

At present a member of the Nova Scotia Sanitorium, Kentville, Graham Simms, '38, plans a year's study in Public Health, after which he will return to Nova Scotia.

Marian Irving-O'Brien, '27, of Halifax, has recently returned from a trip to the New England States.

David B. Morris, '37, has gone to England to do post graduate work in surgery. Doctor Morris expects to return in November, 1940, to Windsor, Nova Scotia, where he is in general practice.

Stephen Slaunwhite, '96, died at Windsor, Nova Scotia, on January Twelfth. For almost forty years Doctor Slaunwhite practised at Rose Bay, Nova Scotia, until his retirement four years ago.

In the list of promotions recently published, we note Captain H. R. Corbett, '23, R.C.A.M.C. to be Major. Doctor Corbett is Roentgenologist to a group of hospitals in Cape Breton.

John W. Merritt, '28, of Halifax, has been elected Vice-President of the Canadian Rheumatic Diseases Association, which will meet conjointly with the Canadian Medical Association in Montreal next June.

William Grant, '92, of Wolfville, Nova Scotia, died on February fifth, at the age of seventy-seven. For thirty years subsequent to his graduation, Doctor Grant practised at Port au Basque, Newfoundland. In 1921 he came to Wolfville, where, until he became ill, quite recently, he was active in his profession and in the life of that community.

For the past ten years Health Director of Sullivan County, Tennessee, Fred Laurence Moore, '24, of Blountville, has been appointed Professor of Preventive Medicine at Long Island College of Medicine, New York.

Audley A. Giffin, '31, has moved to Kentville, where he will establish a general practice. Doctor Giffin spent two years on the staff of the Nova Scotia Sanatorium, followed by some years of post graduate work at the Royal Victoria Hospital, and the Childrens' Memorial Hospital, Montreal. For the past year and a half, Doctor Giffin has been practising in Bridgetown, Nova Scotia.

Doctor John Clyde McDonald died on December twenty-eighth at his home in Edmonton, Alberta. A native of Gore, Hants County, he graduated from Dalhousie in 1895, following which he practised in Westville for seventeen years. Since 1912 Doctor McDonald has been in Edmonton, where he was an active member of his profession.

Sailing from Halifax on the "Duchess of Bedford", Linus F. Doiron, '25, of Little Brook, Digby County, has gone to England and the Continent for a year of postgraduate study.

The Staff and readers of the Journal extend sympathy to Harold L. Robertson, '27, of Halifax, in the death of his father.

For the past three years on the staff of the Napsbury (England) Hospital, where he is specializing in Mental Diseases, Jack Hewat, '35, plans on vacationing on the Continent for the next few weeks.

John Ernest Andrew, '34, was admitted to Fellowship in the Royal College of Surgeons at Edinburgh, on December sixth, 1938.

At the opening of the Provincial Legislature, Moses E. McGarry, '08, was elected Speaker of the House of Assembly at Halifax. Doctor McGarry has a large general practice at Margaree Forks, Cape Breton.

Basil K. Coady, '38, has been awarded a scholarship in Pathology at the Crile Clinic, Cleveland, Ohio. At the present time Doctor Coady is Resident Physician at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax.

Seymour Balkin, '38, has a three-year appointment on the staff of Beth Israel Hospital, New York City. Doctor Balkin is now doing pathology at that institution.

Julius Rosenfeld, '38, and Tom Stentafor, '38, are on the Resident Staff of the General Hospital, Saint Johns, Newfoundland.

Patient—"Doctor, are you sure you have diagnosed correctly? One has heard of cases where the physician has treated for pneumonia and the patient has died of typhoid."

Doc.—"Rest assured. When I treat a patient for pneumonia he dies of pneumonia."—Baltimore Sun.

—Quoted in The Journal of A. M. A., March 12, 1938.