Introduction.

KING'S COLLEGE owes its origin to the Loyalists. It was founded by an Act of the Legislature of the Province of Nova Scotia in the year 1789, through the exertions of Dr. Charles Inglis, the first colonial Bishop, and was opened in 1790. The corner-stone of the main College building was laid the next year by ~~Governor Parr~~ The Bishop.

A Royal Charter, conferring upon the College full University powers, was granted by King George III in 1802, which makes this the oldest colonial University in the British Empire.

This building was destroyed by fire on Feb. 5th, 1920, and the corner-stone of a new building on the same site was laid by Lieut.-Governor, MacCallum Grant, D. C. L., May 12th, 1921.

The residential system, which is an important feature of College life, is modelled on that of English Colleges, and brings together men of different temperament and training, broadening their ideas and smoothing down individual peculiarities as nothing else can do.

In the College Chapel, a beautiful stone building erected in 1877, the regular services of the Church, which all students are expected to attend, are held every morning and evening. While King's is essentially a Church College, it imposes no religious tests and gladly welcomes men and women of all denominations to its various classes. Students belonging to other religious bodies desiring to attend their own services on Sundays may do so with the permission of the President.

King's College was the pioneer of scientific training in the Province. The new Science Wing, built in 1912, makes ample provision for lecture rooms and up-to-date, well stocked chemical and physical laboratories, including a complete wireless installation, and, in addition, provides accommodation for 20 men in residence, so that a man may have a single room to himself, or two men may share a common sitting room, while each has his own sleeping room.

A handsome stone building which stands on the slope of the hill to the south of the College contains the Library and Convocation Hall. The Library is a large and extremely valuable one. There is unfortunately no Library fund and the keeping up of the Library depends almost entirely upon the fees of the students, and occasional benefactions.

The aggregate outlay in fees for a student taking a College course varies of course according to the tastes and economy of the student, but it may be approximately set down at a little more than $300 a year.

Matriculation examinations are held in June and also during the first week of the Academical year. Arrangements may be made for holding these examinations elsewhere than at the College.

A SCHOOL OF LAW in connection with King's College was established in St. John, N. B., in 1892, the Calendar of which is appended. Students passing the final examination of this School receive the degree of B. C. L. from King's College, and are admitted attorneys in the Province of New Brunswick without further examination.

AFFILIATION WITH OTHER COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES.

Students who have taken the prescribed Science course and passed the required examinations are admitted to the third year of the course of the PROVINCIAL TECHNICAL COLLEGE at Halifax, and such students, upon presentation of a Testamur of having passed the final examination of the Technical College may be admitted to the degree of B. Sc.

Graduates in Arts who have attended lectures during their College course in Constitutional History, Contracts, Torts and Crimes, and having passed the required examinations in those subjects, are admitted to second year standing in the LAW SCHOOL OF DALHOUSIE COLLEGE and can graduate in two years from their entry into the Law School. Students from the JAMAICA CHURCH THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE, after a residence of six terms at their own college, who pass the required examinations in the subjects of the Divinity Course at King's College, may receive the diploma of L. S. T.; and divinity students who have completed the required residence at the Jamaica Church Theological College and have passed the necessary examinations according to the requirements of King's College, may be admitted to the degree of B. A.

King's College is affiliated with the UNIVERSITIES OF OXFORD, CAMBRIDGE AND DUBLIN, under conditions which allow an undergraduate who has taken at least two years' work, to pursue his studies and take his degree at either of those Universities on a reduced period of residence. Under the terms of affiliation with Oxford, candidates for the Rhodes Scholarship, who have taken the Arts Course at King's College, including Greek, are exempt from the qualifying examination.

Students may be enrolled as undergraduates, who have reached the age of sixteen years at least, and have passed the Junior or Senior Matriculation Examination or equivalent.

The President of the College must receive from each candidate for admission a certificate of good moral conduct extending over a period of not less than eighteen months immediately preceding. In the case of candidates from a boarding-school, a certificate from the Principal will suffice; but those candidates who have attended a day school must, in addition, produce a certificate from the minister of the church they have attended.

The Faculty of the College are authorized to accept certificates from the Head Masters of approved schools in lieu of Matriculation.

The Junior Leaving Examination (Grade XI) of the High Schools of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, or an equivalent examination of another province or the Junior Associate in Arts of Newfoundland is accepted pro tanto as equivalent to the Matriculation Examination. Candidates will be required to pass in such of the required subjects (if any) as are not covered thereby.

Persons not candidates for a degree may be admitted as "elective" students, and may take such lectures and examinations as they may desire, subject to the approval of the Faculty.

Candidates who have failed in one or two matriculation subjects may enter as "conditioned" students. If they successfully pass the examination at the end of the first year, they may count their terms from the time they actually came into residence, providing they take, as subjects for their first year, all subjects required in Matriculation.

A registration Fee of $5.00 will be charged to all students who enter without passing the Matriculation Examination.

Undergraduates who have taken a partial course at any other University recognized by the Board of Governors, may, upon presenting certificates of standing, be admitted ad eundem statum and complete their course at King's College, provided the certificates show at least as much work done as called for by equivalent examination at this University. Each individual application will be considered on its merits, and shall be passed upon by a special committee of the Faculty.

In exceptional cases permission will be given to proceed to a degree by examination only provided the candidate has at least three years of resident study to his credit, and can show good reason why he cannot continue as a resident student.

JUNIOR MATRICULATION.

RESIDENCE—All students are ordinarily required to be in Residence, as stress is laid upon the advantages of corporate life. In special circumstances permission may be given to reside outside.

All students are under the immediate charge of the President (or in his absence the Vice-President), to whom they must report at the beginning of each term.

CHAPEL SERVICES.—The College being a household in which the obligation and privilege of family worship are recognized, short services are held twice daily in the Chapel which all members of the College are expected to attend.

This is a condition of residence and while it is recognized that occasional absences from week-day services are unavoidable, attendance is expected (unless by reason of illness) at least once every day. Persistent unwillingness to comply with this provision may necessitate withdrawal from the College as it is undesirable that any who are not in sympathy with its ideals should continue to be members of it.

On Sundays every member of the College is expected to attend Chapel service at eleven o'clock in the morning, though leave to be absent may, for good reason, be obtained beforehand from the President. In the evening no service is held, but Students are urged to attend the Parish Church. Students not members of the Church of England may attend the Sunday services of their own Church, with the President's permission.

Students belonging to other Communion are cordially welcomed without discrimination, but are expected to uphold the moral ideals and atmosphere of the College.

DOORS.—The College Doors will be closed at 10.30 p. m. All the resident students (not being graduates) are required to be in the College before that hour, but permission may be obtained from the President to be out once a week until midnight and on Sundays until 11 p. m. Graduates however are permitted to be out of the College until 11 p. m. daily, and this privilege may, in the discretion of the College Board, be extended in like manner to Undergraduates taking the work of the fourth year in Arts, Science or Divinity. Permission to be out after midnight must be obtained from the College Board.

No Resident Student is allowed, under any circumstances to be absent from College during the night without leave from the President.

The College authorities may enter the apartments of any student at any hour of the day or night.

No student may reside in College during any part of vacation without the written permission of the President, and every student so remaining shall be under the authority of the President and Board of Discipline as exercised during term.

NON RESIDENTS.—No person not a Resident Student or a Member of the Staff is allowed to spend the night in or be in the College after 11 p. m., except by special permission of the President. This rule applies to guests, and will be strictly enforced. Guests will be expected to conform to the rules and regulations of the College, and students will be held responsible for those whom they entertain.

HOURS FOR MEALS.—Every student is expected to be in his room after 11 p. m., and in bed before midnight: also to be in the Hall for breakfast not later than 8.15 a. m. on week days, and not later than 9.15 a. m. on Sundays.

MEALS IN ROOMS.—No student can be furnished with breakfast or any other meal in his rooms, except by permission of the President and in such cases of illness as would render it imprudent that he should be present in the Hall, and no student is allowed to take either crockery or cutlery from the dining hall or the pantry.

ORDERLY BEHAVIOR.—Students are expected to preserve a quiet and orderly behavior at all times in the halls and corridors of the College, especially during the hours of Lectures and Public Meetings. Failure in this respect may result in the forfeiture of the privilege of residing in the College.

HAZING.—All forms of procedure, commonly called "hazing" are absolutely forbidden.

GOWNS.—Students are required to wear academical costume when present at meetings of Convocation, at all College lectures and examinations, in Chapel, at dinner in Commons Hall, in the Library, when calling on any of the College Officers, Professors, or Lecturers for any purpose connected with the administration or discipline of the College, or on other occasions when especially ordered. All academical habits shall be the same as are in use in the University of Oxford.

INTOXICANTS.—The introduction by or for any student of beer, wine, spirits, or any kind of intoxicating liquor in the College is strictly forbidden.

At gatherings of students, whether held in the College or elsewhere, intoxicating liquors are forbidden.

OFFICIAL CALLS.—On coming up at the beginning of the Academic year and after the Christmas vacation, all students are expected to report to the President and also on the first day of their return to College after any leave of absence. Every student before leaving College must obtain an Exeat signed by the President.

ILLNESS.—All cases of illness however slight must be reported immediately to the President.

The due observation of this rule might become a matter of importance to the Student later on, if he should need to ask for any special consideration on the grounds of illness: whereas its non-observance might prove a serious menace ( unsuspected at the time) to the general health and well-being of the College.

Dogs or other animals are not permitted in the College residences.

PENALTIES.—The penalties for the infraction of these rules are (1) fines, (2) confinement to College or banishment from the University for a time or entirely, (3) forfeiture of privileges or emoluments.

DAMAGES.—Each student is held responsible for damage done in his room.

Picture-moulding, seats affixed to the walls, and other fixtures become the property of the College and may not be removed.

Each room in the College has its own furniture assigned to it, and no furniture may be moved from one room to another, unless permission is obtained.

The use of electrical appliances attached to the lighting system is forbidden except with special permission, when an extra charge will be made.

REPAIRS.—The expense of repairing damage done to the public parts of the College buildings will be charged against the offenders: or, if they be not known, will be divided among the resident students.

ENTERTAINMENTS.—In every case in which permission is given to make use of the buildings or grounds of the College for entertainments of any kind, the committee entrusted with the organization of such entertainments shall include the President or a representative appointed by him. Dates for such entertainments are to be arranged through the Faculty, and the name of the College can be associated only with such functions as shall have been sanctioned by the Faculty.
