CRITIQUE LITTÉRAIRE—BOOK REVIEWS

VOYER, Louise, Ste-Hyacinthe, de la seigneurie à la ville québécoise. Québec, Editions Libre Expression, 1980. 121 p. Collection "Patrimoine du Québec" (Collection sous la direction de Luc Nappen de l'Université Laval) (Le texte initial de ce travail fut présenté à l'Université Laval pour l'obtention d'une maîtrise ès arts, au printemps de 1980.)

Sainte-Hyacinthe, de la seigneurie à la ville québécoise, de Louise Voyer, est une étude historique d'une ville québécoise qui comme d'autres agglomérations du Québec a subi les contrecoups de l'économie du XVIII^e siècle.

Ce volume est principalement un recueil de notes historiques sur la ville québécoise enrichies d'un dossier architectural. Cette publication retrace l'évolution de la ville, de sa concession première au XVIII^e siècle jusqu'à son industrialisation
