IMPORTANT NOTICES

Students are advised that the matters dealt with in this Calendar are subject to continuing review and revision. This Calendar is printed some months before the year for which it is intended to provide guidance. Students are further advised that the contents of this Calendar are subject to change without notice, other than through the regular processes of Dalhousie University/University of King's College, and every student accepted for registration in the University shall be deemed to have agreed to any such deletion, revision or addition, whether made before or after said acceptance. Additionally, students are advised that this Calendar is not an all-inclusive set of rules and regulations but represents only a portion of the rules and regulations that will govern the student's relationship with the University. Other rules and regulations are contained in additional publications that are available to the student from the Registrar's Office and/or the relevant Faculty, Department or School.

The University reserves the right to limit enrolment in any programme. Students should be aware that enrolment in many programmes is limited and that students who are admitted to programmes at Dalhousie/King's are normally required to pay deposits on university fees to confirm their acceptance of offers of admission. These deposits may be either non-refundable or refundable in part, depending on the programme in question. While the University will make every reasonable effort to offer classes as required within programmes, prospective students should note that admission to a degree or other programme does not guarantee admission to any given class. Students should select optional classes early in order to ensure that classes are taken at the most appropriate time within their schedule. In some fields of study, admission to upper level classes may require more than minimal standing in prerequisite classes.

Dalhousie University/University of King's College does not accept any responsibility for loss or damage suffered or incurred by any student as a result of suspension or termination of services, courses or classes caused by reason of strikes, lockouts, riots, weather, damage to university property or for any other cause beyond the reasonable control of Dalhousie University/University of King's College.

Definition of Terms

The following definitions are intended to facilitate an understanding of the calendar, and not to define all words and phrases used in the calendar which may have specific meanings.

Academic Dismissal: A student's required withdrawal from a programme because of unsatisfactory academic performance.

Academic Programme: A distinct group of classes and other requirements which lead to eligibility for a degree.

Academic sessions:

Regular session:	September - April
First term:	September - December
Second term:	January - April
Spring session:	May - June
Summer session:	July - August

Advanced Standing: Students possessing advanced knowledge of a subject will be encouraged to begin their studies at a level appropriate to their knowledge, as determined by the department concerned. Students granted advanced standing will still be required to complete the full number of credits required for the particular credential being sought.

Audit Student: A student permitted to attend classes but not expected to prepare assignments, write papers, tests or examinations. Credit is not given nor is a mark awarded for classes. Classes appear on the transcript with the notation "Aud." Audit students must apply, select classes and register in the normal way.

Class: A unit of instruction in a particular subject identified by a name and number.

Co-requisite: Requirement which must be fulfilled concurrently with the class being considered.

Course: The term "class" normally is used in place of the word "course."

Credit: A unit by which University class work is measured. A full year class is normally worth one credit.

Exclusion: Students may not register for a class which lists, as an exclusion, a class the student is also taking or has already passed.

Full-time Student: Student registered for three full classes or more, or the equivalent of three half-credit classes or more in either first or second term. For definition for fee assessment see "Fees," below.

Good Standing: Students who meet the required GPA are considered to be in good academic standing (see College of Arts & Science Academic Regulation 19).

Grade Point Average (GPA) Weighted sum of the grade points earned, divided by the number of classes enrolled.

Sessional GPA: Classes taken in a single session

Cumulative GPA: All classes taken while registered in a programme.

Letter of Permission: A Letter of Permission authorizes a King's/Dalhousie student to take a class(es) at another institution for credit towards a King's/Dalhousie degree. Such permission must be obtained in advance of taking the class(es).

Matriculation Standing: "Senior Matriculation" designates the level of studies attained by students who have successfully completed Grade XII in public high school in Nova Scotia or its equivalent elsewhere.

Mature Student: A person who is at least 23 years old, does not meet the usual admission requirements, and has been absent from full-time high school study for at least four years.

Part-time Student: Student registered for fewer than three full-credit classes or the equivalent of three half-credit classes in either first term or second term. A full credit class is equivalent to 6 credit hours.

Prerequisite: Requirement which must be fulfilled prior to registering in a specific class.

Probation: Warning to students that their academic performance is unsatisfactory and that they will be dismissed from their programme unless their performance improves by the end of the next regular session (see College of Arts & Science Academic Regulation 20).

Transcript A transcript is a complete history of a student's academic record at King's/Dalhousie. Partial transcripts, e.g., a portion of a student's record pertaining to registration in a particular degree or faculty only, are not issued.

Undergraduates: Students who are candidates for an undergraduate degree, diploma or certificate.

Visiting Student: A person permitted to take classes at Dalhousie/King's for transfer of credit to another university.

Writing Intensive Writing Intensive classes are those which emphasize the process of writing, frequency of writing assignments, and weighting of those assignments in the class grades. A Writing Intensive class is normally taken as a sequel to a Writing Requirement class; it does not satisfy the Writing Requirement.

Historical Sketch

The history of higher education in Canada began in 1789 with the founding at Windsor, Nova Scotia, of the University of King's College. At the time of its establishment it was, with the exception of the fifteenth-century King's Colleges in Cambridge and in Aberdeen, the only foundation of that name in existence. Although there had been a King's College, New York, chartered by George II in 1754, it did not survive the end of the colonial period in America, and its reorganization in 1784 under the name of Columbia College was undertaken on an entirely different plan. The Loyalist political and religious principles upon which the New York seminary had been founded migrated along with the Loyalists themselves to Eastern Canada, and in 1802 a Royal Charter was granted by George III proclaiming King's College, Windsor, "The Mother of an University for the education and instruction of Youth and Students in Arts and faculties, to continue forever and to be called King's College."

In 1923 King's accepted the terms of a munificent grant from the Carnegie Foundation and moved to Halifax and into its association with Dalhousie University, which, with a Royal Charter dating from 1820, is the third of Canada's senior universities. By an agreement reached in 1923, the two universities on the same campus have maintained joint faculties of Arts, Social Sciences and Science, so that undergraduates of King's read for the BA and BSc of Dalhousie, King's having left its own degree-granting powers in abeyance in these faculties. King's students registered in Arts and Science attend classes with Dalhousie students; the students of both institutions follow the same curriculum, take the same examinations, and must attain the same academic standard.

In May 1941, King's buildings were taken over by the Royal Canadian Navy as an Officers' Training Establishment, and during the next four years, until May 1945, nearly 3100 officers were trained for sea duty with the RCN. The students and academic staff of King's carried on during this period through the kindness of Dalhousie University and Pine Hill Divinity Hall.

In July 1971, King's entered into a partnership agreement with Pine Hill Divinity Hall (for the United Church of Canada) and the Corporation of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Halifax to found the Atlantic School of Theology. This unique institution provides ecumenical as well as denominational theological education for candidates for the ministry and for laypersons. During 1974 the School received incorporation as a degree-granting institution of higher education; thus the work previously done by the Faculty of Divinity of King's College is now conducted by that School. King's holds in abeyance its powers to grant degrees in Divinity in course. King's grants the honorary degree of DD as well as those of Doctor of Civil Law (DCL) and Doctor of Canon Law (DCnL).

A significant development in the history of King's began in the 1972/73 academic year with the introduction of the Foundation Year Programme for first-year undergraduates. By taking advantage of its independence from the dominant concerns of a large modern North American university, and yet drawing strength from its very close association with Dalhousie, King's established this programme, which is unique in Canada and aims to provide the solid foundation of modern humanistic education through a comprehensive view of Western Civilization from its beginnings in the Ancient World up to the present day. In 1977 the University took another step forward by establishing the only degree-granting School of Journalism in the Atlantic Provinces. The School now offers two degree programmes, a one-year BJ and, starting in 1994/95, two versions of a four-year BJ (Hons): the single Honours in Journalism and the combined Honours in Journalism and Contemporary Studies. The Contemporary Studies Programme is an interdisciplinary King's programme first offered in 1993/94; it examines our increasingly complex assumptions about the modern world.

Contemporary Studies is available as a combined Honours subject in the Humanities, and, under the auspices of the College of Arts and Science, is open to BA students registered at Dalhousie as well as at King's.

King's College is residential on the Oxford and Cambridge pattern, and, in addition to students who live off-campus, men and women can be accommodated in residence. Members of Faculty may themselves be resident and function in the traditional manner as dons for the staircase (i.e. bay). The bays are named Chapel Bay, Middle Bay, Radical Bay, North Pole Bay, Cochran Bay, and The Angels Roost. Alexandra Hall is the women's residence. The corporate life in King's is designed to educate the whole person and not simply to train him or her for specific examinations.

Although the College is an Anglican foundation, there is no denominational bar aimed at the exclusion of non-Anglicans from membership of the College, either as lecturers or as students. Daily Services are held in the Chapel for those who wish to participate.

Drawing its strength from a tradition of classical European culture, at the same time offering its students all the opportunities and challenges of a large modern North American university through its association with Dalhousie, King's tries to maintain itself in the Canadian context as a miniature of the Christian ideal of the larger community.

Constitution

The Board of Governors is the Supreme Governing Body of the University. It consists of the Bishops of the Dioceses of Nova Scotia and Fredericton, The Chancellor, the President of the University, the Vice-President, the Treasurer, the Secretary to the Board, the Director of the Foundation Year Programme, the Director of the School of Journalism, two members elected by the Faculty, together with six members elected by the Alumni Association, three members by the Student Union, three by each of the Synods of Nova Scotia and Fredericton, and not more than eight co-opted members. The Governors have the management of the funds and property of the College, and the power of appointment of the President, Professors and officials. The Board appoints an Executive Committee.

Convocation consists of the Chancellor and the Vice-Chancellor, together with: all Bachelors of Divinity and Masters and Doctors of the University; Members of the Board of Governors of the University holding the degree of Master or Doctor from any recognized University; all members on the King's Foundation in the Faculty of Arts and Science who hold the degree of Master or Doctor from any recognized University; Bachelors of the University of five years' standing; and Fellows of the University. All degrees are conferred by Convocation.

The Chapel

An attractive collegiate chapel provides a centre of spiritual life on the campus. All students, regardless of their denominational affiliations, are cordially invited to attend the daily Anglican services in the chapel.

During the academic year, Morning Prayer, Evening Prayer, Compline, and the Holy Eucharist are said daily; the Eucharist is sung on Sunday and Thursday. Each term several distinguished preachers are invited to the chapel. Confirmation/ inquiry classes are offered in the spring. Receptions and other fellowship events are arranged throughout the year.

Students take a large responsibility for the operation of the chapel and hold nearly all of the lay positions, including Warden, Sacristan, and Treasurer. Students conduct the daily offices and assist at the daily Eucharist; a sanctuary guild cares for the altar and its appointments. Two excellent choirs, with impressive repertoires, sing services each week. The Anglican chaplain is available to all students for spiritual counselling.

The Library

The King's Library was established by Charles Inglis, first Bishop of Nova Scotia and the founder of the College. By 1802, the nucleus of the collection had been formed: books in classics, history, foreign languages, literature, the natural sciences and theology. Throughout the nineteenth century, books, natural history specimens and historical artifacts were added to the Library.

The general collection of over 60,000 volumes is available in open stacks and supports the undergraduate teaching of the College, particularly in the Contemporary Studies Programme, the Foundation Year Programme, the School of Journalism, and the Humanities.

The collection is annually augmented by new books and periodicals in art, classics, history, journalism, literature, philosophy, political science, the history of science and technology, theology, and in the history of ideas.

King's is a member of Novanet, the consortium of university libraries in Nova Scotia which operates a cooperative bibliographic computer system and provides online circulation, public access catalogue, and full technical services support. Members of the King's community may borrow books from other Novanet libraries, and so draw on the strengths of those collections as well.

The Library's rare book collection of some 30,000 volumes includes medieval and renaissance manuscripts, incunabula (fifteenth-century printed books) and thousands of sixteenth-, seventeenth- and especially eighteenth-century volumes. The Library also houses the University Archives, which contain the official records of the University as well as documents from the early history of the Anglican Church in Canada, and manuscripts of literary figures associated with King's. The Weldon Collection of Loyalist China, brought to Nova Scotia and New Brunswick by the early settlers, is notably rich in 18th-century Chinese Export porcelain. These are some of our greatest treasures.

The present Library building, erected in 1989 to commemorate the Bicentennial of the University, is a place where preservation and display of the past complements our commitment of service to the entire academic community.

King's Institute for Advanced Study

The purpose of the Institute is to further and to communicate the interests of the College in the investigation of the foundations of western culture. The Institute is thus an expression of the College's involvement in interdisciplinary work beyond the current degree programmes. The Institute wishes to satisfy the interest, ability and need of the King's community to transcend departmental boundaries and disciplines.

All members of the King's academic community are members of the Institute and are encouraged to participate in its conferences, lecture series, and other cultural presentations. Its members include the University's Inglis

Professors (honorary titles introduced in 1992, and offered to members of Faculty upon retirement from teaching duties). It is expected that common interests established in the Institute will be shared with members of other institutions in the region and elsewhere.

King's College provides residential accommodation for 246 undergraduate students registered at King's in BA, BSc, BJ and BJ (Hons) degree programmes who have completed an application for residence. Acceptance is subject to the approval of the Deans. Students are advised to apply for places in residence as soon as they have been accepted into the University. Residence application forms will be sent with offers of admission. Owing to pressure of numbers, the College cannot guarantee residence accommodation to all applicants. Students entering a first-year programme who are holders of King's entrance scholarships are guaranteed accommodation. Approximately half of our shared rooms are set aside for other first-year students who are offered, and accept, early admission to the College. The remaining double rooms, and all single rooms, are given first to returning and to one-year BJ students, then to other new students who are admitted to residence on a first-come, first-served basis. Returning students are placed according to two basic criteria: their year of study, and their academic standing.

All rooms are furnished with bed, dresser, desk, lamp and chairs. Students are required to provide their own bedding (sheets, blankets, pillows) and towels, and to attend to their own laundry arrangements. Coin-operated washers and dryers are provided in both men's and women's residences.

The Men's Residence is divided into Bays or staircases in which there are both single and double rooms (a double for men is defined as a suite of two rooms shared by two male students). Built in 1962, the Women's Residence, Alexandra Hall, offers traditional double and single rooms and provides common rooms, a receptionist's desk, a music room, a study room, a laundry room, an elevator and a trunk storage room. Residence is designed so that students need not go outside for meals and extra-curricular activities. Meals are prepared and served in Prince Hall. Three meals a day, seven days a week, are included in residence fees.

Residence is open to students during the Regular Session. Students should not expect to be admitted to their rooms before residence opens. Exceptions may be made in cases where individuals with good cause, and well in advance, have petitioned the Deans in writing.

As the residences will not be open during the Christmas holidays, students are urged to make arrangements for their Christmas vacations as early as possible in the Fall term. Except under unusual circumstances, and only with the permission of the Deans, no student is permitted to occupy the residences over the Christmas holidays.

Residence closes at the end of the Regular Session in April. Students in their graduating year are permitted to stay until the morning after the last day of Encaenia activities, with the understanding that they may have to move to other rooms within residence after final exams.

Applications for accommodation in all residences are accepted on the understanding that the student will remain in residence for the whole academic year. A student wishing to terminate his or her occupancy contract during the academic year will not receive a refund of residence fees unless a replacement acceptable to the College is found. An administrative fee of $100 will be levied.

Applications from King's students for accommodation will not be accepted until the University has admitted that student for the coming session. Students at other universities may be considered for rooms in residence with the understanding that they abide by the rules of the College. Priority for placement is given to King's students.

Co-op students are welcome to live at King's, space permitting, but they are advised that their Contract of Occupancy runs, without exception, the length of the Regular session. The University takes no responsibility for reimbursement of fees should their work take them out of commuting distance from the College.

For details, please consult "Degree Options in Arts, Social Sciences and Science," below.

King's students may take the Foundation Year Programme as the first year of a BA, BSc, or BJ (Hons). For details please consult the "Foundation Year Programme" section of this calendar.

King's students can also do pre-professional work offered by the College of Arts and Science and which sometimes amounts to less than what is required for the BA or BSc degrees. Architecture, Medicine, Dentistry, Physiotherapy, Social Work, Law, Education and Theology all accept students after one level or another of work in Arts, Social Sciences and Science.

The University of King's College does not admit students to programmes which involve degrees or diplomas other than the BA and BSc (except in Journalism). For example, King's students cannot be taking the Diploma in Engineering or Costume Studies, nor will they be doing Commerce, Health Professions, Graduate Studies, or studying towards Music degrees (the BMus, BMusEd, or BA Music Major). Individual classes in Music may be taken as electives; students should consult the Music Department for further information.

College of Arts and Science

Introduction

The College of Arts and Science, established in 1988, consists of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences and the Faculty of Science. The College of Arts and Science meets to discuss matters of concern common to its units, in particular those relating to academic programmes and regulations. The Dean of Arts and Social Sciences and the Dean of Science alternate, year by year, as Provost of the College. The Provost chairs College meetings and prepares the agenda for those meetings. Administrative responsibility for what is decided in College meetings remains in the two Faculties. There are thirteen Departments and several interdisciplinary programmes in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, and eleven Departments in the Faculty of Science. There are several interdisciplinary programmes of instruction in the College, the responsibility for which is shared among members from different Departments.

The College of Arts and Science is responsible for the curriculum of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Music Education degree programmes, for diploma programmes in Engineering, Meteorology and Costume Studies. The College is also responsible for the establishment of regulations governing students registered in its programmes.

Please note: Students of the University of King's College may not enroll in degree programmes in Music or Music Education or in diploma programmes in Engineering, Meteorology, and Costume Studies.

The College of Arts and Science consists of several groups: some 5,500 undergraduate students who typically spend three or four years in the College, nearly four hundred full-time teaching and research faculty and staff as well as a number of part-time teachers and teaching assistants, and a support staff of secretaries and technicians. The student's academic role is to learn - from teachers, from laboratory experience, from books, from other students, and from solitary contemplation. Students learn not only facts but concepts, and - what is most important - they learn how to learn.

Through intellectual interaction with other members of the academic community, undergraduate students should gain the background knowledge, the ability and the appetite for independent discovery. Their acquisition of these components of liberal education is marked formally by the award of a Bachelor's degree. The academic faculty has two equally important roles: to teach the facts, concepts and methods that the student must learn; and to contribute to the advancement of human knowledge through research and through scholarly or artistic activity. BA and BSc degree programmes in the College are of three types: the four year or twenty-credit degree with Honours; the four year or twenty-credit degree with an Advanced Major; and the three year or fifteen-credit degree with a Major.

The goal of the Bachelor's degree is to produce educated persons with competence in one or more subjects. Such competence includes not only factual knowledge but, more important, the ability to think critically, to interpret evidence, to raise significant questions, and to solve problems. A BA or a BSc degree often plays a second role as a prerequisite to a professional programme of study.

The College is particularly proud of the Honours programmes that it offers in most subjects to able and ambitious students. The BA or BSc with Honours is distinguished from the BA or BSc with Major or Advanced Major in that a higher standard of performance is expected, a greater degree of concentration of credits in one or two subjects is required, and at the conclusion of the programme each student must show a grade which is additional to those for the required twenty classes. Frequently Honours students obtain this grade by successfully completing an original research project under the supervision of a faculty member. Completion of a BA or BSc with Honours is an excellent preparation for graduate study at major universities throughout the world. Dalhousie/King's is distinguished among Canadian universities in offering BA programmes with Honours in most subjects in which it also provides BSc Honours programmes, and in providing BA and BSc degree programmes with Combined Honours in an Arts and a Science subject.

Introduction

The Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences consists of those units that study and teach in the humanities, languages, social sciences and the performing arts. In addition there are interdisciplinary programmes of study leading to the BA degree.

The central role of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences is the education of those wishing to comprehend the heritage of the past, recognize the complexities of the present, and use that understanding to plan for the future. The undergraduate programmes of the Faculty stimulate and refine the processes of critical analysis, disciplined speculation, and artistic expression. To understand more fully the conventions, history, and traditions of one's society is to understand more about oneself. Study and teaching in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences frequently involves questioning and analysing why things are as they are, as well as understanding what they are. Some Departments in the Faculty teach and evaluate performance. The values associated with study and research in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences have long been recognized as central to a liberal education.

Introduction

The Faculty of Science, the primary centre in the region for science education and research, is part of the College of Arts and Science and consists of eleven departments. The principal mission of the Faculty is the discovery, organization, dissemination and preservation of knowledge and understanding of the natural world. The Faculty is dedicated to excellence in the pursuit of this mission. Students in the Faculty of Science are assisted to develop the capacity for inquiry, logical thinking and analysis, to cultivate the ability to communicate with precision and style, and to acquire the skills and attitudes for lifelong learning.

Undergraduate students in the Faculty of Science normally develop these abilities by concentrating their studies in one or more of the following areas: biochemistry, biology, chemistry, computing science, earth sciences, economics, engineering, environmental science, marine biology, mathematics, meteorology, microbiology, neuroscience, physics, psychology and statistics. Degree programmes (including a Co-operative Education in Science option where academic and work placement terms alternate) are available in most of these subjects. Details concerning particular programmes of study are found in the departmental entries.

University of King's College

Telephone: (902) 422-1271

Director of the School

M. Cobden, BA(S.Africa), BEd(Tor)
Professor of Journalism

Introduction

The University of King's College is the only institution in the Atlantic Provinces to offer degrees in Journalism. The University offers two versions of the Bachelor of Journalism (Honours), a four-year honours degree programme: the Bachelor of Journalism with Honours and the Bachelor of Journalism with Combined Honours in Journalism and Contemporary Studies. The University also offers a concentrated one-year programme, the Bachelor of Journalism.

The aim of the Bachelor of Journalism (Honours) programme - whether with single Honours in Journalism or with Combined Honours in Journalism and Contemporary Studies - is to provide a grounding in the methods of contemporary journalism in the context of a liberal education. In addition to training in journalistic skills and methods, the student will acquire both a knowledge of the history of western civilization and a specific competence in some of the traditional disciplines of Arts, Social Sciences or Science. Students are strongly encouraged to arrange summer employment in journalism during the course of their registration in the BJ (Hons) programme. All students are required to complete a four-week internship (in either print or broadcast journalism) at an approved news media outlet during their fourth year in the BJ (Hons) programme.

The Bachelor of Journalism degree programme is offered only to students who have completed a first undergraduate degree. It provides an intensive programme in the methods of contemporary journalism; all students are required to complete a four-week internship (in either print or broadcast journalism) at an approved news media outlet during their year in the BJ programme.

For a detailed description of the curricula for Journalism degree programmes, as well as course descriptions, please see the relevant sections of this Calendar.

Students with Learning Disabilities

The University is committed to providing equal educational opportunity and full participation for students with learning disabilities.

Students with diagnosed learning disabilities who meet the current admission requirements for the University may follow the current admission procedures. New students with a learning disability or any other disability for which they will require accommodations or special assistance should contact the Registrar, University of King's College, in order to ascertain the degree to which their needs can be met.

Students with diagnosed learning disabilities who do not meet the current admission requirements or who otherwise wish to have their learning disability considered may apply for special consideration (as may all students who have extenuating circumstances). Such requests for special consideration will be made to the appropriate admissions committee, acting in consultation with the Advisor to Students with Disabilities, Dalhousie Student Services, and other professionals, as needed.

The following documentation must be submitted by students who wish to apply for special consideration:

1. Letter(s) of recommendation from the individual(s) most familiar with the applicant's academic performance and/or potential for success at university;

3. A current (within three years) psychological assessment based on standard diagnostic instruments administered by a registered psychologist documenting the presence of learning disabilities. If a current report is not possible, the University may accept an earlier report along with current opinion (i.e., within the past year) expressed in a letter by a registered psychologist (or individual supervised by a registered psychologist) that the student has a learning disability. This letter should specify the nature, extent, and rationale for programme modifications or accommodations that were deemed appropriate in the student's last two years of schooling.

The policy on release of information about students with learning disabilities is consistent with the University Regulation on the Release of Information, detailed in "University Regulations" in this calendar.

Note 1. Where self-disclosure or prior arrangements have not been made with the University, the University is not liable to accommodate the student's special needs due to disability.

Note 2. Appeals from students with learning disabilities will follow the usual procedures of the appropriate Faculty or School of the University.

Mature Students

If you are at least 23 years old and have been out of full-time high school study for at least four years, you may qualify for admission to the University of King's College under the "mature student" category. In exceptional circumstances, the Admissions Committee may agree to admit a mature student directly into a degree programme if the student's background is deemed sufficient preparation for such admission. (In order to be registered as a student of the University of King's College, students must be enrolled in a degree programme.)

If you apply as a mature student, you should enclose a letter indicating your activities since leaving high school and your reasons for expecting to complete successfully a university programme if you are admitted. Those interested in admission under the "mature student" category are advised to contact the Registrar, University of King's College (422-1271), or Henson College, Dalhousie University (494-2526).

Transfer students, however, may be admitted for classes beginning in January in BA and BSc programmes. The application deadline for January admission is November 15.

Response to Applications

The University will respond to your application as promptly as possible, and you will be advised by the Registrar's Office if any documentation is still required to complete your application. Please notify the Registrar's Office immediately if your address changes to avoid delay in notification regarding your application.

When documentation is complete, applications are forwarded to the appropriate admissions committee. Although every effort is made to obtain decisions quickly, there will be some delay at times, particularly with programmes where competition for places is keen.

As soon as decisions are made, whether admission, deferral or rejection, applicants will be advised by mail.

Please note that admission to many programmes at King's is limited. Possession of the minimum requirements does not guarantee admission.

Early Acceptance

Applicants currently attending high school who have good academic records and an admission average in the mid-70's or higher may be offered early acceptance, conditional on satisfactory completion of work for which they are currently enrolled. Offers of early acceptance into a limited-enrolment programme (such as the Foundation Year Programme, or Journalism programmes) require confirmation from the applicant, who will be asked to tender a deposit to secure a place in the programme.

Final Acceptance

Applicants must successfully complete high school classes in the required subjects with an average in the mid-70's or higher. Admission will then be offered in Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science programmes (including the Foundation Year Programme) provided there is space in the programme.

English Language Tests

Dalhousie/King's accepts minimum TOEFL results of 580 and minimum MELAB results of 90. Information may be obtained by writing to the English Language Institute, Testing and Certification Service, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48104, USA, or TOEFL Box 899, Princeton, New Jersey 08540, USA.

School of Journalism

1. Bachelor of Journalism (Honours)

- minimum of 65% in Grade 12 English;

Applicants may be asked to attend, at their own expense, an interview with members of the Journalism Admissions Committee at the University of King's College or another centre.

Please note: As the number of places in the BJ (Hons) programme is limited, it is expected that only a proportion of qualified applicants will be admitted; selection will be made on a competitive basis. Mature students are welcome to apply.

1.2 Transfer to BJ (Honours)

The deadline for receipt of applications from transfer applicants is May 1. The following documents must be submitted by all transfer applicants:

- a completed application form (available from the Registrar's Office);
- an official record of high school marks;

2. Bachelor of Journalism

Although other academic qualifications may be considered, normally only those students may be admitted to this programme who have successfully completed at least a Bachelor's degree at a recognized university with a minimum average of B. The Journalism Admissions Committee takes into account the student's academic records, clippings of print journalism and tapes of broadcast journalism, extracurricular activities, and other evidence of keen interest in journalism. Previous professional journalism experience, though frequently a good test of motivation, is not essential.

The intention of the one-year BJ programme is to foster the professional development of students so that they may fill editorial positions in news organizations with not only a high degree of technical competence but also responsibility, dedication and a sense of purpose.

Applicants must submit:

- a completed BJ application form;
- the appropriate application fee as indicated on the application form;
- an official transcript of the record of work done at previous post-secondary institutions;
- evidence of writing skill through submission of a writing sample (as described on the application form);

Please note: as the number of places in the BJ programme is limited, it is expected that only a proportion of qualified applicants will be admitted; selection will be made on a competitive basis. Candidates normally will be notified by the end of May. Students offered a place in the BJ programme will be asked to confirm acceptance of the offer and tender a deposit. A waiting list of qualified students will be maintained.

Fees

King's students registered in BA or BSc programmes, including those enrolled in the Foundation Year Programme, pay tuition fees to Dalhousie University, through the Dalhousie Student Accounts Office. Students registered in either the BJ (Honours) or the BJ programme pay tuition fees to the University of King's College, through the King's Bursar's Office. This section of the Calendar outlines the University Regulations on academic fees for both full-time and part-time students enrolled in programmes of study during the fall, winter and regular sessions. Students wishing to register for the Spring or Summer session should consult the Dalhousie University Summer School Calendar for information on registration dates and fees.

All fees are subject to change by approval of the Board of Governors of Dalhousie University/University of King's College. A current fee schedule will be available with the registration package.

Students should make special note of the registration deadlines in the "Schedule of Academic Dates" at the beginning of this calendar. Students should also be aware that additional fees and/or interest will be charged when deadlines for payment of fees as contained herein are not met.

General Regulations

The following general regulations are applicable to all payments made to the University in respect of fees:

- Fees must be paid in Canadian funds by cash, negotiable cheque or money order.

- If payment is by cheque and returned by the bank as non-negotiable, there will be an additional fee of $20 and the account will be considered unpaid. Furthermore, if the bank returns a cheque that was to cover the first payment of tuition, the student's registration will be cancelled and, if the student is permitted to re-register, a late fee will apply.
- Invoices for fees will not be issued. The receipt obtained from the Bursar's Office or from Student Accounts each time a payment is made will show the date and amount of the payment.
- Cash, certified cheque or money order is required for payment of any account in arrears beyond the current academic year.

Mail Registration

For the convenience of students, registration material and non-cash payments are accepted by mail. Cheques post-dated to August 30, 1996 will also be accepted. Please allow sufficient time to ensure that material sent by mail is received on or before the specified dates.

Students registering in BA or BSc programmes, including those enrolling in the Foundation Year Programme, should mail tuition fees to Dalhousie University; students in the School of Journalism should mail tuition fees to the Bursar's Office, University of King's College.

Admission Deposit

An admission deposit will be required of all students entering the Foundation Year Programme, the BJ (Hons) programme, and the one-year BJ programme. Full information about admission deposits will be sent to students with the offers of admission.

International Students

Students registering in programmes at Dalhousie or King's who are not Canadian citizens or permanent residents are required to pay an additional fee of $2,700, referred to as a "Differential Fee." (Students registering in their current programme which commenced prior to the 1994/95 academic year pay a differential fee of $1,700.) There is a proportionate charge for part-time international students. The differential fee is payable with the payment of the first installment of fees each year.

Visa students must purchase health insurance: the 1996/97 rates are $350 for a single, and $700 for a family.

Academic Fees (Tuition)

Academic fees are comprised of:

- the tuition fee;
- an incidental fee covering Student Union and College fees (for details of incidental fees, see below); and
- an auxiliary fee (specified Music or Theatre classes.)

The complete 1996/97 academic fee schedule was not available at the time of printing this calendar. Once all fees are approved for 1996/97, the complete fee schedule will be made available. A fees schedule will be included in the registration package mailed to all students.

For the purposes of this section of the Calendar, a full-time undergraduate student is one who is registered for the regular session for more than three full credits (21 credit hours or more), or, if registered for only one term, for more than three one-half credits.

Changes from full-time status to part-time, and from part-time to full-time, often have cost implications beyond what the student might expect. Any part-time student planning to add classes, or full-time students who are considering part-time status (dropping classes), should consult with Dalhousie Student Accounts or the King's Bursar's Office to determine the impact these changes will have on the fees assessed.

Students registered in more than one programme are required to pay separate academic fees for each programme. Full-time students taking classes not credited towards their degree or programme will be required to pay additional fees for these classes.

Registration

A student is considered registered only after financial arrangements have been made with the Bursar's Office/Dalhousie Student Accounts.

- All students must submit to the Bursar's Office/Student Accounts Office, on or before the specified registration dates, the first installment of tuition fees, plus the Student Union, College and other applicable miscellaneous fees, unless they are receiving a scholarship, Canada Student Loan, a fee waiver, or their fees are paid by external organizations.
- Scholarships awarded by the University of King's College will normally be applied first to charges at King's. If the student has a scholarship larger than his or her obligation to King's, the balance may be paid by King's to Dalhousie towards any tuition fees owing. The student should enquire at the King's Bursar's Office to ascertain whether Dalhousie Student Accounts has been informed of the arrangement.
- Those holding external scholarships or awards paid by or through the University of King's College must provide at registration documentary evidence of the scholarship or award.
- Those whose fees are to be paid by a government or other agency must provide a signed statement from the organization at registration. (Please note: upon request, account status information will be made available to the sponsor.)
- Those whose fees are to be paid by Canada Student Loan must indicate this on the appropriate section of the registration form. (Please note: students registering by Canada Student Loan must negotiate the loan or provide the letter of declination issued by Student Aid by September 19. A late registration fee and/or interest will be charged after September 19. Failure to comply or arrange an alternative method of payment may result in deregistration.)

- Those whose fees are paid by a Dalhousie University staff tuition fee waiver must present the approved waiver form and pay applicable fees at registration. (Please note: fee waivers do not apply to students in the School of Journalism.)
- Those who are Canadian citizens or permanent residents, 65 years of age or over and enrolled in an undergraduate degree programme in Arts, Social Sciences or Science, will have their tuition fees waived but must pay applicable incidental fees.

The completion of the registration process shall be deemed to be an agreement by the student for the payment of the balance of fees unless written notification to withdraw is submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Students withdrawing in person must attend the Office of the Registrar and the Bursar's Office at the University of King's College before the withdrawal process is official. Students in BA or BSc programmes who wish to withdraw must also attend the Dalhousie Registrar's office and Student Accounts office before the withdrawal process is official.

Payment of Academic Fees

The payment of academic fees for students registered in BA or BSc programmes will be received at the Student Accounts Office, Dalhousie University, located on the basement level of the Dalhousie Arts & Administration building. The payment of academic fees for students registered in Journalism programmes will be received at the Bursar's Office, main floor, King's administration building.

Fees paid by mail must be received by Student Accounts/Bursar's Office on or before the deadlines specified in order to avoid late payment and/or delinquency charges.

The following regulations apply to the payment of academic fees. For further information on regulations regarding withdrawal of registration, please refer to "Changes, Refunds and Withdrawals," below.

- Should students prefer to pay in two installments, the first installment is due on or before August 30, 1996 and the second installment is due January 31, or the first subsequent working day. The University of King's College applies a $20 carrying charge to all accounts paid in two installments. Students registering for either the Fall or Winter terms only must pay fees on or before August 30 and January 20, respectively.

- Scholarships or awards paid by or through the University of King's College will be applied to Student Union, College, residence, and tuition fees, in that order.
- When Canada Student Loan, Provincial Loan, or co-payable bursary is presented at the Bursar's Office, any unpaid academic fees, residence fees and/or Interim Loans will be deducted.
- Fees cannot be deducted from salaries paid to students who are employed by the University of King's College or Dalhousie University.
- Any payments received will first be applied to overdue accounts.

Audit Classes

Full-time students may audit classes which are related to their programmes without additional fees. Part-time students auditing a class pay one-half of the regular tuition. In such cases, the student is required to complete the usual registration process.

A student registered to audit a class and who during the session wishes to change the registration to credit must receive approval from the Registrar and pay the difference in class fees plus a transfer fee of $25. This must be done on or before the last day for withdrawal without a "W," as shown in the "Schedule of Academic Dates" at the beginning of this Calendar. The same deadline applies for a change from credit to audit.

Late Registration

Students are expected to register on or before the specified registration dates. Students wishing to register after these dates must receive the approval of the Registrar and pay a late registration fee of $50. This fee is payable at the time of registration and will be in addition to the first installment of fees. Late fees payable to

King's are in addition to any late fees payable to Dalhousie.

Refunds and Withdrawals

NON-ATTENDANCE AT CLASSES DOES NOT CONSTITUTE WITHDRAWAL.

Please refer to the schedule in Table I for refunds for students registered in BA and BSc programmes.

Please consult the Bursar's Office and/or Student Accounts for all financial charges, and the Office of the Registrar for academic regulations, governing changes, refunds and withdrawals.

A refund of fees will not be granted unless the following conditions are met:

- Written notification of withdrawal must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar at the University of King's College.
- After the approval of the Registrar has been obtained, application for a refund or adjustment of fees should be made at the Bursar's Office and/or the Dalhousie Student Accounts Office immediately. For students withdrawing in person, the withdrawal process is official on the date that application for withdrawal is made at the Bursar's Office/Dalhousie Student Accounts Office. Therefore, the calculation of the refundable portion of fees will be based on this date. (Retroactive withdrawals will not be permitted).
- No refunds will be made for 30 days when payment has been made by personal or foreign cheque.
- A student who is dismissed from the University for any reason will not be entitled to a refund of fees.
- In any Specified Limited Enrolment Programme, there will not be any refund of tuition fees after the first day of classes,

- No fee adjustment will be made for a student changing degree or programme in the regular session after September 19.

Refund - Change of Status (BA and BSc only)

BA and BSc students changing from full-time to part-time will be assessed the same percentage of full-time fees as students withdrawing from the University (please consult the "Fee Refund" schedule below). Fees for classes remaining will be assessed according to part-time fees less the percentage used to calculate the portion owing for full-time fees. Part-time BA and BSc students dropping a class will be assessed the same percentage as part-time students withdrawing from the University (please consult the "Fee Refund" schedule below). Additions are assessed according to the fee schedule.

Dates for Refund - Regular Session

A student withdrawing or changing a class after September 19 will be charged full incidental fees and may receive a refund of tuition fees on a proportional basis. Consult the Bursar/Student Accounts Office for details.

A student withdrawing or changing a class in January will be charged the full first installment of fees.

A student changing from full-time to part-time status before February 1 must have the approval of the Registrar and will then be eligible for an adjustment in tuition fees for the remainder of the session.

No refunds will be made to students withdrawing or changing classes after January 31.

Dates for Refund - First Term

A student withdrawing or changing a class after September 19 will be charged full incidental fees and may receive a refund of tuition fees on a proportional basis. Consult the Bursar/Student Accounts Office for details.

No refunds will be made to students withdrawing or changing classes after October 18.

Dates for Refund - Second Term

A student withdrawing or changing a class after January 20 will be charged full incidental fees and may receive a refund of tuition fees on a proportional basis. Consult the Bursar/Student Accounts Office for details.

No refunds will be made to students withdrawing or changing classes after February 17.

Delinquent Accounts

Accounts are considered delinquent when the balance of fees has not been paid by September 19 (January 20 for students registered for the Winter term only). Where payment in two installments is permitted, the remaining balance is due January 31 or the first subsequent working day.

Interest at a monthly rate set by the University may be charged on delinquent accounts for the number of days overdue. At the time of printing the monthly rate of interest is 0.98% (111.75% per annum).

A student whose account is delinquent for more than 30 days will be denied University privileges including access to transcripts and records of attendance. The student will be reinstated upon payment of the fees outstanding, the arrears interest, and a $50 reinstatement fee. Students will not be permitted to register for another session until all outstanding accounts are paid in full. Subsequently, if the bank returns the cheque, the student may be de-registered.

Students whose accounts are delinquent on March 15 may not be eligible, at the sole discretion of the University, for graduation at the May Encaenia ceremony. For October graduation the date is September 1.

Accounts which become seriously delinquent may be placed on collection or further legal action may be taken against the individual. Students will be responsible for charges incurred as a result of such action.

Canada Student Loans

Students planning to pay the first installment of fees from a Canada Student Loan should apply to their Province in April or May so that funds will be available in time for registration. The University will deduct fees/charges from the loan at the time of endorsement. Please contact the appropriate provincial office to determine eligibility as well as course load requirements. A late fee of $50 will apply if the loan is negotiated after September 19, 1996.

University Scholarships

University of King's College Scholarships are distributed through the Bursar's Office. Scholarships are applied first to required fees (King's Students' Union, College fee and Journalism or Foundation Year Programme fees if applicable), and then to residence fees and tuition fees. Any remaining balance will be paid to the scholarship winner by cheque in November.

Income Tax Credit from Academic Fees

The amount of academic fees constituting an income tax credit is determined by Revenue Canada, Taxation. Currently, the tax credit for students is calculated by deducting the following from Academic Fees: Student Union fees, Society fees, College fees and any other incidental fees. Seventeen percent (17%) of the remaining balance constitutes the tax credit.

A special income tax certificate will be available from the Student Accounts Office, Dalhousie University, annually on February 28 (for students in BA and BSc programmes), and from the Accounts Bursar at King's (for students in Journalism). Replacement tax receipts will be provided within 3 weeks of the request, for an additional charge of $5 per receipt. On request, a replacement tax receipt will be provided within 2 days for an additional charge of $10 per receipt.

Identification Cards

All full- and part-time students should obtain an identification card upon registration and payment of proper fees.

ID Cards are issued by the ID unit, located in the Registrar's Office on the main floor of the Dalhousie Arts and Administration Building. ID Cards will only be issued to King's students upon presentation of the appropriate requisition form, authorized by the Registrar's Office, the Bursar's Office and (in the case of BA and BSc students) the Dalhousie Student Accounts Office. Regular academic ID cards remain valid until the beginning of the following academic year (including summer session).

Students of the University of King's College cannot receive either an ID card or a validation sticker until their King's registration is complete.

If an ID card is lost, authorization for a replacement may be obtained from the Office of the King's Bursar. A fee of $15 is charged for all replacement ID cards, except those expressly directed by the University.

Laboratory Deposits

A deposit for the use of laboratory facilities in certain departments is required. The deposit is determined and collected by these departments. Students will be charged for careless or willful damage regardless of whether or not a deposit is required.

Athletic Fee/Dalplex Fee

Membership at Dalplex is available at a special rate for all full-time students of the University of King's College and for all part-time students of the University of King's College taking three full credit classes. Membership in Dalplex for all other part-time students may be obtained at the office of Dalplex at the prevailing rates.

King's Students' Union Fee

Students at King's are required to pay the King's Students' Union Fee which, at the request of the King's student body, is collected upon enrolment from each student who takes more than one credit in a regular session.

King's students are not required to pay the Dalhousie Student Union Fee, or the Rink and Athletic Field Fee, but they do pay the Society Fee. Any King's student who wishes to participate in Dalhousie Student Union Activities must pay both King's and Dalhousie Student Union Fees.

College Fee

Every registered student of the College pays an annual College Fee of $25 at the time of registration. $5 of this fee goes toward the maintenance of the Wardroom/Day Students' Lounge. The remainder of the funds realized are divided among and administered by the Alexandra Hall Residence Society and the Bays' Residence Councils, and the Day Student Society. The chief aim of the two Residence bodies in administering their portion of College Fees is for improvements in the amenities of the Residences, (especially in the common areas) and for events for resident members of King's. The Day Student Society employs its portion of the fees for improving the communication of College activities and events to the non-resident members of King's, for events for non-resident members of King's, and for the subsidy of occasional meals in Prince Hall for day students.

Foundation Year Programme Course Fee

All students enrolled in the Foundation Year Programme must pay a Course Fee, which includes the cost of the Programme Handbook.

Journalism Course Fee

All students enrolled in the School of Journalism must pay a Journalism Course Fee, which includes the cost of materials distributed in Journalism courses.

In addition, there may be a lab fee charged in certain Journalism courses, such as Photojournalism.

Transcripts

Transcripts, official or unofficial, will be issued only on the written request of the student concerned. Telephone requests will not be accepted. The charge is $5; priority transcript service is available for a charge of $15. Transcripts will not be issued if any account with the University is delinquent.

Applications for transcripts of BA and BSc students must be made at the Registrar's Office, Dalhousie University. Applications for transcripts of Journalism students must be made at the Registrar's Office, University of King's College.

Parking on Campus

Parking on the King's campus is severely limited; the spots that are available are allotted on a priority basis. Students are advised that they may not be able to obtain parking at King's.

Residence Fees

General Information

All residence rates include three meals per day for the duration of the academic year. Rates for room and board for one academic year for double rooms in either Alexandra Hall or one of the Bays were approximately $4,450 in 1995/96; a single room was $4,800.

There are no meal plans which exempt resident students from some meals. In the case of timetable conflicts, students are permitted to obtain a box lunch from the kitchen. Non-residents can pay for individual meals at any time, and they can also obtain a meal plan by arrangement with the Food Services manager.

No student will be assigned a place in the King's College Residence unless he or she has paid the residence application fee of $25 and his/her room deposit of $100 (which covers the first part of the required caution deposit, for which see "Caution Deposit," below). In addition, each student accepting an offer of a place in residence must pay a confirmation deposit of $50 before June 28, 1996. The $100 room deposit will be refundable only if the student withdraws, in writing, prior to June 28, 1996. The $50 confirmation fee will be applied against residence fees; it is strictly non-refundable.

Students are expected to remain in residence for the whole of the academic year. Students are not free to withdraw at will, and every student who withdraws from residence after occupying a room will lose his or her $200 room deposit. In addition, students wishing to withdraw during the academic year will forfeit the balance of the residence fee unless a replacement is found who is acceptable to the College. Students withdrawing from the University who receive a tuition fee refund on compassionate grounds (that is, who suffer from a medically-certified illness which requires them to withdraw from their programme) may be released from their obligation for residence fees for the remainder of the term.

The King's College residence is open from the beginning of the registration period in September until the day after the last regularly scheduled examination in the College of Arts and Science in December, and from the first day of classes in January until the day after the last regularly scheduled examination in the College of Arts and Science in April. A graduating resident student may stay in residence without charge after this period in April up to and including the last day of Encaenia activities, but meals are not provided during this time.

In exceptional circumstances a student may seek the permission of the Deans to occupy a room at times other than those specified above. For charges and conditions, students should consult with the Dean of Residence and the Bursar.

Resident students who are not registered at the University of King's College should consult the Bursar's Office for options regarding payment of the resident student fee.

Failure to Pay Residence Fee

Residence Fees for the Fall term must be paid by September 30 of each year. Residence Fees for the Winter term must be paid by January 31. Students who have not paid these fees by the deadline indicated will be charged interest at the rate set for delinquent accounts.

- No student may return to residence in the Winter term until first term residence (and interest) charges are fully paid.
- No student may return to residence after the study break of the Winter term until second term residence (and interest) charges are fully paid.

Expulsion from Residence

Any student expelled from residence loses his or her residence fees and the caution deposit of $200.

Caution Deposit

The caution deposit shall consist of a payment of $200, payable in two instalments. The first half ($100) shall be paid when the student applies for a room in residence. Upon enrolment, each resident student shall pay a further $100 as the second half of the caution deposit to cover damage done to furniture, etc.; this amount also includes the room key deposit. The $200 caution deposit, less deductions, will remain a credit on the books until the student graduates or leaves, when the balance will be returned by cheque, usually during July. No refund in whole or in part will be made until that time. All students in residence are held responsible for the care of furnishings within their respective rooms. Losses or damages incurred during the session will be charged to the caution deposit. Each year, on returning, a student is expected to make up for the previous year's deductions so that his or her credit may be maintained at $200.

Gown Deposit

Academic gowns are available from the Office of the Dean of Residence. A gown deposit of $75 is charged to each student's account. This deposit is fully refundable if the gown is returned before residence closes in April.

University Regulations

General

1. In relation to the College of Arts and Science, the President is charged with the internal regulations of the University, including all matters relating to academic affairs and discipline, subject to the approval of the Governors. Within the general policies approved by the Faculty and Board of Governors of the University of King's College, academic requirements are administered by the College, Faculty or School concerned.
2. All students must agree to obey all the regulations of the University already made or to be made; in addition to these University Regulations, students must also comply with the regulations of the Faculty or School in which they are registered, and pay the required fees and deposits before entering any class or taking any examinations. Additionally, students are advised that this Calendar is not an all-inclusive set of rules and regulations but represents only a portion of the rules and regulations that will govern the student's relationship with the University. Other rules and regulations are contained in additional publications that are available to the students from the Registrar's Office and/or the relevant Faculty, Department, or School.
3. For the purpose of admission to the University, the place of residence of a student is the place of domicile. This is normally presumed to be the place (country, province, etc.) where the parents' or guardian's home is located. That place remains unchanged unless the Registrar is satisfied that a place of residence is established elsewhere. No person under sixteen years of age is admitted to any class except on the specific recommendation of the admissions committee of the relevant Faculty or School, which shall take into account all aspects of the applicant's preparedness for the class or programme involved, and which may attach such conditions to the applicant's admission as the committee judges appropriate.
4. All students must report their local address while attending the University to the Office of the Registrar, on registration or as soon as possible thereafter. Subsequent changes must be reported promptly.
5. Students who change their name while attending the University of King's College must provide proof of name change to the Registrar's Office.
6. Students taking classes in another Faculty as part of an affiliated course of study must conform to the regulations of that Faculty with respect to these classes. It should be noted, however, that regulations pertaining to the degree program are those of the "home" Faculty.
7. In the interests of public health in the University, students are encouraged to have a tuberculin test. Facilities for testing are arranged by the University Health Services.
8. Except for university purposes, transcripts, official or unofficial, will be issued only on the request of the student on payment of the required fee. A student may receive only an unofficial transcript. Official transcripts will be sent at a student's request to other universities, or to business organizations, etc.
9. Students withdrawing voluntarily from the University should consult the individual Faculty or School regulations and the Fees section of this Calendar.
10. When the work of a student becomes unsatisfactory, or a student's attendance is irregular without sufficient reason, the Faculty or School concerned may require withdrawal from one or more classes, or withdrawal from the Faculty or School. If a student is required to withdraw from a Faculty or School, such a student may apply to another Faculty or School. However, in assessing the application, previous performance will be taken into consideration.
11. Any graduating student who is unable to appear at Encaenia is expected to notify the Registrar in writing prior to May 1 (or October 1 for Dalhousie Fall convocations), giving the address to which the degree is to be mailed. Students whose accounts are delinquent on May 1 will not receive their degree parchment nor their transcripts. For October graduation the date is September 1.
12. Students should be aware that certain classes at the University involve required laboratory work where radioactive isotopes are present and are used by students. Since there are potential health risks associated with the improper handling of such radioactive isotopes, the University requires that, as a condition of taking a class where radioactive isotopes are to be used, students read and agree to comply with the instructions for the safe handling of such radioactive isotopes. In the event that students do not comply with the instructions for the safe handling of radioactive isotopes, students will receive no credit for the required laboratory work unless other acceptable alternatives are arranged with the instructor. In many cases, alternate arrangements are not possible and students should consider enrolling in a different class.

Official Examination Regulations

1. Candidates will not be admitted to the Examination Room more than thirty minutes after the beginning of the examination. Candidates will not be permitted to leave the examination within the first thirty minutes.
2. Candidates are required to present their valid University of King's College ID card at all examinations scheduled during the official examination periods and to sign the signature list.
3. No articles such as books, papers, etc. may be taken into the examination room unless provision has been made by the examiner for reference books and materials to be allowed to the students. All books, papers, etc. not specified on the printed paper must be deposited with the invigilator. Calculators may be used at the discretion of the instructor.
4. Smoking is not permitted in the examination room.
5. Candidates may not leave their seats during an examination except with the consent of the invigilator.
6. Answers to questions must be written on the right-hand pages and properly numbered. The left-hand pages may be used for rough work, but no sheets may be detached.
7. Each question should be started on a separate page.
8. If more than one examination booklet is used, the total number of booklets should be marked in the space provided. The other booklets should be properly marked and placed inside the first booklet. All booklets supplied must be returned to the invigilator.
9. Candidates found communicating with one another in any way or under any pretext whatever, or having unauthorized books or papers in their possession, even if their use be not proved, shall be subject to expulsion.
10. After the first thirty minutes have elapsed, students may hand in their examination booklet(s) to an invigilator and quietly leave the examination room. Candidates may not leave the examination room during the last fifteen minutes of the examination.

Release of Information about Students

1. Disclosure to students of their own records
  - Students have the right to inspect their academic record. An employee of the Registrar's Office will be present during such an inspection.
  - Students will, on submission of a signed request and payment of the appropriate fee, have the right to receive transcripts of their own academic record. These transcripts will be marked "ISSUED TO STUDENT." The University will not release copies of transcripts if students owe monies to the University.

2. Disclosure to Faculty, Administrative Officers and Committees of the University

Information on students may be disclosed without the consent of the student to University officials or committees deemed to have a legitimate educational interest.

3. Disclosure to Third Parties

- (a) The following information is considered public information and may be released without restriction:
  - name;
  - period of registration;
  - certificates, diplomas, degrees awarded.
- (b) Information will be released without student consent to persons in compliance with a judicial order or subpoena or as required by federal or provincial legislation.
- (c) Necessary information may be released without student consent in an emergency, if the knowledge of that information is required to protect the health or safety of the student or other persons. Such requests should be directed to the Registrar.
- (d) Other than in the above situation, information on students will be released to third parties only at the written request of the student, or where the student has signed an agreement with a third party, one of the conditions of which is access to his or her record (e.g., in financial aid). This restriction applies to requests from parents, spouses, credit bureaus and police.

Intellectual Honesty

A University should epitomise the quest for intellectual honesty. Failure to measure up to the quest for such a standard can involve either academic offences at one end of the spectrum or substandard work warranting lowered or failing grades at the other. The seniority of the student concerned, the presence of a dishonest intent, and other circumstances may all be relevant to the seriousness with which the matter is viewed.

Examples of Academic Offences

1. Plagiarism or Self-Plagiarism

The University defines plagiarism as the presentation of the work of another author in such a way as to give one's reader reason to think it to be one's own. Plagiarism is a form of academic fraud.

Plagiarism is considered a serious academic offence which may lead to loss of credit, suspension or expulsion from the University, or even the revocation of a degree.

In its grossest form, plagiarism includes the use of a paper purchased from a commercial research corporation, or prepared by any person other than the individual claiming to be the author.

Self-plagiarism is the submission of work by a person which is the same or substantially the same as work for which he or she has already received academic credit.

2. Irregularities in the Presentation of Data from Experiments, Field Studies, etc.

Academic research is predicated on the presentation of accurate and honestly derived data. The falsification of data in reports, theses, dissertations and other presentations is a serious academic offence, equivalent in degree to plagiarism, for which the penalties may include revocation of degrees, loss of credits, or suspension or expulsion from the University.

3. Inaccurate or Inadequate Attribution

The University attaches great importance to the contribution of original thought to scholarship. It attaches equal importance to the correct attribution of authorities from which facts and opinions have been derived.

The proper use of footnotes and other methods of attribution varies from discipline to discipline. Failure to abide by the standards of the discipline concerned in the preparation of essays, term papers and dissertations or theses can result, at the discretion of the instructor or faculty member involved, in lowered grades. It can also lead to the requirement that an alternative assignment be prepared. Such grading penalties can be involved even in the absence of any INTENTION to be dishonest.

Students who are in any doubt about the proper forms of citation and attribution of authorities and sources should discuss the matter in advance with the faculty member for whom they are preparing assignments. In many academic departments, written statements on matters of this kind are made available as a matter of routine or can be obtained on request.

4. Irregularities in Admissions Procedures

A person who gains admission or assists any other person in gaining admission by any irregular procedure, for example, by falsifying an academic record or by forging a letter of recommendation or by impersonating any other person, commits an academic offence and is liable to a penalty (see Senate Discipline Committee/Journalism Studies Committee).

5. Irregularities in Evaluation Procedures

A member of the University who attempts, or who assists any other person in an attempt, to obtain, by irregular procedures, academic standing in a course related to any degree, diploma or certificate programme, commits an academic offence and is liable to a penalty. Without limiting possible irregularities in evaluation procedures that may be considered by the Senate Discipline Committee/Journalism Studies Committee, the following examples shall be considered irregular procedures:

- (a) arranging for or availing oneself of the results of any personation at any examination or test; or

- (b) attempting to secure or accepting assistance from any other person at any examination or test; or
- (c) having in one's possession, or using, any unauthorized material during the time that one is writing any examination or test; or
- (d) without authorization procuring a copy of an examination, test or topic for an essay or paper; or
- (e) in the absence of any enabling statement by the Faculty member in charge of that course, submitting any thesis, essay or paper for academic credit when one is not the sole author; or
- (f) without authorization submitting any thesis, essay or term paper that has been accepted in one course for academic credit in any other course in any degree, diploma or certificate programme.

Discipline

1. Members of the University, both students and staff, are expected to comply with the general laws of the community, within the University as well as outside it.
2. Alleged breaches of discipline relating to student activities under the supervision of the King's Student Union are dealt with by the Student Union. Alleged breaches of discipline relating to life in the residences are dealt with by the Dean of Residence in consultation with the relevant Residence Council. In the case of students registered in BA or BSc programmes, the Dalhousie Senate is charged with the authority to deal with cases of alleged academic offences (see examples above) (as delegated to the Senate Discipline Committee), as well as with certain other offences that are incompatible with constructive participation in an academic community. In the case of students registered in Journalism degree programmes, cases of alleged academic offences are dealt with by the King's Journalism Studies Committee.
3. On report of a serious breach of the law, or a serious academic offence deemed by the President, or in his or her absence by the Vice-President or the Dean of a Faculty, to affect vital University interests, a student involved may be temporarily suspended and denied admission to classes or to the University by the President, Vice-President or Dean, but any suspension shall be reported to the Faculty of the University of King's College, and to the Senate of Dalhousie University where appropriate, together with the reasons for it, without delay.
4. No refund of fees will be made to any student required to lose credit for any course taken, required to withdraw, or who is suspended or dismissed from any class or any Faculty of the University.

Discipline Committees

Composition

Academic offences in the College of Arts and Science are dealt with by the Dalhousie Senate Discipline Committee. The Dalhousie Senate Discipline Committee will consist of two representatives of the faculty of the University, two representatives of the student body, and a chairperson who is a member of the faculty of the University. A student who is a member of the Student Discipline Committee may not at the same time be a member of the Dalhousie Senate Discipline Committee.

Academic offences in the School of Journalism are dealt with by the Journalism Studies Committee.

Terms of Reference

1. The Senate Discipline Committee/Journalism Studies Committee is vested with original jurisdiction to consider all complaints or allegations respecting offences or irregularities of an academic nature, including those relating to admissions procedures and evaluation procedures, and to impose penalties in cases where the Committee finds an offence or irregularity has occurred.
2. The Senate Discipline Committee/Journalism Studies Committee is vested with the power to discipline a student who, before or during the course of the disciplinary process involving him or her but prior to adjudication, has:
  - been compelled to withdraw academically;
  - chosen to withdraw from the University prior to being disciplined; or
  - chosen not to register at the University.
3. The Senate Discipline Committee/Journalism Studies Committee shall assume jurisdiction when a complaint or allegation respecting offences or irregularities of an academic nature are brought to its attention by the Secretary of Senate/Director of the School of Journalism.
4. The Senate Discipline Committee/Journalism Studies Committee is required to evaluate the evidence of innocence or guilt of an accused student from the premises that the more senior the student in terms of chronological age, or year of registration at, and/or extent of other exposure to university rules and regulations (whether at Dalhousie/King's or elsewhere), the less credible are assertions of ignorance or innocence and the stronger is the case for a more severe penalty than would be imposed on a less senior student.

5. The Senate Discipline Committee/Journalism Studies Committee shall report its findings and any penalty imposed to the Secretary of the Senate/Director of the School of Journalism. The Secretary of the Senate/Director of the School of Journalism shall forward a copy of the report to the person or persons whom the Senate Discipline Committee has found to have committed the offence or irregularity, and if the member concerned be other than a student a copy shall also be sent to the Vice-President (Academic).
6. From the decisions of the Senate Discipline Committee/Journalism Studies Committee, an Appeal lies to the Senate/Faculty of the University of King's College on such grounds as it determines is appropriate.
7. Where a Faculty, such as Health Professions, wishes to dismiss a student for unethical conduct or unfitness for the Health Professions or any one of them, there is to be no appeal to the Senate Discipline Committee. Instead, there should be an appeal to a Senate ad hoc committee.

Penalties

The range of penalties which may be imposed by the Senate Discipline Committee/Journalism Studies Committee is circumscribed only by the requirement that such penalty or penalties be of an academic nature and, without restricting the generality of the foregoing, may include any one or more of:

1. notation, for a period of one (1) or more years and not exceeding five (5) years, on the offender's transcript of the fact of discipline;
2. repeat of the assignment that triggered the discipline;
3. a failing grade or mark or assessment in the piece of work triggering the discipline;
4. failure of the class or seminar or programme;
5. failure of the academic year;
6. suspension for an academic term or for the academic year (to a maximum suspension of three (3) academic years);
7. expulsion from the University;
8. loss of an existing and/or continuing scholarship, or loss of eligibility to receive or to maintain scholarships or prizes or bursaries; and
9. removal from the Dean's List/President's List.

Please note: Transcripts will not be issued for a student while a Discipline Committee/Journalism Studies Committee case is pending.

Student Conduct and General College Regulations

The following "Code of Student Conduct" is reproduced from the Dalhousie University Calendar. Students registered at the University of King's College should make themselves aware of the standards of conduct expected at Dalhousie, where they will be taking classes, using the library, computing facilities and other resources, and so fall under the definition of "student" applied in the Code, below. In principle, the University of King's College recognizes the same offences and will apply similar procedures and sanctions to those listed in the Dalhousie "Code of Student Conduct," as well as having its own General College Regulations which apply to King's students. Copies of the General College Regulations are available from the Dean of Residence and the Registrar, and every King's student is expected to comply with those regulations.

Any complaint should be submitted as soon as possible after the event takes place. All complaints shall be presented to the accused student in written form.

Guide to Responsible Computing

In recognition of the contribution that computers can make to furthering the educational and other objectives of the University, this Guide is intended to promote the responsible and ethical use of University computing resources. It is in the best interests of the community as a whole that these resources be used in accordance with certain practices which ensure that the rights of all users are protected and the goals of the University are achieved.

This Guide applies to all computer and computer communication facilities owned, leased, operated or contracted by the University. This includes word processing equipment, micros, mainframes, minicomputers, and associated peripherals and software, regardless of whether used for administration, research, teaching or other purposes.

It should be noted that system administrators of various campus computing facilities and those responsible for the computer access privileges of others may promulgate regulations to control use of the facilities they regulate. System administrators are responsible for publicizing both the regulations they establish and their policies concerning the authorized and appropriate use of the publicly available equipment for which they are responsible.

Basic Principles

Individuals should use only those University computing facilities they have been authorized through normal University channels to use. They should use these facilities:

- with respect to the terms under which they were granted access to them;
- in a way that respects the rights of other authorized users;
- so as not to interfere with or violate the normal, appropriate use of these facilities;
- so as not to impose unauthorized costs on the University without compensation to it.

Elaboration

- Individuals should use only those University computing facilities they have been authorized through normal University channels to use. They should use these resources in a responsible and efficient manner consistent with the objectives underlying their authorization to use them.

Interim Suspension

In the following circumstances, the President of the University, or a designate, may impose an interim suspension prior to the hearing before the Committee:

- Interim suspension may be imposed only: (a) to ensure the safety and well-being of members of the University community or preservation of University property; (b) to ensure the student's own physical or emotional safety and well-being; or (c) if the student poses a threat of disruption or of interference with the normal operations of the University.
- During the interim suspension, students may be denied access to specified campus facilities (including classes) and/or any other University activities or privileges for which the student might otherwise be eligible, as the President or the designate may determine to be appropriate.
- A student who is the subject of an interim suspension may request a hearing before the Senate Discipline Committee on the issue of the interim suspension itself. This request shall be submitted in writing, with reasons, to the Secretary of Senate. The Committee shall hear the matter,

2. Individuals should respect the rights of other authorized users of University computing facilities. Thus, they should respect the rights of other users to security of files, confidentiality of data, and the benefits of their own work. Users should respect the rights of others to access campus computing resources and should refrain from:
  - using the computer access privileges of others without their explicit approval;
  - accessing, copying or modifying the files of others without their permission; and
  - harassing others in any way or interfering with their legitimate use of computing facilities.
3. Individuals should respect the property rights of others by refraining from the illegal copying of programs or data acquired by the University or other users or putting software, data files, etc. on University computers without the legal right to do so.
4. Individuals should not attempt to interfere with the normal operation of computing systems or attempt to subvert the restrictions associated with such facilities. They should obey the regulations affecting the use of any computing facility they use.

Disciplinary Actions

Reasonable suspicion of a violation of the principles or practices laid out in this Guide may result in disciplinary action. Such action will be taken through normal University channels.

Nothing in this Guide diminishes the responsibility of system administrators of computing services to take remedial action in the case of possible abuse of computing privileges. To this end, the system administrators, with the approval of the President and with due regard for the right of privacy of users and the confidentiality of their data, have the right to suspend or modify computer access privileges, examine files, passwords, accounting information, printouts, tapes, and any other material which may aid in an investigation of possible abuse. Whenever possible, the cooperation and agreement of the user will be sought in advance. Users are expected to cooperate in such investigations when requested. Failure to do so may be grounds for cancellation of computer access privileges.

Academic Regulations, College of Arts and Science

These regulations apply to all students in the College of Arts and Science. Students registered at the University of King's College as candidates for the BJ (Hons) and BJ degrees are subject to the Academic Regulations of the School of Journalism. Journalism students taking classes in the College of Arts and Science, however, must conform to the Academic Regulations of the College of Arts and Science with regard to those classes.

Please note:

- a) A student is governed by the regulations in place at the time of initial enrolment as long as the degree is completed within the time permitted (see section 17, below); subsequent changes in regulation shall apply only if the student so elects. Students applying the old regulations should consult the calendar of the appropriate year.
- b) It is a student's responsibility to maintain documentation of registration and subsequent changes. For environmental and financial reasons, the Registrar's Office will rely solely upon computer records and will not maintain paper records of changes to a student's registration.

1. Definitions

For definitions of some commonly used terms, see page 7.

Within these regulations, reference to the Student Appeals Committee should be interpreted as the Student Affairs Committee in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences and as the Committee on Studies and Appeals in the Faculty of Science.

3. Class Selection

3.1 Numbering of Classes

Classes are numbered to indicate their general level. Those in the 1000 series are introductory classes at Dalhousie/King's. Classes in the 2000, 3000 and 4000 series are usually first available to students in the second, third and fourth years, respectively. Often these classes have prerequisites. Some departments have minimum grade requirements for entry into classes above the 1000 level. Such requirements are listed in the calendar entries for the departments concerned. For full calendar entries, please refer to the calendar of Dalhousie University.

An example of a class identifier is as follows:

ENGL 1000.06R:

ENGL	subject code
1000	class number &amp; level
06	credit hours
R	session in which the class is taught

The letters A and B denote classes given in the first and second terms respectively. The symbol A or B indicates a class may be given in the first term or in the second term. Students should consult the academic timetable to verify whether a particular class will be offered in the A or B term in a given academic year. The letter R denotes a class spread over both terms (i.e., given for the full academic year). For the spring and summer sessions, A denotes a class given in the first three and one half weeks, B a class given in the second three and one half weeks, and R classes continuing for seven weeks.

Classes with numbers below 1000 normally do not carry credit.

3.2 Academic Advice

At Dalhousie/King's, academic advice is available to all students prior to registration. First-year students, particularly those in BA and BSc programmes, may wish to consult with the Office of the Registrar, or with a faculty advisor in an academic department of particular interest. After the first year, students plan their programmes in consultation with faculty advisors in their major department. Students complete and submit the Registration and Class Selection Form to the Registrar's Office.

4. Workload

4.1 Regular Year

Five full credits per academic year shall be regarded as constituting a normal workload for a student. Written permission from the Student Appeals Committee of the appropriate Faculty is required if this workload is to be exceeded, or if the planned workload in any term would amount to more than the equivalent of six half-credits. In no case may the workload exceed this. Applications from students who give good reasons for wishing to take an overload will be considered. Such permission will not normally be granted to any student in the first year of study, or to any student who, in the preceding academic year, earned a sessional GPA of less than 3.00.

4.2 Spring and Summer Session

Students may normally take one full credit in each of the spring or summer sessions. Exceptions will normally be granted by the Student Appeals Committee of the appropriate Faculty or School with respect to attendance at a university which operates a trimester system or its equivalent. Students in Co-op programmes in Science may increase the workload to a maximum of 2.5 credits by summer school in any one year with a maximum of 1.5 credits in any one summer session. Spring and summer credits are included in the calculation of the cumulative GPA at the end of the next regular academic year. A sessional GPA is not calculated.

5. Registration

5.1 Registration material will be sent to all eligible students. Students are strongly encouraged to register by mail. Students admitted late must register in person.

5.2 A student is registered only after financial arrangements have been made at the Bursar's Office at the University of King's College and at the Dalhousie Student Accounts Office.

5.3 The final step is obtaining an ID or validating an existing ID at the Office of the Registrar.

Upon first registration at King's, students will be issued a requisition form, authorized by the Bursar, University of King's College. An ID card may then be obtained at the ID Unit, which is located in the Dalhousie Registrar's Office. Students of King's College require the requisition form issued by the King's Bursar in order to be issued an ID card.

ID cards are mandatory and must be presented to write an officially scheduled examination. In addition, some services such as the issuance of bursary or scholarship cheques, library privileges and Dalplex require the presentation of a valid King's ID.

6. Class Changes and Withdrawal

6.1 Class Changes

It is recognized that some students may wish to make changes in programmes already arranged. Class changes will normally be completed during the first two weeks of classes. (For Spring and Summer session information see the Summer School Schedule). The last dates for adding and deleting "A," "B," and "R" classes without academic penalty are published in the Schedule of Academic Dates at the front of this Calendar.

Students may not transfer from full- to part-time status by withdrawing from classes after the deadlines listed in the Schedule of Academic Dates. After these dates all classes for which a student remains registered will be recorded. To add or delete a class, students must complete a class change form which must be approved by the faculty member concerned and submitted to the Registrar. No change is effective until a class change form is received by the Office of the Registrar.

Please note that dropping or changing classes may affect your eligibility for student aid.

6.2 Withdrawal

Non-attendance does not, in itself, constitute withdrawal.

Withdrawals are not effective until written notification is received at the Office of the Registrar. Students should not discontinue attendance at any class until their withdrawal has been approved.

7. Counting of Credits for Two Undergraduate Degrees

Students who hold one undergraduate degree from Dalhousie/King's and who wish to gain a second undergraduate degree must fulfil the requirements of the second degree and meet the following stipulations:

- Only credits that are applicable to the programme for the second degree may be counted for credit.
- Each credit carried forward must have a grade of C or higher.
- Grade points must be earned in the new credits as required by Regulation 22, below.

7.1 College of Arts and Science

For the Honours degree, a minimum of eleven new full credits are to be taken, in accordance with "Degree Requirements," listed elsewhere in this calendar.

For the Advanced Major (20-credit) degree, a minimum of eleven new full credits, or the equivalent, must be taken. At least six of these are to be beyond the 1000 level in a new major subject, and at least three of the six must be beyond the 2000 level.

For the Major degree (15 credits), a minimum of six new full credits must be taken. At least four of these are to be beyond the 1000 level in a new major subject, and at least two of the four must be beyond the 2000 level. Normally, two of these credits will be in a subject other than the new major.

8. Transfer Students

8.1 Transfer Credits - All Faculties

At Dalhousie/King's, transfer credits may be granted for classes which are offered by a recognized university or equivalent institution of higher learning and which are judged to be comparable to classes offered at Dalhousie/King's and to be appropriate to a student's academic programme at Dalhousie/King's. Transfer credit grants credit for a class and does not require substitution.

Transfer credits are subject to the approval of the appropriate department. For classes not within the purview of a Dalhousie/King's department, the Registrar's Office will assess transfer credits. Students may appeal, in writing, a negative decision, and should justify the inclusion of such classes in the student's proposed programme. Photocopies of calendar descriptions are necessary. Such descriptions are not normally included with university transcripts, and it is the student's responsibility to provide them.

To obtain a first degree or diploma, at least half of the credits, including at least half in the field of concentration, must normally be taken at Dalhousie/King's.

8.2 Transfer Credits from Dental Hygiene

Students who have completed the Dalhousie Diploma in Dental Hygiene may receive credit towards a BA or BSc with a major in Biology for BIOL 2100.03 and BIOL 4403.06. These classes are to be included within the 10 full credits which Dental Hygiene students are eligible to receive as credit towards a BSc or BA degree upon completion of the current Dalhousie diploma requirements.

8.3 No Transfer Credits

- No credit will be given for any work used as the basis for admission.
- No transfer credit will be granted for any class in which a final mark of less than C (or the equivalent in Dalhousie/King's terms) was obtained.
- Credits that are more than ten (10) years old may not be used to fulfil degree requirements unless a waiver is granted.
- No classes taken at another institution will be counted towards fulfilment of the major, advanced major or honours requirement of the Bachelor's degree without specific advance approval from the appropriate department at Dalhousie/King's.

- No credit will be given for any classes taken at another university while a student is inadmissible at Dalhousie/King's.

8.4 Procedures

As soon as the student's record has been assessed the Office of the Registrar will inform the student which credits have been awarded. The number of credits which have been approved and which Dalhousie/King's classes may not be taken will be included in the letter. If more credits have been approved than can be applied to the student's programme, the student will choose the credits to be used. If the student fails to do so, the Registrar's Office will decide the appropriate transfer credits. Transfer credits awarded on admission appear on a Dalhousie/King's transcript as credits only; no marks are shown.

If by the time of registration the student has not received written confirmation of transfer credits, the student should check with the Office of the Registrar. Information, although incomplete, may be available and may be helpful in choosing Dalhousie/King's classes.

Before selecting classes the student should consult with the appropriate department(s) to determine how the transfer credits will fit into the student's specific academic programme at Dalhousie/King's.

8.5 Classes Taken at Other Universities on Letter of Permission

A student who wishes to take classes at other institutions while registered at Dalhousie/King's must obtain approval in advance on a form available in the Office of the Registrar. A letter of permission will be provided if approval for the classes is given by the appropriate department/school/college. The workload at the other institution must conform to Dalhousie/King's limitations. (For details, see Regulation 4, above.)

The departments of French, German, Russian, and Spanish have special arrangements whereby up to a total of 5 full credits taken at other universities may be considered as part of a student's programme at Dalhousie/King's. (See Regulation 15, below.)

The class fee will be paid by Dalhousie/King's if:

- the student is registered and has paid fees as a full-time student at Dalhousie/King's;
- the classes are approved as part of the student's programme; and
- the class is not part of a spring/summer school programme.

9. Advanced Placement

Students possessing advanced knowledge of a subject will be encouraged to begin their studies in that subject at a level appropriate to their knowledge, as determined by the department concerned. However, such students must complete at Dalhousie/King's the full number of credits required for the particular credential being sought.

10. Part-Time Students

Part-time students are reminded of University policy that limits programmes of study to 10 years from the date of initial registration. Note also the regulation above concerning the number of credits that must be completed on campus at Dalhousie/King's.

Part-time students are admitted to most of the programmes offered in the College of Arts and Science. Admission requirements and regulations are the same for all students. Part-time students are encouraged to consult with Henson College, Dalhousie University, or with the Registrar, University of King's College, for advice on their academic programmes and other matters.

11. Audit of Classes

Students who have been admitted to a Faculty may audit many of the classes offered, with the permission of the instructor. Students auditing classes will not be eligible to write examinations in the audited class and will not in any circumstance be granted credit for it. For those who are not full-time students, fees are payable as indicated in the Fees section of this calendar. A class may not be changed from credit to audit or from audit to credit status after the last date for dropping classes without a "W" (see "Schedule of Academic Dates" in this Calendar). In order to change from audit to credit prior to the deadline an additional fee is required. It is essential that procedures as given in regulation 6, above, be followed.

12. Experimental Classes

Experimental classes, on any subject or combination of subjects to which arts or sciences are relevant, and differing in conception from any of the classes regularly listed in departmental offerings, may be formed on the initiative of students or faculty members.

If formed on the initiative of students, the students concerned shall seek out faculty members to take part in the classes.

Whether formed on the initiative of students or on the initiative of faculty members, the faculty members who wish to take part must obtain the consent of their department.

The class may be of one-year length or half-year length.

A class shall be considered to be formed when at least one faculty member and at least eight students have committed themselves to taking part in it for its full length.

Classes may be formed any time before the end of the second week of classes in the fall term to run the year or first half-year, or any time before the end of the second week of classes in the spring term. If they are formed long enough in advance to be announced in the Calendar, they shall be so announced, in a section describing the Experimental Programme: if they are formed later, they shall be announced (a) in the Dalhousie Gazette, (b) in the Dal News, (c) on a central bulletin board set aside for this purpose.

One faculty member taking part in each experimental class shall be designated the rapporteur of the class with responsibility for (a) advising the Curriculum Committee of the formation and content of the class; (b) obtaining from the Curriculum Committee a ruling as to what requirement or requirements of distribution, concentration and credit the class may be accepted as satisfying; (c) reporting to the Registrar on the performance of students in the class; (d) reporting to the Curriculum Committee, after the class has finished its work, on the subjects treated, the techniques of instruction, and the success of the class as an experiment in pedagogy (judged so far as possible on the basis of objective comparisons with more familiar types of classes).

Students may have five one-year length experimental classes (or some equivalent combination of these with half-year length classes) counted as satisfying class for class any of the requirements for the degree, subject to the rulings of the relevant Curriculum Committee (above) and to the approval of the departments.

13. Co-ordinated Programmes

Students may in their second and third years follow a two-year integrated programme, or two one-year integrated programmes, of study. If two one-year programmes are chosen, they may be in different departments. All such co-ordinated programmes have been explicitly approved by the Curriculum Committee of the Faculty. A department or group of departments offering co-ordinated programmes may structure them as it wishes, consistent with sound academic practice and subject to the following guidelines:

- that the equivalent of five credits constitute a normal year;
- that the function of each programme form part of the Calendar description of each programme;
- that each two-year programme permits students at least one credit of their own choice in each of the second and third years;
- that two-year programmes normally not be exclusively in a single discipline;
- that the normal prerequisite for entry into a departmental one-year or two-year programme be the introductory class of the department in question, or an equivalent that the department considers acceptable, and not more than one introductory class in a related subject.

A student considering a Co-ordinated Programme should consult as early as possible with the departments concerned.

14. Correspondence and Summer School Classes Taken at Other Universities

Dalhousie currently offers a Spring and a Summer session of approximately seven weeks each, in May-June and in July-August. See Regulation 4 above for permitted workload. Those interested in the Spring and Summer sessions may request a summer schedule from the Office of the Registrar, Dalhousie University.

15. International/ Exchange Programmes

The College of Arts and Science offers a number of programmes which enable students to pursue part of their studies in another country and culture, often in a foreign-language environment. These include:

- Up to one full year of study in a foreign-language environment. In recent years students have studied at the Université de Provence (Aix-Marseille) in France. (Consult the Department of French.)
- Up to one full year of study at a francophone university in Québec. (Consult the Department of French.)
- A summer of study in German at the DAAD Summer programme. Up to one full year of study at one of the following locations: Heidelberg, Freiberg, Munich, Dresden. (Consult the Department of German.)
- One term of study at Colegio de España, Salamanca, Spain or Uribe University, Dominican Republic. (Consult the Co-ordinator in the Department of Spanish.)
- One term of study at St. Petersburg State University. (Consult the Administrator of the Russian Studies Programme in the Department of Russian.)
- Up to one full academic year at one of eighteen (18) universities in the New England states. (Consult the Registrar's Office.)
- Up to one full year of study in a Commonwealth country. (Consult the Pearson Institute, Dalhousie University.)

16. Preparation for Other Programmes

Work in the College of Arts and Science is prerequisite for various programmes in other Faculties and other institutions. A brief summary of the academic work required for admission to certain programmes is given here. Further information may be found in the Calendar of Dalhousie University, or in the separate Dalhousie faculty calendars.

Graduate Studies: Able and ambitious students are encouraged to consider seriously entering a graduate programme at Dalhousie or elsewhere. The normal requirement for admission to a graduate programme is an Honours degree or the equivalent.

Architecture: Two years of work, including at least one credit in Mathematics, are required for entry to a programme in Architecture at the Technical University of Nova Scotia. For details, apply to the Faculty of Architecture at TUNS.

Dental Hygiene: Completion of 5 full-credit university-level classes of one academic year's duration in the following: Biology, Psychology, Sociology, a writing class, and one elective. For details, see the entry for the Dalhousie Dentistry, Law and Medicine Calendar.

Dentistry: See the Dalhousie Dentistry, Law and Medicine Calendar.

Design: Students completing one year in the College of Arts and Science at Dalhousie/King's may be admitted into the second year of the four-year programme leading to the Bachelor of Design degree in Communication Design or Environmental Design at the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design.

Engineering: The Dalhousie Diploma in Engineering qualifies a student for entry to the Technical University of Nova Scotia to study Engineering. Students of the University of King's College may not enroll in the Diploma in Engineering programme.

Law: At least two years of work leading to one of the degrees of BA, BSc, BComm. For details, please see the Dalhousie Dentistry, Law and Medicine Calendar.

Medicine: A BA, BSc or B.Comm degree. For details, please see the Dentistry, Law and Medicine Calendar.

Veterinary Medicine: Normally three years of work at Dalhousie/King's are required for admission to the Atlantic Veterinary College of the University of Prince Edward Island. Dalhousie/King's credits should normally include COMP 1400.03; MATH 1000.03 and 1060.03; one of CHEM 1010.06, 1020.06 or 1500.06; CHEM 2400.06; BIOC 2200.03; one of PHYC 1000.06, 1100.06 or 1300.06; ENGL 1000.06; BIOL 1000.06, 2030.03, 2100.03 and 3323.06; and an additional two and a half credits from the humanities and social sciences.

17. Duration of Undergraduate Studies

Students are normally required to complete their undergraduate studies within ten years of their first registration, and to comply with the regulations in force at the time of that registration. This is also the normal limit for transfer credits. However, the Student Appeals Committee of the appropriate Faculty or School may grant permission to continue studies for a reasonable further period, subject to such conditions as the Committee deems appropriate and with the stipulation that the student must meet the degree requirements in force when the extension is granted.

18. Assessment

18.1 Method

Examinations may be oral, written (closed- or open-book), under supervision or take-home.

Students will be provided with a class outline by the instructor at the first meeting of the class. In order to complete a class satisfactorily, a student must fulfil all the requirements as set down in the class outline. Changes to the outline which affect assessment components, the weight of individual assessment components, or examination requirements with a value of ten percent or more, must have the approval of at least two-thirds of enrolled students in order to be valid.

Within four weeks after the beginning of each term, class outlines will be placed on file with the appropriate department.

18.1.1 Academic Accommodation for Students with Learning Disabilities

Students are expected to self-identify that they have a learning disability with the Advisor to Students with Disabilities as early as possible, and preferably before the beginning of the term, and to provide the Advisor with a current (within three years) psychoeducational report documenting the presence of a learning disability. They should make this initial contact during office hours and be prepared to discuss strengths, weaknesses and the types of accommodation that may be necessary.

The types of academic accommodation provided for students with learning disabilities may vary depending on the nature of the learning disability and the class content. It is not unusual for there to be an initial trial and error period of finding the best way to evaluate a student's ability to demonstrate a mastery of class material.

Appeals for students with learning disabilities will follow the usual procedures of the relevant Faculty.

The policy on release of information about students with learning disabilities is consistent with the University Regulation on the Release of Information as detailed in this Calendar.

Note: Where self-disclosure or prior arrangements have not been made with the University, Dalhousie/King's is not liable to accommodate your special needs due to your disability.

18.2 Examinations and Tests

Tests are normally scheduled during class time. Mid-term tests scheduled outside class time are restricted to one per term between mid-October and mid-November and between mid-February and mid-March.

Periods of approximately three weeks in the spring and one and one-half weeks in December are set aside for the scheduling of formal written examinations by the Registrar. Instructors wishing to have examinations scheduled by the Registrar for their classes must so inform the Registrar at the beginning of the third week of classes in the fall and winter terms. Instructors may also arrange their own examinations at times and places of their choosing during the formal examination periods, with the understanding that in cases of conflict of examinations for an individual student, the Registrar's examination schedule takes priority.

No test or examination worth more than 50% of the final grade in an A or B class, or more than 25% of the final grade in an R class, may be held during the last two weeks of either term without the explicit approval of the appropriate governing body of the Faculty or School. No tests may be held between the end of classes and the beginning of the official examination period. Students may contact the Office of the Dean of the appropriate Faculty for assistance if they are scheduled for more than two examinations on the same day.

18.3 Submission of Grades

On completion of a class, the instructor is required to submit grades to the Registrar. Such grades are to be based on the instructor's evaluation of the academic performance of the students in the class in question.

18.4 Incomplete

Students are expected to complete class work by the prescribed deadlines. Only in special circumstances (e.g., the death of a close relative), may an instructor extend such deadlines. Incomplete work in a class must be completed by:

Fall term classes (A)	Feb 1
Winter and Regular term classes (B or R)	June 1
Spring term classes (A, B or R)	Aug 1
Summer term classes (A, B or R)	Oct 1

Exceptions to this rule will normally be extended only to classes which require field work during the summer months. At present in the College of Arts and Science, these classes are BIOL 4800.03 and 4900.06; MUSC 3470.03 and 4470.03. Students taking any of these classes in their final year should note that they will not be able to graduate at the spring Convocation/Encaenia.

The Office of the Registrar is not permitted to accept a late clearance of INC or late grade changes other than those due to errors. If there are exceptional circumstances, a recommendation should be forwarded to the undergraduate coordinator or the Committee on Studies of the appropriate Faculty. Unless INC is changed it counts in the GPA and has a grade point value of 0.00; it is a failing grade.

18.6 Correction of Errors in Recorded Grades

Students must request correction in the calculation or recording of final grades by March 1 for first-term grades; July 1 for second-term grades; September 1 for spring session grades; and November 1 for summer term grades and grades for the co-op summer session.

18.7 Reassessment of a Grade

Students who have questions about final grades that are assigned are encouraged to discuss them with the class instructor. In addition, students may consult the Chair of the Department, Director of the School/College/Programme, Dean of the Faculty, the Student Advocate, or the Dalhousie Ombud. If their concerns cannot be resolved, students may also use the formal process that follows for the reassessment of final grades.

Once a final class grade has been submitted to the Registrar, a student who wishes to have a final grade reassessed should make a written request to the Registrar and pay the requisite fee of $25. The request must identify the specific component which the student wishes reassessed and the grounds for the request. Such requests must be made by March 1 for first-term grades; July 1 for second-term grades; September 1 for spring session grades; and November 1 for summer session and for the co-op summer session. When such a request is received, the Registrar will forward it to the Dean of the Faculty or Director of the School/College/Programme offering the class. The reassessment will be conducted according to procedures developed for the purpose by the Faculty or School/College/Programme. These should reflect the nature of the academic disciplines and assessment involved, and should provide for a review of the assessment by a qualified person or persons not responsible for the original evaluation.

The student will be notified, by the Office of the Registrar, of the outcome of the reassessment. If the reassessment results in the assignment of a grade that is different (higher or lower) from the original one, the new grade will replace the original one.

Students who wish information about grade re-assessment procedures should contact their Faculty or School/College/Programme office.

18.8 Special Arrangements for Examinations, Tests and Assignments

At the discretion of the instructor, alternate arrangements for examinations, tests or the completion of assignments may be made for students who are ill, or in other exceptional circumstances.

Where illness is involved, a certificate from the student's physician will be required. This certificate should indicate the dates and duration of the illness, when possible should describe the impact it had on the student's ability to fulfil academic requirements, and should include any other information the physician considers relevant and appropriate. To obtain a medical certificate, students who miss examinations, tests or the completion of other assignments should contact the University Health Services or their physician at the time they are ill and should submit a medical certificate to their instructor as soon thereafter as possible. Such certificates will not normally be accepted after a lapse of more than one week from the examination or assignment completion date.

For exceptional circumstances other than illness, appropriate documentation, depending on the situation, will be required.

Requests for alternate arrangements should be made to the instructor in all cases. The deadline for changing a grade of ILL is February 1 for "A" classes and June 1 for "B" or "R" classes for the Regular Session. For the Spring and Summer sessions the deadlines are August 1 and October 1 respectively. Requests to change grades after these deadlines must be submitted in writing to the appeals committee of the appropriate Faculty.

19. Academic Standing

19.1 Grade Point Average (GPA)

The Grade Point Average is calculated by summing the values obtained by multiplying the credit points obtained in each class in accordance with the scale in 19.1, by the number of credit hours of each class then dividing that sum by the total credit hours attempted. A Sessional GPA includes only those classes attempted in the regular and prior spring/summer sessions; and the Cumulative GPA includes all classes attempted while registered for the current degree or carried forward from a previous degree. Please refer to Table 19.1, below.

19.2 Grade Points in the Spring/Summer Session

Students enrolled in classes during the Spring/Summer session will earn grade points which will be included in their cumulative GPA and the sessional GPA for the next regular academic session. A sessional GPA will not be calculated for spring or summer sessions.

19.1 Scale and Grade Definitions

Grade	Grade Point Value	Definition
A+	4.30	Excellent Considerable evidence of original thinking; demonstrated outstanding capacity to analyze and synthesize; outstanding grasp of subject matter; evidence of extensive knowledge base.
A	4.00
A-	3.70
B+	3.30	Good Evidence of grasp of subject matter, some evidence of critical capacity and analytical ability; reasonable understanding of relevant issues; evidence of familiarity with the literature.
B	3.00
B-	2.70
C+	2.30	Satisfactory Evidence of some understanding of the subject matter; ability to develop solutions to simple problems; benefitting from his/her University experience.
C	2.00
C-	1.70
D	1.00	Marginal Pass Evidence of minimally acceptable (except in programmes where a minimum grade of "C" is required) familiarity with subject matter, critical and analytical skills.
F	0.00	Inadequate Insufficient evidence of understanding of the subject matter; weakness in critical and analytical skills; limited or irrelevant use of the literature.
INC*	0.00	Incomplete
W	Neutral, and no credit obtained	Withdrew after deadline
ILL	Neutral, and no credit obtained	Compassionate reasons/illness
P	Neutral, and no credit obtained	Pass for credit classes
T	Neutral, and no credit obtained	Transfer credit on admission

* see regulation 18.5, above.

19.3 Grade Points on Admission

Transfer credits on admission count as credits without grade points; i.e., they are neutral in the calculation of the GPA.

19.4 Grade Points on Letter of Permission

The grade earned in a class taken at another institution on a letter of permission is recorded and the appropriate Dalhousie/King's grade points are assigned. For institutions which do not use letter grades, the Registrar's Office translates the grade into a Dalhousie/King's grade and assigns the corresponding grade points.

19.5 Repeating Classes for which a Passing Grade has been Awarded

With the permission of the department concerned, a student may repeat any class for which a passing grade has previously been awarded. The original passing grade will nevertheless remain on the transcript and a second entry will be recorded with the new grade and the notation "repeated class." No additional credit will be given for such a repeated class, but both grades will be included in the calculation of the sessional and cumulative GPA.

20. Probation

20.1 Students with a cumulative GPA of less than 1.70 and greater than or equal to 1.00 who have completed at least four full credits will be placed on academic probation.

20.2 Students on probation are allowed to continue to register on probation provided their sessional GPA is at least 1.70. Students will be returned to "good standing" when they achieve a cumulative GPA of 1.70. Students on probation who do not achieve a sessional GPA of 1.70 will be academically dismissed for a 12-month period.

20.3 Students who are returning from a 12-month period of academic dismissal are allowed to register on probation. They are allowed to continue to register on probation provided their sessional GPA is at least 1.70. Students will be returned to "good standing" when they achieve a cumulative GPA of 1.70. Students who do not achieve a sessional GPA of at least 1.70 will be dismissed academically for the second time for a 36-month period.

20.4 Students require a cumulative GPA of 1.70 to graduate. Therefore, no one will be allowed to graduate while on probation.

21. Academic Dismissal

21.1 Students with a cumulative GPA of less than 1.00 who have completed at least four full credits will be academically dismissed for a 12-month period.

21.2 Students on probation who do not achieve a sessional GPA of 1.70 or greater will be academically dismissed for a 12-month period.

21.3 Students who have been academically dismissed for the first time may re-register on probation after a 12-month period.

21.4 Students who have been academically dismissed for the second time will not be allowed to re-apply for admission for at least three calendar years.

22. Graduation Standing*22.1 Minimum Cumulative GPA

A minimum cumulative GPA of 1.70 is required for the awarding of a degree in the College of Arts and Science except for Honours programmes. Please see "Degree Requirements" for details on Required Standing for Graduation for Honours Programmes.

22.2 Graduation with Distinction

A cumulative GPA of at least 3.70 is required to graduate with Distinction. For the purpose of determining whether a student will graduate with Distinction, all classes taken while at Dalhousie/King's, including repeated classes and classes for which non-passing grades were obtained, are included. At least half of the classes must be completed at Dalhousie/King's.

23. Graduation

In order to graduate, students must submit an Intention to Graduate form to the Office of the Registrar by the deadlines indicated below:

Graduation Month	Application Deadline
May	Dec. 1
October	July 1

In cases where requests can be accommodated after the deadline, a $50 fee will be charged.

24. Change from BA to BSc Programme and Vice Versa

All students who have completed all the requirements for a BSc degree have automatically completed all the requirements for a BA degree, provided they have included a language credit. Similarly, most students who have completed all requirements for a BA degree in a science subject will have automatically completed all requirements for a BSc degree, provided they have completed the mathematics requirement. However, students who are registered for a BSc degree and wish to be awarded a BA degree or vice versa must do so by submitting an admissions application to the Office of the Registrar by September 19.

25. President's List of Distinction/Dean's Lists

Students who have completed first, second, third or fourth year (where "year" is defined as the number of classes or credit hours deemed by the Faculty/School/College to be the normal yearly workload in the student's degree programme) and have achieved a sessional GPA of 3.70 in the last five credits or equivalent credit hours will be placed on the King's President's List of Distinction. The notation "President's List" will appear on the student's transcript.

26. Appeals*26.1 College of Arts and Science

Any students who believe they will suffer undue hardship from the application of any of the academic regulations may appeal for relief to the academic appeals committee of the appropriate Faculty. Students wishing to appeal a decision based on Faculty regulations must complete an "Application for a Waiver of an Academic Regulation" form, available in the Registrar's Office. The arguments and expectations of the petitioner must be clearly stated.

An appeal from a BA or BSc student, arising from a required withdrawal from the Faculty, should be addressed to the Assistant Dean of the appropriate Faculty.

Students who wish to appeal on matters other than those dealt with by College or Faculty regulations should consult with the Faculty or Registrar's Office.

The document "Academic Appeals at Dalhousie University" is available in the Registrar's Office.

26.2 Appeals for Students with Learning Disabilities

Appeals by students with learning disabilities will follow the usual procedures of the relevant Faculty at Dalhousie/King's.

27. Changes in Regulations

In general, any change which affects a currently registered student adversely will not apply to that student. Any student suffering undue hardship from applications of any of the regulations may appeal for relief to the appropriate academic appeals committee as in regulation 26, above.

Co-op degree programmes conform to the requirements for the Advanced Major degree.

The following Departments currently offer Co-op programmes: Biochemistry, Chemistry, Earth Sciences, Marine Biology, Mathematics, Statistics and Computing Science, and Physics. For details of these programmes, consult the entries for the departments and the Cooperative Education in Science section of the current Dalhousie University calendar.

On completion of the required work with proper standing, a certificate will be awarded which has the effect of upgrading the degree to Advanced Major status.

Honours Programmes

Able and ambitious students are urged to enter Honours Programmes. These programmes require a higher quality of work than is required by the other undergraduate programmes of the College (15-credit Major and 20-credit Advanced Major). There are three types of Honours programmes: concentrated, combined, and multidisciplinary.

Applications for admission to Honours programmes must be made to the Departments concerned on forms available in Departments and at the Office of the Registrar. The Registrar may be consulted by those considering Multidisciplinary Honours.

Students should apply before registering for the second year. If application is made later, it may be necessary to make up some work not previously taken.

For each individual student the entire Honours programme, including elective credits, is subject to supervision and approval by the Department or Departments concerned, or in the case of Multidisciplinary Honours, by an interdisciplinary committee.

Note: The last day to apply to an Honours programme is September 19.

Joint Honours: Dalhousie-Mount Saint Vincent

Special arrangements exist under which students may be permitted to pursue an Honours programme jointly at Dalhousie/King's and Mount Saint Vincent Universities. Interested applicants should consult the appropriate Department of their own university at the beginning of the second year. Prospective joint honours students must be accepted by the Honours Departments concerned at both institutions. These Departments supervise the entire programme of study of accepted applicants. Students should be aware that not all classes available for credit at Mount Saint Vincent can be given credit at Dalhousie/King's and vice versa. In order for students to obtain a joint honours degree, they must satisfy all requirements of both institutions.

Individual Programmes

In cases where students feel that their academic needs are not satisfied under the above requirements, individual programmes may be submitted to the Student Affairs Committee of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences or to the Curriculum Committee of the Faculty of Science. The Dean shall act as advisor for such students.

College of Arts and Science Subject Groupings

1.1 Subject Groupings

The various subjects in which instruction is offered are grouped as follows:

1.1.1 Languages and Humanities:

Classics, Comparative Literature, Comparative Religion, English, Foundation Year Programme, French, German, Greek, History, Latin, Music, Philosophy, Russian, Spanish, Theatre and Women's Studies.

1.1.2 Social Sciences:

Canadian Studies, Economics, Education, Foundation Year Programme, History, International Development Studies, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology and Social Anthropology, and Women's Studies.

1.1.3 Life Sciences and Physical Sciences:

Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Computing Science, Earth Sciences, Economics, Engineering, Mathematics, Microbiology, Neuroscience, Oceanography, Physics, Psychology, Science and Statistics.

Please note:

- (1) In cases where a subject is listed in more than one of the groupings, any credit taken in that subject may be used to satisfy only one of the grouping requirements. A second credit in the same subject cannot be used to satisfy another subject grouping requirement. The exceptions are the Dalhousie Integrated Science Programme and King's Foundation Year Programme. Foundation Year Programme (KING 1000.24, 1100.18) satisfies the Humanities/Language and Social Science groupings; Foundation Year students must take a full credit in a single Life/Physical Sciences subject to complete the subject grouping requirement. The Dalhousie Integrated Science Programme (SCIE 1500.30) satisfies the Science and Social Science requirements; students must take a full credit in a single languages/humanities subject to complete the subject grouping requirement.
- (2) The subject groupings requirement should normally be completed within the first ten (10) credits.

1.2.1 Writing Class

One of the five classes chosen in first year must be selected from a list of classes in which written work is considered frequently and in detail.

These Writing Classes are approved by the Writing Across the Curriculum Committee and are listed below:

CHEM 1000.06R;
CLAS 1000.06, 1010.06, 1100.06;
COMR 1301.06;
ENGL1000.06;
Foundation Year Programme;
GERM 1000.06,1050.06;
HIST 1400.06;
MUSC 1010.06;
PHIL 1010.06;
POLI 1103.06;
RUSS 2051.03/2052.03 (both RUSS 2051.03 and 2052.03 must be successfully completed in order to satisfy the Writing Requirement);
SCIE 1500.30;
THEA 1000.06

The Writing Class may also be used to satisfy one of the subject groupings.

Classes which satisfy the Writing Requirement are identified in the course descriptions in the Dalhousie calendar. Please note that classes identified as "Writing Intensive" do not satisfy the Writing Requirement.

1.2.2 Mathematics Requirement

In order to qualify for a BSc degree candidates are required to complete successfully at least one full University credit in Mathematics other than MATH 1001.03/1002.03, MATH 1110.03/1120.03. A class taken to satisfy this requirement cannot also satisfy the requirement of a class from Section 1.1.3, above.

Students may also satisfy this requirement by completing the Dalhousie Integrated Science Programme (SCIE 1500.30) or by passing the test which is administered by the Department of Mathematics, Statistics & Computing Science. Such students must nevertheless complete 15 or 20 credits in order to graduate.

1.2.3 Language Class

Students should consider becoming fluent in French. BA students are required to obtain one credit from the following language classes:

CLAS 1700.06,1800.06;
FREN 1000.06, 1005.06, 1006.06, 1010.06, 1011.06, 1045.06, 1060.06, or any second year French class;
GERM 1000.06, 1010.06, 1050.06, 1060.06;
RUSS 1000.06, 1050.06;
SPAN 1020.06R, 2000.03/2010.03 (Both SPAN 2000.03 and 2010.03 must be successfully completed in order to satisfy the Language Requirement.

For students with advanced language skills, upper-level language classes may be substituted. Consult the Office of the Registrar if you require further information. A class taken to satisfy the language requirement cannot also satisfy the requirement of a class from Section 1.1.1.

Students may satisfy this requirement by passing one of the tests administered by the language departments. Such students must nevertheless complete 15 or 20 credits in order to graduate.

BA students who choose to major in Economics, International Development Studies, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology or Sociology and Social Anthropology may substitute for a language class at least one full credit in Mathematics or Statistics, other than MATH 1001.03/1002.03 or MATH 1110.03/1120.03, to meet this requirement; or they may meet it by passing the test administered by the department of Mathematics, Statistics & Computing Science.

A class taken to satisfy this requirement cannot also satisfy the requirement of a class from Section 1.1.3.

Students who have not completed their first year but wish to enrol for further study must first complete the first year requirements.

1.2.4 Cross-listed Classes

Please note that cross-listed classes will count as one subject only for the purpose of satisfying degree requirements: e.g., ECON 2260.03 cross-listed with MATH 2060.03 may count either as part of the Mathematics requirement or as part of a major in Economics, but not both.

1.2.5 Arts and Science Electives

Students may choose electives from any of the classes listed by departments offering major or honours programmes in the College of Arts and Science. In addition up to three credits may be obtained from the following:

- (a) ARCH 1000.06R.
- (b) Education Foundation Offerings (classes with numbers below 4400); classes numbered 4400 and above are not available as Arts and Science electives.
- (c) Classes in Engineering and Oceanography. The restriction on Engineering electives does not apply to students in the Diploma in Engineering Programme who combine their studies with a programme leading to a BA or BSc in the College of Arts and Science. Please note: King's students are not eligible to take the Diploma in Engineering programme.
- (d) Classes in Music. Note: Music classes 1000.06, 1001.03, 1002.03, 2007.06, 2008.06, 2010.06, 2011.06, 2012.06, 2013.06, 2021.06, 2087.06 and 3064.03 are available as normal electives, but other classes in Music may be taken by special permission of the Department of Music.
- (e) The following approved classes from other faculties and institutions: all Commerce classes and Health Education 4412.03.

Academic Regulations, School of Journalism

Students registered at the University of King's College as candidates for BJ (Hons) and BJ degrees are subject to the Academic Regulations, School of Journalism, and not to the Academic Regulations of the College of Arts and Science. However, students taking classes in the College of Arts and Science (including the King's Foundation Year Programme and courses offered in the King's Contemporary Studies Programme) must conform to the Academic Regulations of the College of Arts and Science with regard to those classes; likewise for classes taken with permission of the Director in Faculties and Schools other than Arts, Social Sciences and Science at Dalhousie University.

Changes in the Academic Regulations of the School of Journalism normally become effective upon publication in the Calendar. Journalism students are subject to changes in regulations and classes made after their first registration unless specifically excused by the School of Journalism. All enquiries about the Regulations hereunder should be made to the Registrar.

Students suffering any hardship as a result of the application of any of the regulations hereunder may appeal for relief through the Registrar to the Journalism Studies Committee.

1. Class Selection

1.1 Admission to Classes

No student shall be admitted to a class until he or she has satisfied the regulations regarding entrance and complied with the University Regulations.

1.2 Numbering of Classes

Classes are numbered to indicate their general level. Those in the 1000 series are introductory classes; classes in the 2000, 3000 and 4000 series are usually first available to BJ (Hons) students in the second, third and fourth years respectively, and those in the 5000 series to BJ students. Classes with numbers below 1000 normally do not carry credit.

All classes offered by the School of Journalism have one of the letters "A," "B" or "R" following the class number. The letters A and B denote classes given in the first and second term respectively. Classes marked A/B may be offered in both the Fall and the Winter term. The letter R denotes a class spread over both terms (i.e., given for the full academic year, September to April). Every class number also has a decimal designation, which refers to the credit value of the course, .03 signifying a half-credit class, .06, a full credit, .09, one and a-half credits, and so on.

1.3 Academic Advice

Students in Journalism degree programmes are required to submit, at the end of their first year in the case of BJ (Hons) students, or at the end of their first term in the case of BJ students, a proposal for a programme of study to be followed in completing their degree. The Director will advise each student on his or her proposed programme, and will approve, with changes where necessary, each student's plan. Any subsequent changes in a student's programme will require the approval of the Director.

1.4 Workload

Five full credits (or five and a half, in some years) shall be regarded as constituting a normal year's work for a BJ (Hons) student, and six full credits for a BJ student. (See Degree Requirements for BJ (Hons) and BJ degree programmes, below.) Applications from students who have strong reason for wishing to take an overload will be considered by the Director. Such permission will not normally be granted to any student in his or her first year of study, or to any student who, in the preceding academic year, has failed any class or had two or more class grades below B-. Normally the workload will not exceed six classes per term.

1.5 Duration of Studies

Students in a Bachelor of Journalism (Honours) programme normally will complete their studies within four years of first registration. All requirements for the degree must be completed within ten years of first registration. Students in the Bachelor of Journalism programme normally complete their studies within one calendar year of first registration.

1.6 Required for Graduation

In order to qualify for graduation, all students must have completed the required number of Journalism classes, the compulsory non-credit Journalism requirements, and, in the case of BJ (Hons) students, the Honours Requirement and the required number of Arts and Sciences credits as stipulated by the School of Journalism (see Degree Requirements, below).

2. Class Changes and Withdrawal

2.1 Class Changes

Class changes will normally be completed during the first two weeks of classes in each term. The last dates for adding and dropping A, B and R classes without academic penalty are published in the "Schedule of Academic Dates" at the front of this Calendar. Please note: earlier deadlines for dropping classes apply to fourth-year BJ (Hons) and BJ students. Students may not withdraw from classes after the deadlines listed in the "Schedule of Academic Dates." After these dates all classes for which a student is registered will be recorded.

To add or delete a class, students must complete an Add/Drop form, available from the Registrar's Office; the class change must be approved by the faculty member concerned. No change is effective until a completed Add/Drop form is received by the Registrar's Office. Please note that dropping or changing classes may affect a student's eligibility for Student Aid.

2.2 Withdrawal

Non-attendance, by itself, does not constitute withdrawal.

Withdrawal is not effective until notification is received by the Office of the Registrar and the Director of the School of Journalism. A registered student who wishes to withdraw from the School of Journalism must write to the Director of the School as well as to the Registrar at King's explaining his or her circumstances. A student should not discontinue attendance at any class until his or her application has been approved. A student proposing withdrawal normally will be invited to discuss his or her situation with the Director of the School of Journalism, with the Registrar at the University of King's College and, where appropriate, with the Director of the Foundation Year Programme.

Students who have registered are responsible for fees. Under exceptional circumstances, those who withdraw from the University may be entitled to refunds of fees; see "Changes, Refunds and Withdrawals" in the "Fees" section of this Calendar.

3. Credit

3.1 Gaining Credit

A credit towards a degree is earned in a full-credit class, a class in which typically there is a minimum of two to three lecture hours weekly during the regular (September to April) academic year. To gain credit towards the BJ (Hons) or BJ degree, a student must meet the requirements relevant to that degree and must appear at all examinations, prepare such essays, exercises, assignments, reports, etc. as may be prescribed.

Credits may be obtained for university-level studies:

- normally during the regular academic year in classes offered by the School of Journalism at King's or in the College of Arts and Science at Dalhousie/King's; or, exceptionally
- by transfer from other universities attended prior to entrance to the University of King's College;
- in Faculties of Dalhousie other than the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences or the Faculty of Science;

- at institutions other than King's or Dalhousie while registered at King's; or
- during a summer session.

A Letter of Permission is required if students wish to obtain credits in a summer session or at an institution other than Dalhousie or King's (see Regulation 8.1, below).

3.2 Credit Contingent on Settling Debts to the University

To gain credit a student must settle all obligations to the University with respect to tuition and residence fees, bookstore debts, library fines, etc. (not later than April 30 for graduation at May Encaenia).

4. Assessment

4.1 Method of Assessment

In determining pass lists, the standings attained in prescribed class exercises, in field work, workshops, and in various examinations may be taken into consideration by an instructor. Each instructor must ensure that students are informed of the method of evaluation to be used in a class within two weeks of the first meeting of the class. Within four weeks after the beginning of each term, class outlines will be placed on file in the School of Journalism.

4.2 Examinations and Tests

Periods of approximately three weeks in the spring and one and one-half weeks in December are set aside for the scheduling by the Registrar of formal written examinations. Instructors wishing to have an examination scheduled by the Registrar for a class must so inform the Registrar at the beginning of the third week of classes in the fall and winter terms. The School of Journalism will advise the Registrar, on request, of examinations to be scheduled by the Registrar. Instructors may also arrange their own examinations at a time and place of their choosing (including the formal examination periods), but with the understanding that in cases of conflict of examinations for an individual student, the Registrar's examination schedule takes priority. BJ (Hons) students taking classes in the College of Arts and Science should consult that College's Academic Regulation 18.2, above; for such students, no tests or examinations in a Journalism class shall be held during the period between the end of classes and the beginning of the official examination period.

4.3 Submission of Grades

On completion of a class, instructors in the School of Journalism are required to submit grades to the Registrar, such grades to be based on the instructor's evaluation of the academic performance of the students in the class in question. Christmas grades are normally submitted in all full-year classes.

4.4 Incomplete

Each student is expected to complete class work by the prescribed deadlines. Only in special circumstances (e.g., the death of a close relative) may an instructor extend such deadlines. Incomplete work in a class must be completed by February 1 for first-term ("A") classes and June 1 for second-term or full year ("B" or "R") classes.

The Registrar will not accept a late clearance of INC or late grade changes other than those due to errors. If there are exceptional circumstances, an appeal should be made through the Director of the School to the Journalism Studies Committee. A grade of INC counts in the GPA as 0.00: it is a failing grade.

4.5 Correction of Errors in Recorded Grades

Students must request correction in the calculation or recording of final grades by March 1 for first-term grades and July 1 for second-term grades.

4.6 Reassessment of a Grade

Students who have questions about final grades that have been assigned are encouraged to discuss them with the class instructor. In addition, students may consult the Director of the School. If their concerns cannot be resolved, students may also use the following formal process for the re-assessment of a final grade.

A student who wishes to have a final grade reassessed should make a written request to the Registrar and pay the reassessment fee of $25.00. The Registrar will direct the request to the Director of the School of Journalism, who will ensure that the reassessment is carried out and reported to the Registrar. The student will be notified by the Registrar of the outcome of the reassessment. If the reassessment results in the assignment of a grade that is different (higher or lower) from the original one, the new grade will replace the original one.

Written applications for reassessment must be made by March 1 for first-term grades, June 1 for second-term grades.

4.7 Special Arrangements for Examinations, Tests and Assignments

At the discretion of the instructor, alternate arrangements for examinations, tests, or the completion of assignments may be made for students who are ill, or in other exceptional circumstances.

Where illness is involved, a certificate from the student's physician will be required. Students should contact their physician at the time they are ill and should submit the medical certificate to their instructor as soon thereafter as possible. Such certificates will not normally be accepted after a lapse of more than one week from the examination or assignment completion date. For exceptional circumstances other than illness, appropriate documentation, depending on the situation, will be required.

Requests for alternate arrangements should be made to the instructor in all cases. The deadline for changing a grade of ILL is February 1 for "A" classes and June 1 for "B" and "R" classes. Requests to change grades after these deadline must be submitted in writing through the Registrar to the Journalism Studies Committee.

5. Academic Standing

5.1 Grade Definitions

A letter-grade system is used to evaluate performance. Grades in the ranges of A, B, C, D and P are passing grades. F indicates failure. The grade of INC (incomplete) is a non-passing grade. The grade of W (withdrawal after deadline) is neutral. The grade of ILL (assigned for compassionate reasons or illness) is neutral. Appropriate documentation is required for a student to be awarded a grade of ILL. See regulation 4.7, above.

Table 5.1

Grade	Grade Points
A+	4.30
A	4.00
A-	3.70
B+	3.30
B	3.00
B-	2.70
C+	2.30
C	2.00
C-	1.70
D	1.00
F	0.00
INC (incomplete)	0.00
W (withdrew after deadline)	Neutral, and after no credit obtained
P (pass)	Neutral, and no credit obtained
ILL (compassionate reasons/illness)	Neutral, and no credit obtained

5.2 Grade Point Average (GPA)

The Grade Point Average (GPA) is calculated by summing the values obtained by multiplying the credit points obtained in each class in accordance with the following scale by the number of credit hours of each class, then dividing by the total credit hours attempted. A sessional GPA includes only those classes attempted in the regular session; the cumulative GPA includes all classes attempted while registered for the current degree or carried forward from a previous degree.

5.3 Grade Points on Admission *

Transfer credits on admission count as credits without grade points; i.e., they are neutral in the calculation of the GPA.

5.4 Grade Points on Letter of Permission

The grade earned in a class taken at another institution on a Letter of Permission is recorded and the appropriate Dalhousie/King's grade points are assigned. For institutions which do not use letter grades, the Registrar's Office translates the grade into a Dalhousie/King's grade and assigns the corresponding grade points.

5.5 Repeating Classes for which a Passing Grade has been Awarded

With the permission of the Faculty of the School of Journalism, a student may repeat any class for which a passing grade has previously been awarded, provided the class is offered again. The original passing grade will nevertheless remain on the transcript, and a second entry will be recorded with the new grade and the notation "repeated class." No additional credit will be given for such a repeated class, but both grades will be included in the calculation of the sessional and cumulative GPA.

6. Requirements for Continuing/Academic Dismissal

6.1 BJ (Hons) Programme

In order to be assured of proceeding from first to second year in a BJ (Hons) programme, students must attain a grade of at least B- in JOUR 1001.06 and an overall GPA of at least 2.70 in the first year, as well as pass the News Seminar Requirement. In order to be assured of proceeding from second to third year in the BJ (Hons) programme, students must attain at least a B- in JOUR 2001.06 and an overall cumulative GPA of at least 2.70 by the end of the second year. In their third year, students must attain a sessional GPA of 2.70 or better in Journalism classes and a cumulative GPA of 2.70 overall in order to be assured of proceeding to the fourth year. In all cases, students must attain a grade of "C" or better in required Journalism classes in order to count those classes toward their degree.

6.2 BJ Programme

Students in the BJ programme must achieve a GPA of 2.70 or better at the end of the first term in order to be assured of maintaining their places for the second term.

6.3 Academic Dismissal Consequent upon Unsatisfactory Performance

When the work of a student becomes unsatisfactory his or her case will be discussed by the Faculty of the School of Journalism, which may require him or her to withdraw from the class or classes concerned, and to be excluded from the relevant examinations. Alternatively, the Faculty may advise the student to withdraw temporarily from the University, or to reduce his or her class load.

6.4 Readmission after Academic Dismissal

A student who has been required to withdraw from the School of Journalism for academic reasons may apply for readmission after at least one year. Students applying for readmission after an academic dismissal are required to submit a completed application form, samples of journalism work done since academic dismissal from the School of Journalism, as well as official transcripts of any academic work undertaken since the academic dismissal from the School of Journalism.

6.5 Right of Appeal

Students who fail to meet the requirements for continuing in Journalism programmes will be so notified by the Director of the School of Journalism; the Director will also inform them of their right of appeal. Such appeals are made through the Registrar to the Faculty of the University, which can appoint an ad hoc Journalism Appeals Committee to consider written appeals by students. The deadline for such appeals is June 1 of each year.

7. Graduation Standing

7.1 BJ (Hons) First-Class Honours

In order to graduate from the BJ (Hons) degree programme with first-class honours, a student must obtain a cumulative GPA of at least 3.70 in classes taken beyond the first five credits. All classes, including repeated classes and classes for which non-passing grades were obtained, are included.

7.2 BJ with Distinction

In order to graduate from the BJ programme with distinction, a student must obtain a cumulative GPA of at least 3.70. All classes taken, including repeated classes and classes for which non-passing grades were obtained, are included.

8. Classes Taken at Other Universities

8.1 Letter of Permission

A student who wishes to take classes at another institution to be counted for credit towards a Journalism degree must obtain approval in advance on a form available from the Registrar, and provide a full description of the classes offered at the other institution. A Letter of Permission will be provided if approval for the classes is given by the Director of the School of Journalism.

Normally students may count no more than one full credit at another institution towards the Journalism course requirements of the BJ (Hons) or the BJ degree.

8.2 Regular Session

A student wishing to take classes at an institution other than Dalhousie during the Regular (September-April) session while registered in the School of Journalism must obtain a Letter of Permission.

The class fee charged by the other institution will be paid by the student. If the student is registered as a part-time student in the School of Journalism, the fee is entirely the student's responsibility. If the student is registered as a full-time Journalism student and taking an approved class at an institution other than Dalhousie during the Regular (September-April) session, the University of King's College will refund the student up to the equivalent of 20% of the appropriate full-time Journalism tuition fee for one full credit, and up to 10% of the appropriate full-time Journalism tuition fee for one-half credit. Any fee charged by the other university over and above these amounts will be the responsibility of the student.

8.3 Spring/Summer Sessions

Students wishing to take classes during the Spring or Summer session to be counted towards a Journalism degree must obtain a Letter of Permission.

Up to two credits in Spring/Summer sessions classes may be accepted towards the requirements for a degree. Such classes must have been passed at an adequate level and normally can be accepted only if they are closely equivalent to classes offered during the Regular session through the joint Dalhousie/King's College of Arts and Science or the School of Journalism.

It is the student's responsibility to make all necessary arrangements with the receiving university. Students are responsible for all fees associated with summer session courses.

8.4 Maximum Workload Spring/Summer Sessions

Normally no student may take classes totalling more than one full credit in any one Spring or Summer session. Not more than two full credits can be obtained during the summer in any one academic year.

The Director will normally grant exceptions for credits obtained at a university which operates a trimester system or its equivalent.

9. King's/Mount Saint Vincent Agreement

As a result of an agreement between the School of Journalism and the Public Relations

Department at Mount Saint Vincent University, Journalism students at King's and students in Public Relations at MSVU may take selected courses from the other institution for application to their home degree. Interested applicants should consult their respective departments for details of classes available, and must have the permission of their respective directors of studies. In all cases, enrollment will depend upon availability of space, and regulations governing Letter of Permission credits, 8.1 and 8.2, above, will apply.

10. Transfer Students

10.1 Transfer into BJ (Hons) programme

The School of Journalism welcomes applications for transfer into a BJ (Hons) programme. Provided that a student has successfully completed the Foundation Year Programme (or a programme at another university judged by the Journalism Admissions Committee to be equivalent to the Foundation Year Programme), and with a sufficiently high standing, he or she may apply to transfer into a BJ (Hons) programme. All such transfers are to be made only as space is available, as determined by the limited enrollment policy of the University.

Students transferring into the second year (or in exceptional cases, into the third year) of a BJ (Hons) programme will generally have had some journalism education or experience equivalent to journalism instruction and experience provided in the first year (or, if transferring into the third year, in the first and second years) of the programme. Students transferring into the second year of the BJ (Hons) programme who have not completed a full-credit equivalent to JOUR 1001.06R, Introduction to Journalism, will be required to complete JOUR 1001.06R during their first year at King's.

A student from another college or university who is not eligible for readmission to that college or university will not be admitted to the University of King's College.

10.2 Transfer Credits

Transfer credits may be granted for classes completed at a recognized university or equivalent institution of higher learning to classes offered at Dalhousie/King's and appropriate to a student's academic programme in the School of Journalism.

Transfer students are required to submit an official transcript of final marks from the previous university. Students applying from universities outside of Nova Scotia must also supply course descriptions; these may be photocopied from the appropriate University calendar. Upon receipt of the final transcript and course descriptions, the Registrar's Office will advise transfer students who have been admitted to the School of Journalism of the number of credits which may be transferred into the BJ (Hons) programme.

Transfer credits granted upon admission count as credits without grade points; i.e., they are neutral in the calculation of the GPA.

10.3 No Transfer Credits

- No transfer credit will be given for any work used as the basis for admission.
- No transfer credit will be granted for any class in which a final mark of less than C (or the equivalent in Dalhousie/King's terms) was obtained.
- Credits that are more than ten (10) years old may not be used to fulfill degree requirements unless a waiver is granted.
- No classes taken at another institution will be counted towards fulfilling the Journalism course requirements in the BJ (Hons) degree programme without specific approval from the Faculty of the School of Journalism.
- No credit will be given for any classes taken at another university while a student is not in good standing at Dalhousie/King's.

10.4 Advanced Placement

Students possessing advanced knowledge of a subject will be encouraged to begin their studies in that subject at a level appropriate to their knowledge, as determined by the School of Journalism. However, such students must substitute for the exempted classes an equal number of other classes, not necessarily in the same subjects (i.e., they must complete at the University the full number of credits required for a BJ (Hons) or BJ degree). The programme of studies of all transfer students will be subject to approval by the Director.

Degree Requirements, School of Journalism

Today's journalists need to be well informed and they need to know how to think. We expect students of the School of Journalism to gain a sound basic education in the arts and social sciences through the 11 elective credits they take in the Bachelor of Journalism (Honours) degree, or in the undergraduate degree they take before enrolling in the Bachelor of Journalism degree. We encourage students to take courses in the natural sciences, and we welcome applications for the one-year BJ programme from students with science degrees. We will also consider applications from students with degrees in commerce, applied science, and other disciplines.

In its course offerings, the School aims to enable students to attain and demonstrate the following qualifications before graduating from the University of King's College, in either the BJ (Hons) or the BJ programme:

- They should be familiar with the news of the day and of the recent past.
- They should write correct English.
- They should be able to tell a story. Students who specialize in broadcast journalism should be able to perform effectively, too.
- They should have the foundations of good news judgment.
- They should know how to interview.
- They should be able to take accurate notes.
- They should be skilled at finding information.
- They should know the basics of newswriting for print and broadcast journalism.
- They should be able to type, and they should know the basics of at least one word-processing programme.
- They should know how to access computerized data bases and how to use E-mail and the Internet.
- They should know how to use a library and other sources of information.
- They should have a basic knowledge of production in print or broadcast media.
- They should know the elements of media law.
- They should have developed some basic principles of journalism ethics.
- They should know in outline the history of journalism and the way in which the news media are organized in Canada. They should be familiar with some of the major news media issues of the day.
- They should have been introduced to examples of the best journalism in all news media.

We encourage students to acquire the ability to function as journalists in both official languages. Without the ability to comprehend spoken and written French, they will not be able to work in Ottawa or in Quebec, and they will have less chance of being hired by a news organization that may want to be able to assign them to Ottawa or Quebec. Many opportunities to develop French language skills are available in Halifax, ranging from university credit courses and intensive immersion programmes to weekly conversational classes. The School of Journalism does not offer French instruction.

Classes Offered

Non-Credit Classes

JOUR 0150.00R News Seminar: This non-credit requirement for first-year BJ (Hons) students is designed to develop and test skills in following the news as reported through print and broadcast media.

JOUR 0310.00A/0510.00A Media Law: This non-credit requirement for third-year BJ (Hons) students and those in the one-year programme is an introduction to media law and other legal issues of particular concern to journalists.

JOUR 0455.00A/0466.00A/0555.00A/0566.00A Internship: All fourth-year BJ (Hons) and BJ students undertake a four-week print or broadcast internship at an approved news media outlet.

Credit Classes

JOUR 1001.06R Introduction to Journalism: Basic Newswriting & Reporting: What is journalism? What is news? What makes a good story? How do journalists tell their stories in the different news media (particularly newspapers and radio)? This is a practical course, with an emphasis on reporting and newswriting. The day begins with a news quiz and discussion, followed by the class. The afternoons are devoted to class and outside assignments.

JOUR 2001.06R Reporting Techniques: This class will focus on the essential skills reporters need to produce excellent work. It will include methods of finding information - using the telephone, the library and the computer, digging beneath the surface, and analyzing the evidence. There will be special emphasis on using interviews in gathering and presenting the news. The course includes weekly assignments, some of which will be published in Second Press, and a daily news digest.

JOUR 3120.03B/5120.03A History and Ethics of Journalism: An examination of how various ethical codes and conventions developed in the history of journalism, from the earliest days of licensing and official censorship to the modern journalistic world of instant communications. What do we mean by freedom of the press, objectivity, or the social responsibility of the media? Students will also consider how ethical principles such as truth, justice, humaneness, freedom and responsibility apply to the practice of journalism. How should we judge journalistic performance in light of these ethical principles? Is journalism living up to its goals? The course also explores the journalist's role in society. It looks critically at the influence of public relations and propaganda.

JOUR 3311.03A/5311.03A Newspaper Writing & Reporting: An intensive course in reporting for a newspaper. The School of Journalism produces the community newspaper, North End News, for readers in a north-end Halifax neighbourhood. Students will learn, in the classroom and in the field, how to be real reporters—generating assignments, following up on leads, interviewing, researching and so on—and will get a chance to write everything from news to sports, business, arts and lifestyle features.

JOUR 3312.03B/5312.03A Print Newsroom: This class has three interrelated purposes: to prepare students for their work in the Print Production Workshop; to teach them the fundamentals of newspaper editing and organization; and to get them thinking about the future of the print media. The course will include workshops in newspaper pagination, copy editing, design, layout and photojournalism, as well as lectures and seminars on the newspaper as an organization and as a business. In addition, all students in the course will serve as reporters for North End News, participating in story meetings and taking on weekly reporting assignments.

JOUR 3601.06R Broadcast Reporting: An intensive course in news writing and reporting, stressing skills particular to radio and television, such as interviewing for tape, writing for the ear, and on-air performance. Students produce a daily 10-minute newscast for the campus/ community radio station, CKDU/FM, and are assigned weekly voice-and-clip news reports.

JOUR 4001.03R Honours Seminar: This half-credit class, which runs all year, fulfills the Honours Requirement for BJ (Hons) students. Each student will choose a news media topic for publication in the King's Journalism Review.

JOUR 4302.03B/5302.03B Opinion Writing: News is written to inform; comment, to persuade. The goal of this course is to teach students how to write persuasive editorials and columns.

JOUR 4330.03B/5330.03B Literary Journalism: Journalism is storytelling. The best storytelling in journalism—the work, for example, of Norman Mailer, Tom Wolfe, Joan Didion, George Orwell, Rebecca West, Lillian Ross, Ernest Hemingway, Hunter Thompson, Truman Capote, Mary McCarthy, John McPhee, Tracy Kidder, Joseph Mitchell and others now making their reputations—takes its rightful place in the literary canon alongside the best novels, short stories, plays and poetry. Reading this great journalism is pleasurable and helps develop one's writing and reporting. The School publishes an anthology of stories written for this course.

JOUR 4331.03B/5331.03B Investigative Reporting: Investigative journalism, enterprise reporting, or just plain muck-raking: whatever the name, it is the art of digging up the facts needed to produce in-depth, informative news stories and features. This course will develop the skills needed to produce better-researched stories for deadline and longer-term investigative projects. Students will learn how to use court records, land registries, computer databases and other sources of information while researching a specified topic.

JOUR 4332.03B/5332.03B Science and Environmental Reporting: An introduction to the broad field of science writing with an emphasis on environmental issues.

JOUR 4411.03A/5411.03A Magazine Writing: This class explores how to generate story ideas, and the researching, writing and marketing of magazine articles. Specific topics include the outline and query, interviewing techniques, and story structure. Students will be required to write a feature article of 2000-3000 words geared to a general interest magazine. Magazine markets and freelance survival skills will be examined.

JOUR 4412.03B/5412.03B Magazine Editing: The primary focus of this class is on developing editing and production skills, and students will be exposed to some of the fundamentals of small magazine publishing such as finances, advertising, distribution and marketing. Students in this workshop-style class will learn how to produce a magazine, and then actually produce one. The majority of the feature stories for the magazine will already have been written by students in JOUR 4411.03/5411.03, but students in this class will be expected to write topical short pieces and perhaps even a feature or two. Students wishing to take this course must have the instructor's permission: they will normally have completed JOUR 4411.03/5411.03 as well as JOUR 3312.03/5312.03, or be familiar with the writing, design and editing skills taught in those classes.

JOUR 4413.03A/B/5413.03A/B Online Editing: Online journalism isn't simply print journalism transferred to the computer screen. We begin with the assumption that, while this new and emerging journalistic form will require many of the same reporting skills as other media, those needed to convey that information online successfully will be different (just as, for example, television differs from newspaper in the presentation skills required). In this class, we will look briefly at some of the models being developed by commercial publishers and other information providers as way of analyzing what works and what doesn't in online publications. Our hands-on focus will be on learning basic skills—how to prepare HTML documents and produce World Wide Web pages—and then using those skills as editors for NovaNewsNet, our daily electronic WWW publication.

JOUR 4500.12A/5500.09B Print Production Workshop: Students in this class will be responsible for editing and producing North End News, a weekly community newspaper for residents of the north end of Halifax. Students will also be involved in producing one or two issues of Tidings, the University's alumni magazine, or another magazine production project, as part of the workshop.

JOUR 4520.03B/5520.03B Photojournalism: For students who know the basics of taking photographs and darkroom work and want to learn to tell stories through pictures.

JOUR 4530.03B/5530.03B Copy Editing: Instruction focusses on the skills copy editors need to be able to perform the most basic and essential of their tasks: handling stories. In this class, students will edit—on paper and on screen—real stories selected for their potential as well as their problems, working on them for tightness, polish, accuracy, and style. The goal is to help students develop the copy editor's double vision—the ability to see the story as a whole and, line by line, as a collection of parts; to see, as it were, both the forest and the trees. The course is designed not only for students who want to become copy editors, but equally for students who want to become better editors of their own copy.

JOUR 4600.12A/5600.09B Broadcast News Workshop: An intensive course in which students produce a weekly radio current affairs magazine programme, KNG, and a weekly half-hour TV magazine programme, Halifax This Week. In television, students will produce and perform several field reports and studio interviews, with one-on-one instruction in the field, in the studio, and in the editing room. In radio, students will rotate in performing every function in the production of a magazine show, including field reporting, hosting and studio interviewing, assignment, line-up, continuity writing, and studio direction.

JOUR 4711.03B/5711.03B Radio Documentaries: This class offers a thorough grounding in the radio documentary, with emphasis on the field documentary, heard in the best news and current affairs programming. Classes will be spent in critical listening to, and analysis of, professional documentaries and student work. Over the term, each student will record, write, produce and package two individual documentaries employing a variety of techniques and styles.

JOUR 4898.03B/5898.03B Television Documentaries: Students examine the craft of creating visual documentaries: the development of setting, mood, character, and story line. Television pieces will be shot and edited professionally; the finished product will be broadcast.

JOUR 5201.03A Journalism Research/Interviewing: Journalism research will focus on the essential skills journalists need to produce excellent work. It will include methods of finding facts and sources, digging below the surface, and analyzing the evidence. There will be special emphasis on interviewing as a method in gathering and presenting the news.

JOUR 5414.03A Deadline Reporting: Deadline Journalism is a hands-on workshop all BJ students must take during the fall term. Essentially, the class is about what it's called. We do daily deadline journalism. Students will be divided into five teams, one for each weekday. Each team will be responsible each week for producing one day's edition of Morning Line, our local e-mail digest, and two or three news reports for NovaNewsNet, our World Wide Web electronic newspaper. Responsibility for preparing the news reports will rotate within each team so that everyone will get two or three opportunities during the term to produce a news story on deadline. The only classroom sessions in this course will be held during the three-week BJ Introductory Skills Training Session. During the term, students should expect to spend one morning (from 7-9 a.m.) each week working on Morning Line and most of the rest of the assigned day two or three times during the term preparing the daily deadline assignment.

JOUR 5601.03A Broadcast Writing and Reporting: An intensive course in broadcast news writing and reporting which emphasizes skills particular to radio and television, such as interviewing for tape, writing for the ear, and on-air performance. Students produce a daily 10-minute newscast for the campus/community radio station, CKDU-FM, and are assigned weekly voice-and-clip news reports.

JOUR 5620.03A Broadcast Current Affairs: Students planning to concentrate in broadcast journalism should take this class. It concentrates on the various ways radio and television journalism is practised, aside from straight news reporting: current affairs programming, including studio interviewing and production, panels, longer-format uses of script and tape. Students receive class and individual instruction in on-air performance. They will also receive an introduction to television reporting and each student will shoot one TV report and produce another.

Introduction

The University of King's College, in association with Dalhousie University, offers a special Foundation Year Programme in the first year of undergraduate studies leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Journalism (Honours). First offered in 1972/73, the Programme has proved a successful way of providing an integrated and interdisciplinary course for first-year students. Approved by the Dalhousie Senate as a permanent part of the offerings of the Dalhousie/King's joint College of Arts and Science, the Programme is open only to students registered at King's. Students taking the Programme normally will be registered in a Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, or Bachelor of Journalism (Honours) degree programme. The Foundation Year Programme is normally taken as a four-credit class, but a three-credit version is also available.

In the Foundation Year Programme, subjects such as literature, political theory, philosophy, religion, economics, natural science, music and the visual arts are treated together in an integrated manner which approaches them as interdependent elements in the development of the West. We study the history of western culture through some of its basic works: works of philosophy, literature, religion, art, science and social theory. To gain an understanding of these works is to acquire a foundation for further studies in the humanities and social sciences; to gain an understanding of the historical development of the West is to have a basis for a thoughtful relation to it. For science students, the Foundation Year Programme offers an opportunity to broaden their education by considering the development of other forms of thought.

The form of teaching in the Foundation Year Programme is designed to meet the special needs of students in their first year of university. Enrolment is limited to 235; the amount of time spent in small group tutorials permits close attention to be paid to each student's development. The very favourable ratio of staff to students, the tutorial system, and the concentration of the student's work within an integrated and structured programme, all permit students to consider a wide range of ideas; these factors also encourage students to analyze, focus and evaluate ideas of their own. Moreover, the exposure to works belonging to many different disciplines, and the large number of departments recognizing the Programme as a substitute for their introductory class, give Foundation Year Programme students both a wider experience from which to judge their interests and a wider range of options for second-year study.

The instructors in the Programme are specialists in a wide variety of university subjects. All take the view, however, that first-year study at university can profitably be devoted to attempts to integrate knowledge and understanding, rather than to premature specialization in particular subjects.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements are those applying to BA, BSc and BJ (Hons) programme; see "Admissions," above.

Course Designation, Lecture and Tutorial Hours

KING 1000.24 (4 credits):

Lectures: MWThF 9:35 a.m.-11:25 a.m.

Tutorials: Four additional hours (MWThF), at 11:35-12:25 or 12:35-1:25 or 1:35-2:35

KING 1100.18R (3 credits):

Lectures: MWF 9:35 a.m.-11:25 a.m.

Tutorials: Three additional hours (MWF) at 11:35-12:25 or 12:35-1:25 or 1:35-2:35

Normally students taking KING 1000.24 will be registered in BA or BJ (Hons) degree programmes, and students taking KING 1100.18 will be in BSc programmes; exceptions may be made. It is not possible to be enrolled in only part of the Programme.

The Lecture/Tutorial System:

Each week students attend lectures for a total of eight hours (in KING 1000.24) or six hours (in KING 1100.18). After the two-hour lecture on the designated mornings—in which all Foundation Year Programme students are together—the class divides up into assigned tutorials, in which about fifteen students meet with a member of the teaching staff to discuss the reading and lecture of the day. Tutorials are an integral aspect of the Programme and should not be regarded as an optional component for providing extra help: it is in the context of the tutorial that students are challenged to develop their powers of analysis, of expression, and of discussion.

Every Friday afternoon during the academic year, the Programme offers an additional General Tutorial, a gathering to which all the lecturers of the week are invited to discuss questions arising from the week's lectures with interested students.

Evaluation and Grading

Evaluation of the students' performance is continuous, made on the basis of essays, examinations and tutorial work. The final grade is a composite of all evaluations, and is the result of discussion among all those teachers who have had grading responsibilities.

Final marks are based on students' papers, examinations and tutorial work. No student will be able to pass the course without completing all requirements. All students write the first essay of the year within two weeks of the start of term. Beyond this, students registered in KING 1000.24 will write twelve essays over the six sections of the course, and students in KING 1100.18 will write nine essays. The KING 1100.18 stream comprises roughly three-quarters of the work of the KING 1000.24 stream. The additional work of students in KING 1000.24 will relate to the Thursday classes, which are required for them but not for students in KING 1100.18.

Credit

Successful completion of the Programme gives students in KING 1000.24 four full credits (twenty-four credit hours) towards their degree. These students must add one full credit from the offerings of the College of Arts and Science to achieve a complete first year. KING 1100.18 is worth three full credits (eighteen credit hours); students in KING 1100.18 must add two full credits to achieve a complete first year.

Foundation Year Programme and Degree Requirements*Subject Equivalents

The Foundation Year Programme may be combined with almost any programme of study in Arts and with many in Science; students are asked to discuss their proposed programme with the Registrar or the Director of the Foundation Year Programme before registering for classes.

The Foundation Year Programme satisfies both the Humanities/Languages and Social Sciences requirement of the College of Arts and Science (see "College of Arts and Science Subject Groupings" in the "Degree Requirements" section of this calendar).

The Foundation Year Programme also satisfies the Writing Class requirement. Upon successful completion of the Programme the normal departmental requirement of passing an introductory course in the discipline concerned is waived by the following departments of the College of Arts and Science:

- English
- History
- Philosophy,
- Sociology (excluding Social Anthropology)

The following departments of the College of Arts and Science admit students who have completed the Foundation Year Programme to introductory and advanced courses for which there is no language requirement: Classics; German, Spanish and Russian Studies.

In addition, the following departmental provisions have been established:

Biology

Successful completion of the Foundation Year Programme supplies the prerequisites for BIOL 3410.03 and 3402.03. These are courses in the history of science and the history of biological sciences.

Comparative Religion

The Department of Comparative Religion recognizes the Foundation Year Programme as satisfying the prerequisites for COMR 2101.06, 2202.06 and 2531.06.

Economics

German

Successful completion of the Foundation Year Programme may be regarded as a substitute for GERM 2200.06.

Journalism

The University of King's College requires the Foundation Year Programme for the first year of the BJ (Hons) degree.

Political Science

While there are no special arrangements with the Department of Political Science, students should note that some second-year Political Science classes have no prerequisite, and the Department will consider waiving the requirement for certain introductory courses.

Professional Programmes

The Faculties of Medicine and Dentistry and the School of Physiotherapy of Dalhousie University have endorsed the Foundation Year Programme as an appropriate part of an academic programme taken in preparation for admission to their professional programmes.

Outline of the Foundation Year Programme

The following are the teaching units of the course. One or more aspects of western culture tends to be stressed in each unit. On average, four teaching weeks are devoted to each of these sections.

Section I. The Ancient World: We trace the origins of much of western European development through the institutions, art, religion and thought of Greece, Rome and Israel. The focus is on poetic and philosophical texts. Required reading may include the following works:

Homer, The Iliad
Sappho, selected poems
Sophocles, Oedipus the King
Euripides, The Bacchae
Plato, The Republic
Aristotle, The Physics (selections)
The Bible (Genesis, Exodus, Job)
Cicero, On Duties
Vergil, The Aeneid

Section II. The Medieval World: The main concern of this section is with the development of Christian forms in political, social and intellectual life as these grow in contrast to, and by assimilation of, ancient culture. We attempt to grasp the world of the late middle ages through Dante's Divine Comedy. Required reading may include the following works:

St. Paul, Epistle to the Romans
St. Augustine, The Confessions
St. Benedict, The Rule
The Song of Roland
St. Anselm, Proslogion
St. Thomas Aquinas, Summa Theologica (selections)
Mechthild of Magdeburg, The Flowing Light of the Godhead
Dante, The Divine Comedy

Section III. The Renaissance and Reformation:

In this section we examine the foundations of modernity in the breakup of the medieval world. The Renaissance re-ordering of the world is seen through works of art, political writing, literature, the expansion to the world beyond Europe and a new view of nature. The re-ordering of Christianity is seen through the Reformation and Counter-Reformation.

Pico della Mirandola, Oration on the Dignity of Man
Machiavelli, The Prince
Martin Luther, The Freedom of a Christian
Las Casas, The History of the Indies (selections)
St. Teresa of Avila, The Way of Perfection
Marlowe, Doctor Faustus
Shakespeare, King Lear

Section IV. The Age of Reason: Beginning with Descartes, we study the development of the modern concept of freedom in philosophy and in relation to nature and society. Special attention is paid to political theory and natural science in this section. Required reading may include the following works:

Descartes, Meditations on First Philosophy
Hobbes, Leviathan (Books I and II)
Newton, Principia Mathematica (selections)
Hume, Enquiry Concerning Human Understanding (selections)
Rousseau, Discourse on the Origin and Foundations of Inequality among Mankind and The Social Contract (Books I and II)
Mozart, The Marriage of Figaro
Adam Smith The Wealth of Nations (selections)

Section V. The Era of Revolutions: European culture and society from the French Revolution to World War I is the focus of this section. We endeavour to understand the rise of liberalism and socialism relative to the revolutions in 19th-century political and economic life. The century is seen as providing the transition between the European Enlightenment and the preoccupations of the twentieth century. Required reading may include the following works:

Hegel, The Philosophy of History (selections)
Wordsworth and Coleridge Lyrical Ballads
J.S. Mill, On Liberty
Marx, Economic and Philosophic Manuscripts (selections)
Engels, Socialism, Utopian and Scientific
Dostoyevsky, Crime and Punishment
Darwin, The Origin of Species (selections)
Durkheim, Selected Writings (excerpts)
Nietzsche, The Genealogy of Morals

Section VI. The Contemporary World: The twentieth century is a period in which there has been a radical rethinking of various aspects of the European tradition, and a concern for the validity of much that the West has developed. Required reading may include the following works:

Freud, New Introductory Lectures on Psychoanalysis (selections)

Mann, Death in Venice
T.S. Eliot, The Waste Land
Sartre, Dirty Hands
de Beauvoir, The Second Sex
Heidegger, What is Metaphysics?
Wittgenstein, Philosophical Investigations (selections)
Lyotard, The Post-Modern Condition
Pynchon, The Crying of Lot 49

Introduction

Our assumptions about the contemporary world are not only changing but becoming increasingly diverse and complex. One way in which we can reasonably try to make sense of our period as a whole is to combine into a single course of study several different disciplines and traditions of enquiry. To this end, Dalhousie University and the University of King's College jointly offer an interdisciplinary Programme in Contemporary Studies. This Combined Honours BA programme brings together departmental offerings in arts and the social sciences at Dalhousie, and joins them with Contemporary Studies classes, including a required core class for each upper year of study at King's. The Contemporary Studies classes count as one of two honours subjects in a BA Combined Honours programme.

The King's portion of this intercampus degree programme consists of integrated and interdisciplinary classes. These classes include specialists from a number of disciplines, involve team-teaching throughout, and are supported by a tutorial system. The intention is to provide students with a many-sided yet unified introduction to the study of the contemporary world.

Contemporary Studies classes are designed so that important writers and artists of the 20th century may be considered both on their own terms and in relation to some of the fundamental themes of our time. This naturally very often involves a consideration of the difference between these writers and artists and those of the nineteenth century. The three core classes give students a framework for understanding political, scientific, and aesthetic phenomena in the 20th century. Elective classes focus on diverse aspects of and explanations for these often contradictory contemporary phenomena.

Aside from preparing undergraduates for specialized training at the graduate or professional level, the Contemporary Studies Programme is intended to provide students with a broad overview of twentieth-century culture, especially the European and North American relation to it. Students are encouraged to relate the various aspects of contemporary thought to one another, and to develop independent insights into the nature of the world in which they live. It is also hoped that Contemporary Studies students will take an active role in organizing certain events each year, including lectures, debates, and exhibitions.

Degree Programmes

The departmental offerings within the Contemporary Studies Programme at Dalhousie include the other honours subject, and a number of possible electives. The other honours subject must be selected from the following list of Dalhousie departments and programmes: Classics, English, French, German, History, International Development Studies, Music, Philosophy, Political Science, Russian, Sociology and Social Anthropology, Spanish, and Theatre.

Electives may be taken in any of the above mentioned departments and programmes, as well as in the following: Comparative Religion, Music, and Women's Studies. In addition, some professors in the Dalhousie Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences are members of the Contemporary Studies teaching staff and offer classes at King's.

Combined Honours

Students who are eligible to take an honours degree are urged to apply to the Contemporary Studies Programme. Applications for admission must be made to the Dalhousie department concerned and to the Contemporary Studies Office at King's, on forms available from the Registrar. Students should apply before registering for the second year; if application is made later, it may be necessary to make up some work not previously taken.

For each individual student the entire degree programme, including elective classes, is subject to supervision and approval by the Dalhousie department concerned and by a member of the Contemporary Studies teaching staff.

All Contemporary Studies students are encouraged to acquire competence in languages through appropriate classes which are relevant to their degree, interests, and future plans.

Students may take an "Independent Reading Class" only when they reach their third or fourth year. There are six options for this class, but only one full credit or the equivalent may be taken in a year. No more than two full credits of this type may be taken during the degree programme. The permission of a member of the teaching staff is necessary in order to take these classes, and their availability is strictly limited.

Programme Requirements

All students must meet the degree requirements for a BA with Combined Honours of the College of Arts and Science; students should consult the "Degree Requirements" section in this calendar for specific regulations.

The twenty full credits required for graduation with a BA with Combined Honours in Contemporary Studies and another honours subject must include:

- (1) Completion of either the King's Foundation Year Programme (either KING 1000.24 or KING 1000.18), or at least two full credits from among the following:

CLAS 1000.06, 1010.06, 1021.03 and 1022.03, 1100.06;
COMR 1000.06/2000.06
ENGL 1000.06
HIST 1001.03, 1002.03, 1050.06, 1100.06, 1200.06, 1300.06, 1400.06
MUSC 1000.06, 1350.03 and 1351.03
PHIL 1000.06, 1010.06
POLI 1100.06, 1103.06, 1501.06;
SOSA 1000.06, 1050.06, 1100.06, 1200.06
SPAN 1100.03
MATH 1001.03 and 1002.03.

- (2) A normal requirement of eleven (11) full credits beyond the 1000 level in the two honours subjects, not more than seven (7) full credits being in either of them. Students may, with the approval of both the Dalhousie department concerned and the Contemporary Studies teaching staff, elect a maximum of thirteen (13) full credits in the two principal subjects, not more than nine (9) full credits being in either of them. In this case, the requirement in (3) below is reduced to two or three full credits.

- (3) Four full elective credits in subjects other than the two offered to satisfy the general requirement that students complete fifteen full credits beyond the first year of study.
- (4) The three "core" classes in Contemporary Studies: CTMP 2000.06, CTMP 3000.06, and CTMP 4000.06.
- (5) Honours Qualifying Examination (see "Degree Requirements" section for a detailed description of this general honours requirement). Contemporary Studies students may choose to acquire this additional grade in either honours subject or both. Completion of CTMP 4500.06, as a twenty-first credit, is sufficient to satisfy the requirement for an Honours Qualifying Examination.

Classes Offered at the University of King's College

CTMP 2000.06R Social and Political Thought in the 20th Century: This class will examine some of the major figures in contemporary social and political thought. The 19th-century background to these figures will be explored, but the class will concentrate on developments in the 20th century. Particular attention will be paid to changes in music and painting during this period. Writers to be considered include Kant, Marx, Nietzsche, Heidegger, Derrida, Foucault, and Habermas. Movements to be discussed include German Idealism, Romanticism, Marxism, Existentialism, Phenomenology, Structuralism, Post-Structuralism, and Critical Theory.

Instructor: K. Kierans
Format: lectures and tutorials
Prerequisite: none

CTMP 2010.06R/3010.06R/4010.06R The Lecture Series: Each year a lecture series class is offered. Students are allowed to take up to three such classes, one for each year of upper-level study. Each class will consist of thirteen bi-weekly evening lectures, given by specialists from Atlantic Canada and beyond. The lecturers will offer students reflections on a number of contemporary issues and themes. Each year a different theme will be explored. Small-group tutorials help students prepare for and react to the lectures.

In 1995/96 the subject for the lecture series was modern technology and its often contradictory implications for nature, family life, women, minorities, political structures, literature, drama, and the arts.

Instructor: staff
Format: bi-weekly evening lectures (two hours) and weekly tutorials (two hours)

CTMP 2110.03A The Thought of Simone Weil: Simone Weil (1909-1943) is one of the rare people of real genius in the first half of our century. She was born in Paris, and was a fellow student with Jean-Paul Sartre and Simone de Beauvoir. Their philosophy professor, Alain, described Weil as "far superior to the rest of her generation." For some time she was a teacher of philosophy; then in order to understand industrial working conditions she worked for a year on an assembly line. Albert Camus was responsible for having several of her essays published. She fled the Nazi occupation of France, but died in London at the age of 34.

This seminar class will read and discuss a selection of her essays on a variety of topics, from the critique of Descartes in her Lectures on Philosophy to her assessment of Pythagorean metaphysics and contemporary Marxist political theory, and from writings on the history of mathematics and metaphysics to ones about human nature and political legitimacy in medieval France. In writings published posthumously there is rich testimony to her profound religious understanding, which we shall also consider.

Instructor: S. Burns
Format: Seminars and tutorials
Prerequisite: None

CTMP 2111.03B The Thought of Ludwig Wittgenstein: Wittgenstein (1889-1951) is, perhaps with Heidegger, the most influential philosopher of our century. He was a founding genius of two distinct political movements (sometimes called Ideal Language Philosophy and Ordinary Language Philosophy). Although born and raised in Vienna, he studied philosophy with Bertrand Russell at Cambridge, and returned there in 1929 to work. His extraordinary influence on philosophy is the result of his teaching small groups of dedicated students. Published for the most part posthumously, his writings, too, have made him a philosopher's philosopher.

Nevertheless, his fame has been sufficient that his influence has extended well beyond the questions about the foundations of logic and language which preoccupied him. This class will explore some of the broader implications of his work, touching on music, art and architecture, on anthropology and psychology, and on ethics and religion, as well as on his central contributions to the philosophy of language and mind.

CTMP 2200.06R History of Modern Science: This course will be an introduction to the history of modern science, from its beginnings in the Scientific Revolution up to the institutions and professions of twentieth-century "Big Science." Going beyond a straight history of scientific "ideas," we shall examine the social and cultural place of science and its claim to overarching truths in each historical period. Students will be expected to research an historical paper and participate in small tutorials.

CTMP 3000.06R Science and Culture: In the twentieth century, Science and Culture are often presented as a dichotomy. In this class we shall be examining that dichotomy, attempting to explode it by showing that science itself has a culture, and that science is very much embedded in culture. We shall investigate disputes within sociology and philosophies of scientific method, debates around the public role of science, and the recent criticism of science and its place in society by the powerful critiques of feminism and post-modernism. A strong emphasis will be placed on case studies and seminar presentations.

Instructor: G. McOuat
Format: lectures and tutorials
Prerequisite: Combined Honours students require CTMP 2000.06 or instructor's permission

CTMP 3310.06R Culture, Politics and the Post-Colonial Condition: The term "post-colonial" marks not only the historical passage of Western colonial expansion and domination, of subaltern resistance and national independence, but also describes a renewal of the cycle of domination and resistance, dependence and struggle, in the new nations that have emerged since the end of World War II and in Western metropolitan centres with their changed conditions and new populations. This course will examine the complex relations and changing configurations of dominations and struggle that continue to exist in our post-colonial world.

CTMP 3320.03A Between Story and Memory: Representations of the Holocaust: Fifty years after World War II, the imperative to "never forget" the Holocaust has acquired new urgency. Pierre Vidal-Naquet, a prominent Holocaust scholar, has stated that this generation is witnessing the transformation of memory into history, a history which is always imbedded in discourse. Can we prevent the dissolution of memory in the medium of representation? How do post-war generations "bear witness" to what has been bequeathed to them in the form of stories? In what sense does the horror of the Holocaust transcend the morally indifferent exigencies of narrativity? Further, are some forms of remembering true and ethical, while others are not? These are the questions that will guide us in this class on the representations of the Holocaust. Since no story can do justice to the suffering of the victims—which is the Holocaust narrative's ultimate referent—we will focus on various, often disparate modes of talking about the unspeakable. Through the reading of literary works, based either on eye-witness accounts (for example, works by Primo Levi, Elie Wiesel, Tadeusz Borowski and Paul Celan) or on mediated testimony (such as Art Spiegelman's Maus), we will explore the ethical implications of the writer's effort to convert the inexpressible into a story. We will also examine philosophical positions related to these themes through selected readings from the works of prominent contemporary thinkers.

In addition to required readings, students will be provided with a comprehensive list of recommended texts and encouraged to explore the issues mentioned in class in oral presentations and research papers. The selections from literature and philosophy will be supplemented with a variety of other materials such as the films Korczak and Shoah, short taped documentaries or photographs from recent commemorative publications.

CTMP 4000.06R The Deconstruction of the Tradition in the Twentieth Century: This class has been designed as a survey of the philosophical thought that has questioned and debunked the tradition of Western metaphysics. Through the analysis of selected philosophical and literary texts, we will trace the unravelling of the fundamental concepts of Western philosophy such as authority, truth, identity, subjectivity and representation, and we will explore the shift of the critical paradigm towards a non-totalizing, pluralistic discourse. The discussion will cover the works of the main proponents of deconstruction, as well as address the questions that lead to charges of moral relativism being levelled at post-structuralist schools of thought. We will look at alternative perspectives proposed by thinkers such as Levinas, Lyotard and Blanchot, who insist on the possibility of maintaining an ethical position. We will also search for the ethical dimension in the questions about the "end of history" and the erosion of dialectics. Through the reading of excerpts from Derrida's Glas and Blanchot's Writings of the Disaster, we will relate the historical to the aesthetic realm. In that part of the course, the emphasis will fall on the need to introduce the ethical to the discussion about the crisis of representation. In particular, we will focus on the simulacrum and the sublime, the notions which overturn reproductive mimesis and allow us to look beyond the question of Being.

The class offers an excellent opportunity to get acquainted with a number of outstanding theoretical and literary works, as well as to make an individual contribution to the ongoing search for a new sensibility arising at the borders of ethics and aesthetics.

CTMP 4115.06R Language and Politics: The Linguistic Turn in Contemporary Political Thought: The dominance of an individualistic liberalism in Anglo-American political thought recently has come to be challenged by a number of communitarian political thinkers (e.g., Charles Taylor, Alisdair MacIntyre and Michael Sandel). This course seeks to elucidate the sources and development of communitarian political thought by considering its grounding in twentieth-century philosophy of language and its relation to developments in continental political philosophy. The course begins with a consideration of a number of the most influential developments in the twentieth century's philosophical reconsideration of the role and nature of language. We will then look to how these developments have been taken up by continental political thought, before turning to the liberal-communitarian debate. In this last topic, the emphasis will be on a consideration of the strengths and weaknesses of the communitarian standpoint and its notable integration of continental developments within the Anglo-American philosophical tradition.

CTMP 4120.06R The Critique of Culture and the Fate of Modernity in 20th-Century French Thought: This class explores some of the key figures and movements in French intellectual life in this century. The class traces the evolution of French thought from the revolutionary humanism of the 1930's to the nihilism and scepticism dominant since the 1960's. The class deals in turn with the philosophy of the early French Hegelians, Sartre, Merleau-Ponty, the structuralists, Foucault, Derrida, Deleuze and Lyotard. Certain literary and artistic works are also considered. The effort throughout is to relate the philosophical history of the period to political and cultural developments which have helped shape French intellectual life.

The course will attempt to illuminate the intellectual background against which these women write, particularly in the areas of linguistic and anthropological structuralism, and in psychoanalytical theory. The course will be organized in part by the historical evolution of feminist thought, in part by the consideration of central feminist concerns.

Awards

King's Scholarships

General Policy

The following points outline general policies which apply to the administration of entrance and in-course scholarships awarded by the University of King's College:

- King's scholarships are tenable in the academic year immediately following their award. Students may hold only one (1) King's scholarship at a time.
- King's scholarships normally are awarded for one year only: that is, they are non-renewable, with the following three exceptions: the Dr. W. Bruce Almon, the Dr. Carrie Best, and the Nova Scotia Power scholarships. For details about each of these awards, see the individual entries, below, under "Entrance Scholarships."
- Entering students to whom an entrance scholarship is awarded must undertake a full class load for the academic year immediately following the award. A full class load consists of not fewer than five full credits (i.e., 30 credit hours).
- All scholarships, prizes and bursaries will first be credited to the student's account for payment of fees owed to King's (tuition, residence and other prescribed fees). Any portion in excess of the aforementioned charges will be refunded to the student, normally in November.
- Transfer students (including those transferring from Dalhousie to King's) are not eligible for King's scholarships in the year of transfer. After one year, such students would be considered on the same basis as other students.
- To be considered for an in-course scholarship, a student must have carried in the preceding year a full class load (i.e., five full credits or the equivalent). Summer session classes will be considered, and will be included in the previous Regular session grades; students are eligible for in-course scholarship consideration if they have completed five full credits within in the calendar year (September 1-August 31).
- Students holding scholarships in their fourth year of full-time study must be enrolled in a four-year degree programme (Advanced Major or Honours), or in an Honours Certificate year or in an Advanced Major Certificate year.

For 1995, the value of the Special Bursary was set at 12% of the current year's CSL, to an annual maximum of $625, and to a total cumulative maximum of $2,500. Please note: this bursary is not available to transfer students.

The following King's Bursaries are awarded by the King's Bursary Committee and are available to needy King's students who have exhausted other areas of financial assistance, including the Canada Student Loan Programme. strate fiscal hardship are eligible to apply. Application forms are available from the Registrar; applications are accepted between November 1 and March 15 of each year.

Alumni Association Memorial Bursary Fund: In 1975 the King's College Alumni Memorial Fund was established with a two-fold purpose. It was to provide an opportunity for gifts to be placed in memory of Kingsmen, staff, students or their friends. Monies received as a memorial are invested and a Book of Memory is established in the Chapel. In it are recorded names of those in whose memory gifts are placed.

The income is to be used as a bursary fund to assist worthwhile students, over and above scholarships, and to provide student aid and/or prize funds. ## The University of King's College Students' Union

KSU Office: 311 North Pole Bay
University of King's College

Telephone: (902) 422-2299

The King's Students' Union (KSU) is an organization made up of all students attending King's College. Its purpose is to represent the members politically, and to provide services for them.

At the King's College level, the KSU has members on the school's Board of Governors and many committees, and the Union works with the administrators of the University in many ways to improve quality of education and students' access to it.

KSU members are also members of the Canadian Federation of Students (CFS) and the Students Union of Nova Scotia (SUNS). CFS and SUNS are lobby groups representing students at the federal and provincial levels of government, respectively.

The services provided by the KSU include a Health Insurance Plan, Orientation Week, administration of the Walkhome Service, the Handbook, the Yearbook, and Graduation Week activities. The Union also funds many different societies and committees, and King's athletics. Finally, the Students' Union operates HMCS King's Wardroom, the campus lounge.

The Union is governed by its members at General Meetings, open forums where every member has an equal vote and right to participate in direct democracy. Between General Meetings, Student Council acts as the governing body of the Union. Council meetings are open to all Union members, but the only people who may vote are the 17 elected representatives.

On a day-to-day basis, the KSU is run by the Executive, five people elected in February to posts of President, Communications Vice-President, External Vice-President, Financial Vice-President, and Internal Vice-President. The Executive sit on Council, and they can often be found in the Union Office, or in the Wardroom lounge.

KSU Organizations and Societies

Bleeding Hearts

The Bleeding Hearts, a community awareness group, assists local charities in raising money.

Campus Safety Committee

The CSC, chaired by the Internal VP (KSU), exists to develop policy and direct the IVP in matters of campus safety. Services under its domain include the Walkhome programme and the responsible drinking campaigns.

The King's College Chapel Choir

The Choir enjoys a membership of approximately 30 students, sings in the Thursday and Sunday services, and performs a range of liturgical music, from the Renaissance to the contemporary. The Choir tours churches in the Maritime provinces, and is heard in the occasional concert and recording. Some choral scholarships are available to choir members (see "Special Awards" in the Awards section in this calendar).

King's College Day Students' Society

The Day Students' Society promotes the interests of the non-resident members of the College. It administers $20 of the $25 College Fee paid by each non-resident student registering at King's.

Contemporary Studies Society

In 1993/94, the defunct Hypatia Society was dragged out of the past and into the light by students in the newly inaugurated Contemporary Studies Programme. Open to all King's students who have an interest in the history of thought, the Contemporary Studies Society holds regular film nights and the occasional cultural extravaganza.

CUBE

The King's Amateur Athletic Association (A times A times A, or "A cubed," or just CUBE) runs intramural basketball and volleyball and other sports during the fall and winter terms.

King's Environmental Group

The King's Environmental Group promotes a clean environment and organizes recycling at King's.

Events Committee

The Events Committee is made up of interested students and the KSU's Events Coordinators, working to put activities together for the rest of the KSU. Past social success include Octoberfest and Winter Carnival.

The Eye (Improvisation Group)

The Eye meets once a week to act out gags and gaffes off the cuff. Members meet to practice their improvisational skills. The Eye does a few public performances a year.

External Affairs Committee

The Union's External Vice-President chairs the committee, and any students interested in the Canadian Federation of Students (CFS), the Students Union of Nova Scotia (SUNS), or the world beyond King's in general are invited to share their views.

The Haliburton

The Haliburton was founded and incorporated by the Act of the Nova Scotia Legislature in 1884, and is the oldest literary society on a college campus in North America. Its object is the cultivation of a Canadian Literature and the collecting of Canadian books and manuscripts, as well as books bearing on Canadian History and Literature. College students and interested residents of the metropolitan area meet to listen to papers and readings given by literary figures and by the students.

King's Image Photographic Society (KIPS)

Photo enthusiasts or soon-to-be enthusiasts meet as KIPS to exchange ideas and practical knowledge. KIPS uses the King's darkroom to develop their film.

King's Independent Writing Initiative (KIWI)

King's Out-Tripping Society

Journalism Society

Because King's journalism students have concerns specific to them and their department, in 1991 a miniature student government was established in the J-school. All journalism students are members of this society, and each class has a member on the society's governing Council.

Musica Regalis (The King's Madrigal Society)

The King's Madrigallers sing unaccompanied secular songs of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Membership in the society is open to all members of the College, presuming, of course, that they are interested, able, and not prone to tone-deafness. Madrigallers go madrigalling for the sheer enjoyment of the activity itself; they occasionally perform publicly too.

Model United Nations

The Dal/King's University Model United Nations Society (DUNMUNS) sends a delegation to New York each year to participate in an international model United Nations conference. It is a great opportunity to see how the UN works (or doesn't work), so make a resolution to get involved.

The Quintilian Debating Society

Racial Accessibility Committee

Chaired by the External VP of the KSU, the Racial Accessibility Committee addresses the issue of racial accessibility at King's (i.e., struggles with the question: why is almost everyone at King's white?) It is a committee open to all students.

The Record

The Record, founded in 1878, evolved from a magazine to its current place as the College Yearbook. It includes a summation of the year's activities and awards.

The St. Andrew's Missionary Society

The society was founded in 1890. Its object is to promote interest in missionary work and to further the gospel of Christ especially in the Maritime Provinces, and particularly on the University campus. The annual meeting is held on St. Andrew's Day, or as near to it as possible. The society seeks to direct its energies to the development of the spiritual life open to university students at King's, and promotes a strong and lively witness to the Christian faith on the university campus. On the larger scale it addresses itself to the concerns of the faithful of the Dioceses of Nova Scotia and Fredericton.

The St. Thomas Aquinas Society

King's College Theatrical Society

The KTS was founded in 1931 to further interest in theatre and drama at the College. Every year, the Society puts on a Fall and Winter production; the former is usually a professional play, and the latter is a musical. In addition, a number of student-written works are produced each term.

The Watch

The Watch is an autonomous student newspaper published once a month. Everyone is encouraged to participate in and write for The Watch.

King's Women's Action Committee

The King's Women's Action Committee deals with gender relations specifically involving women. All members of the King's community are encouraged to participate.

Young Alexandra Society (YAS)

All female students of the University belong to the YAS. Among its annual activities is the organization of a formal ball which raises funds for YAS scholarships.

KSU Health Plan

As members of the KSU, all full-time students of the University of King's College are automatically enrolled in a health insurance plan when they register in September. The KSU Health Plan is administered by the Union and Taleski Insurance Agency Inc; the insurance company is the Mutual Group. The fee for the plan is levied at the time of collection of KSU fees and provides coverage for a twelve-month period.

The extended health insurance plan supplements each student's provincial health care plan. It provides coverage for prescription drugs and extended health care benefits (including physiotherapy, massage therapy, medical equipment and appliances, dental accident benefits, and ambulance coverage) at a rate of 80% reimbursement. Other benefits include out-of-province medical emergency services and accidental death and dismemberment insurance at a rate of 100%. These benefits represent only a portion of the services provided by the plan. Students also have the option of enrolling spouses or family members by paying an additional coverage fee.

There exists the option of withdrawing from the plan if a student is covered under a comparably comprehensive plan (i.e., that of parents or guardians). Proof of an alternative plan (e.g., membership card, letter from insurance company) must be provided. Each year the KSU and the insurance company agree upon an opt-out deadline (usually four weeks from the beginning of classes in September). Once this date is passed no refunds will be given.

For information concerning either enrolling a spouse or family members, or opting out of the plan, students should contact the KSU office within two weeks of the start of classes to obtain the necessary forms and deliver the required documentation.

The health insurance plan is administered by the Communications VP, who provides additional information regarding details of the plan, its benefits and exclusions. Contact the CVP at the KSU office, 311 North Pole Bay, University of King's College; (902) 429-3399.

KSU Awards

The Students' Union awards its members "K's" for participation in all aspects of College Life. Under this system, begun in the 1956/57 academic year, students receive a silver "K" upon amassing 300 K points, and a gold "K" when they have acquired 600. An award of distinction is presented to a student graduating with over 1000 K points.

In addition, several awards are presented to students for outstanding achievements in extra-curricular activities:

Joshua Barnes Memorial Award: This award commemorates the life of Joshua Barnes, a King's College student who died in 1991. The award is presented to a male Day Student who contributes to the college community.

Ron Buckley Award: Awarded annually to the most valuable player on the Men's Varsity Soccer Team.

The Bookstore is situated on the lower level of the Dalhousie Student Union Building on University Avenue, and is open year round, Monday to Saturday (hours vary throughout the year).

University Computing and Information Services

University Computing and Information Services (UCIS) provides computing and communication services for students, faculty and staff for instructional, research and administrative purposes. It is responsible for all centrally managed computing and communications facilities.

UCIS manages a campus-wide communications network which interconnects office systems, laboratories systems, departmental computers, and central facilities. This network is connected to the Nova Scotia Technology Network, which in turn is connected to the national network CA*net, which has worldwide connections. UCIS is also responsible for Dalhousie university telephones.

Central computer systems include digital VAX4500 and two IBM RS/6000 computers which are used primarily for academic purposes; an Alliant FX/2816, which is a powerful parallel processing system used for research; and an IBM 4381 and two IBM RS/6000 computers supporting the University's central administrative systems. UCIS also manages numerous micro computer teaching laboratories which are situated throughout the campus, including laboratories in the Dalhousie School of Business, Engineering, English, History, Sociology, Law, Political Science, Physics, Biology, Earth Sciences, Dentistry, Psychology and at the central Computer Centre in the basement of the Killam Library.

All students may have access to these computing facilities on an individual basis or in conjunction with the classes that they take.

UCIS also manages the campus computer store, PCPC; provides short, non-credit computer-related courses in conjunction with Henson College; and offers a hardware maintenance service for micro-computers.

University Health Services

Dalhousie University operates an outpatient service, in Howe Hall, at the corner of Coburg Road and LeMarchant Street, staffed by general practitioners and a psychiatrist. Further specialists' services are available in local hospitals and will be arranged through the Health Service when indicated. All information gained about a student by the Health Service is confidential and may not be released to anyone without signed permission by the student.

Appointments are made during the clinic's open hours, from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. In the event of emergency, students should telephone the University Health Service at 494-2171 or appear at the clinic in person. Dalhousie University maintains health services on a 24-hour basis with a physician on call.

All students must have medical and hospital coverage approved by the Health Service. All Nova Scotia students are covered by the Nova Scotia Medical Services Insurance. All other Canadian students must maintain coverage from their home provinces. This is especially important for residents of any province requiring payment of premiums. All non-Canadian students must be covered by medical and hospital insurance prior to registration. Details of suitable insurance may be obtained from the University Health Service prior to registration. Any student who has had a serious illness within the last 12 months or who has any chronic medical condition, should contact and advise the Health Service, preferably with a statement from his or her doctor.

The cost of most medications prescribed by a physician is recoverable under a drug plan administered by the King's Students' Union.

Writing Workshop

The Writing Workshop programme recognizes that students in all disciplines are required to write clearly to inform, persuade, or instruct an audience in term papers, laboratory reports, essay examinations, critical reviews and more. This English language resource centre offers classes in language and writing, a tutorial service, guidelines for acceptable standard language usage, and provides information about sources for reference. For more information about the Writing Workshop, please call 494-3379.

Athletics at King's

The Department of Athletics is an integral part of campus life at King's. The University is a member of both the Nova Scotia College Conference and the Canadian Colleges Athletic Association. Men's and women's varsity teams compete in soccer, basketball, volleyball, and rugby.

The Director of Athletics works in co-operation with the elected representatives of the King's Amateur Athletics Association (known as CUBE) to provide an intramural programme which is characterized by spirited co-ed competition among the student body. The King's Interbay/Wing competition offers generous portions of fun to its participants, in the guise of events such as road racing, volleyball, basketball, badminton and soccer.

In 1994/95, King's revived (after a lapse of 15 years) its women's field hockey club. The College also offers weight training, aerobics and other related services for those students who are interested in achieving or maintaining a balanced level of personal fitness. Possibly the most inviting feature of the King's intramural and recreational programmes is the degree to which they are demand-responsive. At King's, you truly have the opportunity to have your opinions heard and your interests met (within reason, of course) through intramural activities.

For the Varsity athlete, King's offers one of Nova Scotia's best opportunities for those who wish to combine the pursuit of academic excellence with an equal commitment to excelling in their chosen sport. King's affords the student/athlete a unique environment in which to enjoy a close-knit, highly personal community atmosphere coupled with challenging athletic competition.

In terms of facilities, King's offers one of the best hardwood surfaces in Nova Scotia. In January 1995 construction was completed on a new state-of-the-art fitness centre, which is ideal for dance aerobics and self-defence classes. King's also boasts a newly-renovated weight room with a universal multi-gym, ideal for safe weight-training. It offers the opportunity for individuals to work out at their own pace and skill level.

The King's Athletic Department offers a dynamic opportunity for the student who wishes to remain involved in athletics after completing high school. For the serious athlete, there are varsity programmes which are characterized by a commitment to excellence. For those whose aims are more recreational in nature, the College offers a surprisingly wide range of exciting and enjoyable activities from which to choose. We urge every prospective student to join us at his or her chosen level of involvement.

Societies Connected with the College

Alumni Association of King's College

The King's Alumni Association, incorporated in 1846 by Act of the Legislature, is the oldest Alumni Association in Canada. Its membership consists of graduates and others whose objects is the furtherance of the welfare of the University. The Association maintains annual scholarships and bursaries, supports alumni, student and university activities, and sponsors the regular publication of Tidings, the College's Alumni magazine. The annual meeting of the Association is held during the week of Encaenia.

The Dr. Helen Creighton Foundation

The Dr. Helen Creighton Foundation was established at the University of King's College in 1990 with a founding endowment from the Province of Nova Scotia's Department of Tourism and Culture. It was the Creighton family's wish that Dr. Helen Creighton's reputation and work as a leading figure in the development of North American folklore should continue to be recognized in her native province. The Foundation is associated with King's, the University in which Helen Creighton served as Dean of Women, and with which she retained a long association.

The Foundation does not itself serve as either a research centre or a repository for folk-life materials; rather, it encourages the research, collection and study of folklore, and serves as a forum in which the broad academic interests of Dr. Creighton may be explored. Grants-in-Aid are awarded twice a year in the areas of folklore research, collection and publication, and in folklore performance and exhibition.

Divinity

With the establishment of the Atlantic School of Theology (AST) in 1974, the work of the Faculty of Divinity of the University of King's College was transferred to AST and the Faculty of Divinity dissolved as a teaching component of King's College. Divinity scholarships of King's College are tenable at the Atlantic School of Theology, and are awarded upon the nomination of the Scholarship Committee of AST.

Details of the offerings of the AST are given in a calendar published by AST, and available upon request.

Institute of Pastoral Training

The Institute of Pastoral Training was established in 1958 by collaboration of the University of King's College, Pine Hill Divinity Hall, the Divinity School of Acadia University, Presbyterian College (Montreal), and representatives of the Medical Faculty of Dalhousie University.

The Atlantic School of Theology (AST) continues to co-operate with Acadia Divinity College, Wolfville, NS, and Queen's College, St. John's, Nfld., in the Institute of Pastoral Training Incorporated. During the past years, the Institute has been greatly reduced in terms of its operations. It has offered Supervised Pastoral Education Programmes throughout the four Atlantic provinces to the standards of the Canadian Association for Pastoral Practice and education. The Institute has also provided opportunities for pursuing the degree of Master of Theology in Pastoral Care.

For information about its continued services under its reconstituted mandated, students should contact the Institute of Pastoral Training, 6345 Coburg Road, Halifax, Nova Scotia B3H 2A4, (902) 429-1848.
